Tommy,

Ideally we'd have a quick convo to include you to inform how we respond to these suggested edits. I know you are traveling today. We are holding 12:30 to talk to the WH team and I'd like to huddle before we talk to them – so could push that timing if you think you may have a window to connect? (b) (5)

Hi everyone attached is a new version of the draft BIL AML guidance with additions based on our last conversations in highlight. Our goal is to preview with the states early next week, and then release publicly late next week with a 3-week comment period and one public webinar (plus additional meetings with the states).

Let us know if you’d like to have more discussions on this.

Thanks,

Good Afternoon, Permitting Council Members:

Earlier today, the Administration released a Permitting Action Plan to strengthen and accelerate Federal permitting and environmental reviews by fully leveraging existing permitting authorities, as well as new provisions in the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law.

Leveraging the Permitting Council more broadly as an interagency governing body to help solve cross-cutting permitting issues (even for non-FAST-41 projects) is at the core of the Permitting Action Plan. It directs the Permitting Council Executive Director, CEQ, and OMB, in cooperation with NEC, the White House Climate Policy Office, and the White House Infrastructure Implementation Team to work closely with Permitting Council agency members to help ensure that environmental review and permitting decisions are being conducted in an efficient and effective manner.

To kick off this coordinated effort, we will be convening a Permitting Council meeting on Tuesday, May 17 from 3-4 PM to discuss how to leverage the Permitting Council and its expanded authorities under the BIL to improve coordination among agencies, help avoid and resolve potential conflicts and bottlenecks, identify and share best practices, and accelerate information sharing and troubleshooting.

We look forward to your attendance and discussing how we can work together to ensure the successful implementation of the Permitting Action Plan.

Thank you,

Christine Harada, Executive Director, Federal Permitting Council

Brenda Mallory, Chairwoman for the Council on Environmental Quality

Jason Miller, Deputy Director for Management, Office of Management and Budget

Cc:

Shalanda Young, Director, Office of Management and Budget

Brian Deese, Director, National Economic Council

Mitch Landrieu, Senior Advisor and White House Infrastructure Implementation Coordinator

Gina McCarthy, National Climate Advisor
