Federal Subsistence Board to Hold Work Session

This meeting announcement addresses a change in venue.

The Federal Subsistence Board (Board) will hold a work session February 7, 2024, beginning at 9:00 a.m. until the Board has completed its work. A meeting announcement published on January 19, 2024, previously stated that the work session would be held at the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Regional Office. The work session will now be held at the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Southern Alaska Fish & Wildlife Field Office at 4700 BLM Road, Anchorage, Alaska 99507-2546.

During the work session, the Board will review recommendations on the 2024 Fisheries Resources Monitoring Plan and updates and revisions to the Board's Regional Advisory Council Correspondence Policy. The Board will also receive a briefing on the Federal Subsistence Management Program dialog with the Pacific Salmon Commission regarding Transboundary issues.

A meeting agenda and associated meeting materials are available at www.doi.gov/subsistence/board. The public is welcome and encouraged to participate.

Teleconference toll-free: (833) 436-1163; Conference ID: 971 541 554#

Reasonable Accommodations: The Federal Subsistence Board is committed to providing access to these meetings for all participants. Please make request in advance for sign language interpreter service, assistive listening devices, or other reasonable accommodations. Please make requests to Robbin La Vine, (907) 786-3353, subsistence@fws.gov at least seven business days prior to the meeting you would like to attend to give the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service sufficient time to process your request. All reasonable accommodation requests are managed on a case-by-case basis.
