DOI-OS-2024-000184	Stringer, David	N/A	-	To whom it may concern Office Of The Secretary (OS), I am writing to request access to a specific set of documents under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552. The documents I am requesting are the official rolls prepared by the government officials or agents between 1830 and 1860 for the enrollment of individuals in the Five Civilized Tribes: Cherokee, Creek, Choctaw, Chickasaw and Seminole. These rolls were in the possession of the Secretary of the Interior or the Treasury Department and were not used by the Dawes Commission or the Department in making the final rolls according to the testimony referenced herein. According to the testimony of Mr. Henderson, an employee of the Indian Office, before the Committee on Indian Affairs, United States Senate, on April 23, 1908, there are about 80 or 90 of these rolls. This testimony can be found in the book or document titled "Opening of Rolls", which contains the transcript of the hearing. The reason I am requesting these documents is for transparency, history, genealogical, and public value, including that of the the descendants of these persons, etcetera. I am interested in learning more about the individuals who were enrolled or rejected by the government in the period between 1830 and 1914. I am also concerned about the accuracy and completeness of the final rolls that were used to determine the eligibility for tribal membership and benefits. I have consulted various sources and documents that mention or refer to these rolls, such as the ones I have mentioned in this request. Again, This information is mentioned in detail from the books and senate documents that contain transcripts of the official proceedings or hearings labeled "OPENING OF ROLLS". They involve dialogues between various senators and officials, such as Senator Davis, Senator Sutherland, Senator Taylor, Senator Curtis, Senator Brandegee, Mr. Ward, and Mr. Henderson. These dialogues discuss issues related to the publication and privacy of certain documents or information, the rights of the Indians and the homestead rights of the Indians mixed with negro blood, the cases determined by the Secretary of the Interior, and the rolls prepared by the government officials or agents between 1830 and 1860. They also indicate the knowledge and existence of the rolls I am seeking. For example, within the aforesaid Senate document or hearing, Senator Davis asks Mr. Ward if he knows that there are some 80 or 90 official rolls prepared by the government between 1830 and 1860 in the Treasury Department's office or the Secretary's office. Mr. Ward says he does not know that. Senator Davis then asks Mr. Henderson if he has seen those rolls. Mr. Henderson says he has not seen all of them. Senator Davis then asks Mr. Henderson if he had those rolls before him when he rendered decisions on enrollment cases. Mr. Henderson says he only had the ones that were in his office; Of which he affirms he only had six rolls made up by tribal officials' rolls and parts of rolls. This dialogue suggests that the rolls I am requesting may contain valuable genealogical information and supporting documentation for the individuals who were enrolled or rejected by the government in the period between 1830 and 1914. I believe that these documents are of public interest and importance, and that I have a right to access them under . . . The description has exceeded the character limit. DOI-OS-2024-000185	Stringer, David	N/A	-	To whom it may concern, I am writing to request access to a specific document under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552. The document I am requesting is the memorandum or list of names stricken from the rolls of the various tribes of the Five Civilized Tribes for any reasons, including those eliminated under the opinion of February 19, 1907. This document was completed in April 1907 by the Office Of Indian Affairs and furnished to its parent agency's secretary, James R Garfield, Secretary Of The Department of The Interior. It comprises approximately 3,426 names and includes an alphabetical index of said names. This document is the same as the list or memorandum press copy furnished to Commissioner Tams Bixby of the Dawes Commission by the Office Of Indian Affairs approximately on May 18, 1907 and cited in Congressional hearing before the Committee on Indian Affairs, United States Senate, Title: Opening of Rolls; Agency: Committee on Indian Affairs; Senate; Hearing Date: Apr. 23, 30, May 2, 1908. The reason I am requesting this document is for transparency, historical, genealogical, and public value including as it relates to the descendants of these persons, etcetera. I am interested in learning more about the individuals who were stricken from the rolls and the reasons behind their exclusion. I am also concerned about the accuracy and completeness of the final rolls that were used to determine the eligibility for tribal membership and benefits. I have consulted various sources and documents that mention or refer to this document, such as the Congressional hearing before the Committee on Indian Affairs, United States Senate, Title: Opening of Rolls; Agency: Committee on Indian Affairs; Senate; Hearing Date: Apr. 23, 30, May 2, 1908. As herein referenced in this request. The aforesaid Hearing contains transcripts of official proceedings or hearings labeled "OPENING OF ROLLS" They involve dialogues between various senators and officials, such as Senator Davis, Senator Sutherland, Senator Taylor, Senator Curtis, Senator Brandegee, Mr. Ward, and Mr. Henderson. These dialogues discuss issues related to the publication and privacy of certain documents or information, the rights of the Indians and the homestead rights of the Indians mixed with negro blood, the cases determined by the Secretary of the Interior, and the rolls prepared by the government officials or agents between 1830 and 1860. They also indicate the knowledge and existence of the document I am seeking. For example, in their dialogue, Senator Davis asks Mr. Henderson about the number of cases that were determined by the Secretary of the Interior during the week preceding March 4, 1907. Mr. Henderson replies that he does not know, but he does not think there were 2,023 cases as Mr. Ward had claimed. Senator Davis then asks Mr. Henderson if there was an order or understanding that the findings of the Commission should be pro forma affirmed by the Department. Mr. Henderson says he never saw such an order, but he heard from General Webster that the Secretary issued such an order for some days. Senator Davis then asks Mr. Henderson if it was possible to go over all of these cases in the final week to verify the facts and evidence. Mr. Henderson says no, it was not possible, and that the law had fixed a certain time within which all of these cases . . . The description has exceeded the character limit. A copy of a January 2023 letter sent to U.S. Secretary of the Interior Deb Haaland from members of the Haskell Indian Nations University cross-country team that claims a lengthy investigation into allegations of misconduct on the Haskell Indian Nations University campus concluded months ago but has yet to be made public. The investigation -- conducted in 2022 and 2023 -- reportedly uncovered "extensive evidence" of multiple crimes perpetrated by a group of about 10 employees, including fraudulent reports to remove staff, multiple "forms of assault," sexual abuse committed by students and employees, and the embezzlement and theft of federal property.
