DOI-OS-2024-000144	Pollack, John	-	-	Dear FOIA Officer: This message is a formal submission under the Freedom of Information Act. I am requesting all organization charts, official hierarchies, hierarchy ID numbers, employee directories and other records of that nature from the Office of the Secretary of the Department of the Interior (Agency) that together identify all of the Agency's component offices and the subsidiary work units comprising them, at all levels of the Agency's bureaucracy, if such records have been created, updated, shared or stored within the Agency since January 1, 2020. For clarity, I do not explicitly or implicitly seek the names, identities, nor contact information of any individual employees if such information reasonably qualifies for FOIA exemption. Rather, I seek only the names of all offices and their subsidiary work units, by any nomenclature, that together comprise the Agency at all levels of its bureaucracy. For purposes of this request, the words "all offices" shall be construed to include every bureaucratic entity and the work units comprising them, at all levels of the organization, in which one or more Agency employee has worked at any time since January 1, 2020. If a bureaucratic entity or work unit within the Agency is in any way differentiated by name, abbreviation, number, code, function, location, hierarchical position or any other means within the Agency's organization, consider such differentiating information to fall within the scope of this request. In the plainest terms and to the degree that the Agency maintains such organization charts, official hierarchies, employee directories and/or other records of that nature, I seek a complete, comprehensive and detailed understanding of the Agency's organizational structure, at all levels of its bureaucracy. Thank you very much for your assistance, and please call me if you have any questions at 202 415-3462. DOI-OS-2024-000175	Bogardus, Kevin	E&E News	-	I request the "requested information" the Department of the Interior has sent to the Office of Management and Budget regarding DOI's return-to-office goals and plans as described in the Jan. 19, 2024 email White House Chief of Staff Jeff Zients sent to cabinet-level officials. The text of Zients' email is copied and pasted below: "Hi team – We've all been focused on a mission critical priority: meaningfully increasing in-person work. Over the last few months, we've made some progress: A number of agencies have exceeded their goal of having staff work together in-person at least 50% of the time by last Fall, including the Departments of Veterans Affairs, Energy, Defense, State, as well as USAID. To highlight just one example, Secretary Blinken has set an expectation at the State Department that all employees will be in the office 3 or 4 times a week, recognizing that when it comes to diplomacy, there's no substitute for engaging face-to-face. Every agency is moving or has already moved towards a posture where hybrid teams are working in-person at least 50 percent of the time. However, some of your agencies are not where they need to be and have work ahead to meet your goals. Per the attached, your agency should have a system for monitoring implementation progress fully in place. I expect that you are personally tracking your progress, and taking appropriate action to meet your agency goals. It is time to close this out. Please have your Deputy or Chief of Staff send to OMB (redacted email) the attached requested information by next Friday, January 26, which will outline where you are today against your goal, your concrete plans and timing for achieving your goal, and additional implementation steps you will take. OMB has sent this request to your teams in parallel. As I said last summer, these changes will allow us to come back together — and come back stronger — to best serve the American people. I ask that you double down on your leadership to increase in-person work, especially at a time where the service of you and your team has never been more important. Thanks, JZ"	Complex	Complex	01/28/202401/29/2024-	-
