

2024-25 Winter Exhibition: Newly Acquired Contemporary Works from the Museum of the Plains Indian Collection

The Museum of the Plains Indian, Indian Arts and Crafts Board, presents its 2024-25 Winter Exhibition: Newly Acquired Contemporary Works from the Museum of the Plains Indian Collection, featuring a selection of 2-dimensional and 3-dimensional works.

The exhibition will run from December 16, 2024, to May 23, 2025.

This exhibit features recent additions to the MPI collection from various Native American artists including William Brien, Ishkoten Dougi, Terrance Guardipee, Jeremy Johnson, Terran Last Gun, Ernest Marceau, Barbara-Gerard Mitchell, Darrell Norman, Howard Pepion, James Red Fox, Bobby Von Martin and Jay Young Running Crane.

The exhibit also features accepted donated items to the Museum of the Plains Indian. These items are of Native American origin and history.

New acquired artwork includes oil and acrylic paintings, ledger art, pencil and ink and items made of rawhide, buckskin, beadwork, and alabaster.
