Federal Subsistence Board to Hold a Public Work Session in Anchorage, July 23-24, 2025

The Federal Subsistence Board (Board) will hold a public work session July 23-24, 2025, beginning at 9:00 a.m. until the Board has completed its work. The work session will be held at the Gordon Watson Meeting Room, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Regional Office, 1011 E Tudor Rd, Anchorage.

During the work session, the Board will review the Regional Advisory Council (Councils) FY24 annual reports and the Board's replies to the reports, correspondence, and charter change requests. On July 24 at 4:00 p.m. (time certain) the Board will take action on deferred Wildlife Proposal WP24-01, sale of brown bear hides harvested by federally qualified subsistence users. The Board may discuss other business items as well.

The public is invited to attend in person. To participate via teleconference, dial toll-free (833) 436-1163 (passcode 649 368 163#). You may also join the meeting via MS Teams: Join the meeting now.

The full agenda and meeting materials will be available online prior to the meeting at <https://www.doi.gov/subsistence/upcoming-federal-subsistence-board-meetings>.

The Board will also hold an executive session on Thursday morning, July 24, 2025. This meeting will be closed to the public. The purpose of the meeting is to develop recommendations to the Secretaries of the Interior and Agriculture for appointments to the Councils and discuss the Sitka Kaagwaantan Extraterritorial Jurisdiction Petition. A summary of the executive session will be made available to the Councils.

Reasonable Accommodations: The Board is committed to providing access to these meetings for all participants. Please make requests in advance for in person sign language interpreter service, assistive listening devices, or other reasonable accommodations. Direct requests to Robbin La Vine, (907) 786-3888, robbin_lavine@ios.doi.gov at least seven business days prior to the meeting. All reasonable accommodation requests are managed on a case-by-case basis.
