

Source Directory of American Indian and Alaska Native Owned and Operated Arts and Crafts

The Source Directory of American Indian and Alaska Native Owned and Operated Arts and Crafts Businesses (Source Directory) promotes the art and craftwork of federally recognized tribes and their members. These businesses include American Indian and Alaska Native arts and crafts cooperatives, tribal arts and crafts enterprises, and businesses and galleries privately owned and operated by individuals, designers, craftspeople, and artists.

To be listed in the Source Directory, qualified individuals or organizations should submit the following information:

- A Source Directory Business Listing application form that includes a draft of the business information in a format like other Source Directory listings’;
- A copy of the business owner’s tribal enrollment card (for a cooperative or tribal enterprise, include a copy of the documents showing that the organization is formally organized under tribal, state, or federal law).

If you would like to apply for a listing in the Source Directory and meet the eligibility requirements, you can download a copy of the application from our website, Source Directory Application, or call our toll free number for a paper application, and return via fax or mail to:
