NOV 12 2015

Ms. Rose A. Fosdick
P.O. Box 1485
Nome, Alaska 99762

Dear Ms. Fosdick:

It gives me great pleasure to reappoint you as a Commissioner to the Indian Arts and Crafts Board. Your appointment is effective the date of this letter and will extend through September 30, 2019.

The Indian Arts and Crafts Board promotes the development of American Indian and Alaska Native arts and crafts. The Commissioners determine the overall policies of the Board and supervise the implementation of these policies through a professional staff. The Commissioners also advise the Secretary on Native American cultural matters.

Under applicable ethics laws, your appointment carries with it the status of "special Government employee." This means that you will be subject to many of the same standards of conduct that apply to Federal employees in general, including the avoidance of conflict of interest. The standards that are specific to special Government employees are shown on the enclosed summary. As a special Government employee, you are required to file a confidential financial disclosure form and have ethics training on an annual basis. Please review the enclosed information regarding special Government employees and return the required forms within 30 days.

Ms. Meridith Stanton, Director of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board, will contact you with further information regarding the Board, including financial disclosure requirements. Ms. Stanton can be reached at (202) 208-3773 or at Meridith_Stanton@ios.doi.gov.

I believe that your dedication and expertise will continue to be an invaluable contribution to the important mission of the Indian Arts and Crafts Board.

Sincerely,

Sally Jewell

Dear Dr. Irmis:

It is my pleasure to appoint you to the Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument Advisory Committee (Committee) as a member with expertise in paleontology for a term ending 3 years from the date of this letter.

Resource Advisory Committees are composed of citizens from diverse backgrounds who share an interest in public lands. Although the Committees are solely advisory in nature, the contributions of Committee members are of great value to the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and have aided in the development of balanced decisions that serve the interests of all public land users.

The Committee provides advice to the BLM's Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument Manager regarding the management of public land resources within the Committee's jurisdiction. The Committee will generally meet two to four times per year, but in no case will it meet less than once each year. Ms. Cindy Staszak, BLM Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument Manager, or her representative, will contact you shortly regarding the Committee's future meetings and other activities. Ms. Staszak can be reached at (435) 644-1200. A copy of the Committee's charter is enclosed for your information.

The Panel assists in identifying and prioritizing inventory, monitoring, and research needs regarding the management of public lands and off-shore resources on Alaska's North Slope. The Panel also provides other scientific advice to the North Slope Science Initiative Executive Director and Oversight Group. Although the Panel is solely advisory in nature, the contributions of Panel members are of great value to the Department of the Interior and have aided in the development of balanced decisions that serve the interest of all public land users.

Under applicable ethics laws your appointment carries with it the status of "special Government employee." This means that you will be subject to many of the same standards of conduct that apply to Federal employees in general, including the avoidance of conflict of interest. As a special Government employee, you are required to file a confidential financial disclosure form and complete ethics training on an annual basis. Please review the enclosed information regarding special Government employees and return the required forms within 30 days.

The Panel will generally meet two to four times per year, but in no case will it meet less than once each year. Dr. Dennis Lassuy, Deputy Director of the North Slope Science Initiative, will contact you shortly regarding the Panel's future meetings and other activities. Dr. Lassuy can be reached at (907) 271-3212. A copy of the Panel's charter is enclosed for your information.

I would like to express my deep appreciation for your willingness to commit your time and expertise to the Panel. I look forward to your active participation.

Sincerely,

Sally Jewell
