We developed our small business percentage and dollar goals for the MFLC Mission Execution Task by analyzing each of the major components of the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars, i.e., Subcontracted Counseling Services, Administrative Personnel Support Services, Information Technology Support of Information Warehouse, and Other Direct Costs. With the exception of the Subcontracted Counseling Services component, all remaining estimated subcontracted dollar values are included directly into our calculation of our proposed small business category goals, as shown later below. The remaining, and largest component of subcontracted costs, i.e., the “Subcontracted Counseling Services” expenses, includes both our MFLC Network counselors, and a portion of the JFSAP counselors which are to be furnished by our First-Tier Subcontractor and Teaming Partner, (b) (4). The Base and Option Periods contract amount included in our Price Proposal for MFLC Network counselors (independent subcontractor counselors) totals (b) (4), inclusive of Baseline, Augmented and Option quantities. An additional (b) (4) has been priced for the (b) (4) subcontract for provision of a portion of JFSAP counselors. The amount priced for (b) (4) is included in our later calculation of dollars to be subcontracted to Small Disadvantaged Business concerns, as (b) (4) fully so qualifies. For the MFLC Network Counselor dollar amount, we developed and assigned reasonable percentage goals across the various small business categories, and then derived the associated dollar values, as depicted in Exhibit 2-5, below. The “MHN Network Goals” were established based on consideration of those percentages derived from both our recent small business network survey and our past performance under the existing MFLC contract. The small business category dollar values derived below from our Network, are then included in the total small business category values for computation of our small business goals for this Proposal.

Exhibit 2-5. MFLC Network Small Business Distribution

Our established MFLC Network goals for Veteran Owned, Woman Owned, and Small Disadvantaged Business concerns are all fully supported by the percentages within our Network. The Other Small Business (SB) goal shown is simply the balance of subcontracted Network dollars that have been allocated under this Network analysis. In fact, the total value of (b) (4) represents the full MFLC Network small business goal. For Service Disabled Small Businesses, we used a goal of (b) (4) as it is only slightly higher than the total percentage of our Network SDVOSBs. We will reach or exceed this goal by targeting additional Task Orders to SDVOSB concerns, thereby raising the dollar amount and resulting percentage subcontracted to the category. For the HUBZone Network goal, MHN has established (b) (4) subcontracting goal shown below when subcontracting dollars outside of our Network are considered). We recognize that this will be a challenge to reach, but as supported elsewhere in this Plan, we are confident that through assertive outreach and support efforts, we will be able to realize this goal under the resulting contract.

| Business Category | MFLC Network | JFSAPs | Admin Services | ODCs | IW Support | Total | Goal % |

Exhibit 2-6. Calculated Small Business Subcontract Dollars & Percentages

- AbilityOne. (b) (4) is an AbilityOne organization. The dollar amount estimated to be subcontracted to (b) (4) is based upon two separate components, i.e., administrative labor and other direct costs. The first component is the estimated value of the administrative support services personnel that (b) (4) will be providing in support of MHN. The proposal received by MHN from (b) (4), for the Base Period purchase order for these administrative services, totaled (b) (4). The second component includes certain other direct costs included in MHN’s Price Proposal, which MHN intends to purchase through (b) (4) as the need for the same arises under the resulting contract. These other direct costs include counselor contact cards and name tags required to support the MFLC Program, and equal (b) (4) 1 over the full contract term. These estimated other direct costs are included in MHN’s ((b) (4)) proposed price, but will be purchased through (b) (4) once the requirements are definitized under the resulting MFLC contract. The total estimated value of the administrative support services and the other direct costs to be subcontracted to (b) (4) is estimated at (b) (4) the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars for the Base Period.
- Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB). (b) (4) and a qualified SDB. We have executed a formal Teaming Agreement with (b) (4) for providing fulltime MFLC counselors in support of the JFSAP program in the Western Region and portions of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in all four U.S. territories. The Price Proposal received by MHN from (b) (4), for the full contract term, totaled (b) (4). Their Price Proposal is fully supported by the number of JFSAP counselors allocated under the formally executed Teaming Agreement between MHN and (b) (4) and will constitute the dollar value of their resulting subcontract for the Base and all Option Periods. In addition to (b) (4), MHN has allocated (b) (4) of our proposed MFLC Network costs to SDBs, as shown in Exhibit 2-5. Thus, through the combination of a First Tier subcontract with (b) (4) and through effective distribution of counseling assignments to the SDBs within our network, MHN’s goal (b) (4) established by the Solicitation.
- Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB). The (b) (4) established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors. This percentage goal is only very slightly higher than the total percentage of our Network SDVOSBs. We will reach or exceed this goal by targeting additional Task Orders to SDVOSB concerns, thereby raising the dollar amount and resulting percentage subcontracted to the category.

- Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB). The (b) (4) established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors.
- Women Owned Small Business (WOSB). (b) (4) established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors.

2.2.2 Goals Expressed in Percentages

|---|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| AbilityOne Program | 1% | (b) (4) |
| Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) | 5% | (b) (4) |
| Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) | 3% | (b) (4) |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business (VOSB) | 3% | (b) (4) |
| Woman-Owned Small Business (WOSB) | 5% | (b) (4) |
| Historically Underutilized Business Zone (HUBZone) | 3% | (b) (4) |
| Small Business (cumulative total of all small business) | 32% | (b) (4) |

Exhibit 2-7. MHN Meets or Exceeds the Government's Small Business Subcontracting Goals in All Categories

The dollar values supporting the calculation of the above percentage goals are depicted in Exhibit 2-6. Please note that the percentage goals established for these individual small business categories (SDVOSB, VOSB Woman-Owned, etc.) will not sum to the “Small Business (cumulative total of all small business)” percentage reflected in the plan. This is due to the fact that a single small business concern may be counted toward multiple, individual goals. For example, a given company could qualify and self-certify as an SDB, Woman-Owned, and VOSB concern, and the subcontracted dollars/percentages associated with that concern will be counted in each of these example small business subcategories, in addition to being counted in the Small Business category. This approach to accounting for the various small business categories is in strict compliance with instructions provided by the Standard Form 294 (Subcontracting Report for Individual Contracts) and the Standard Form 295 (Summary Subcontract Report).

| Business Category | Dollar Amount | Percentage Goal |
|---|---------------|-----------------|
| AbilityOne | $ | (b) (4) |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | |

| TOTAL SUBCONTRACTED | $ | |

2.3 How SB Participation Will Contribute to Overall Subcontracting Goals (L.18)

MHN will leverage its long-established collaboration with our MFLC network, and our new teaming relationship with our First Tier Team Member Subcontractor, (b) (4) to fully address the important counseling services required under the MFLC Program. These relationships all involve Small Business concerns which will completely contribute to MHN’s subcontracting Goals. And, our AbilityOne vendor, (b) (4), will bring important administrative personnel to support our program management staff. MHN will also use (b) (4) to supply certain other direct cost items.

2.4 Specific Efforts to Ensure Contract Meets or Exceeds Proposed Goals (L.18)

MHN’s ability to meet the various small business goals is fully addressed in Section 2.2.1 above. Each of the individual goals is supported by our First-Tier subcontractor, through our demonstrated performance experience using our MFLC network, and through our identified AbilityOne company. To ensure that we meet our individual small business categories MHN will issue the respective subcontract to our Team Member, (b) (4), in the dollar amount included in our Proposal for the provision of a large component of JFSAP counselors. Further, we’ll utilize our MFLC network in the provision of all counseling services (excluding JFSAP counselors which will be provided directly by MHN and (b) (4)), thereby ensuring the use of our independent contractor counselors. To reach our AbilityOne goal, we will issue a purchase order to (b) (4) as already discussed, and in the amount of the quotation, and additional purchase orders for certain other direct costs required to support the MFLC Program. To address the issue of insufficient HUBZone subcontractor counselors, MHN intends to accomplish outreach efforts, via email, to our network of counselors to help them in identifying whether they meet the requirements for HUBZone eligibility. We will educate these particular providers that securing an SBA HUBZone certification is advantageous under a Federal Government program such as MFLC, as it will allow MHN to specifically target an increased level of work to them once we are aware of their status. For those that do meet eligibility, MHN will offer to assist those counselors in preparing and processing their applications through the SBA in order to secure their SBA certification. We will follow-up with those providers that do not initially respond to the outreach effort through additional emails. MHN’s subcontract manager and MHN’s Small Business Liaison Officer (SBLO) will provide individual assistance to such businesses demonstrating an interest. On a quarterly basis, MHN will review its small business performance against its established goals and identify any areas requiring improvement. If necessary, MHN will take aggressive action to ensure subcontracted work is brought up to the levels necessary to successfully meet our established goals.

2.5 Identification and Development of Potential Sources

MHN, leveraging Health Net Federal Service’s established Subcontracts Program, maintains database and source directories to identify small business concerns. We use listings from the following sources in the standard course of our business to the maximum practicable extent to ensure that small business concerns are identified:

- Veterans Service Organizations
- National Minority Purchasing Council Vendor Information Service
- Research and Information Division of the Minority Business Development Agency

MHN also conducts outreach efforts. Our representatives regularly attend and actively participate in federal procurement conferences, trade fairs, corporate meetings, industry council conferences, professional seminars, and association meetings to seek new small businesses qualified to furnish subcontracted services and materials as shown in Exhibit 2-9. This effort includes assistance in every reasonable manner to develop new, qualified small business concerns.

2.6 Indirect Costs

The subcontracting goals identified in this section are derived from the direct costs MHN proposes to incur. Indirect costs are not included.

2.7 Administration of the Plan

As part of its inter-company arrangement with MHN, HNFS Government Contracts management oversees the Small business Program and has designated (b) (4) to be responsible for the overall management of the Small Business Program. She has been designated as the MHN Small Business Liaison Officer. (b) (4) reports to (b) (4), our Subcontractor Manager, who also reports directly to (b) (4), Director of Government Contracts. 2.8 Equitable Opportunity

As an inter-company partner with MHN, the HNFS Vice President, Government Contracts, has issued several policies and procedures establishing directives to ensure the advocacy of the Small Business Program as it applies to both HNFS and MHN.

These include policies and procedures designed as directives to subcontract managers, purchasing agents, and buyers requiring compliance with corporate policy. MHN'S goal is to support SBI participation to the maximum extent practicable.

These directives prescribe requirements, including, but not limited to Procurement File Documentation, Supplier Business Questionnaires, and Sourcing and Selection Procurement Summaries.

In addition, and to ensure maximum SBI participation, (b) (4)

2.9 Subcontractor Flowdown Provisions

MHN includes the FAR clauses at 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns and 52.219-9, Small Business Subcontracting Plan in all subcontracts issued in support of MFLC and other federal agency contracts, except where not required by the terms of the affected clauses. With the inclusion of these flow down provisions, MHN will ensure that all subcontractors (except small business concerns) that receive subcontracts in excess of $650,000 ($1,500,000 for construction) to adopt a plan that complies with the requirements of the clause at 52.219-9.

2.10 Special Studies and Reports

MHN will cooperate in any study or survey as may be required.

- MHN will submit to the Contracting Officer semiannually and at contract completion the required periodic reports utilizing the Electronic Subcontracting Reporting System (eSRS). The reports will include:
 - Individual Subcontract Reports (ISR) (formerly Standard Form 294)
 - Summary Subcontract Report (SSR) (formerly Standard Form 295), including a breakout of subcontract awards, in whole dollars, to small disadvantaged business SBIs concerns by North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Industry Subsector at the close of each fiscal year
- MHN will ensure that our subcontractors agree to submit these reports, when appropriate.
- MHN will provide our prime contract number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, prime contractor's DUNS number, and the email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting reports, to all first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans so that it can be entered into the eSRS system. MHN will continue to furnish this information to any new first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans in the future.

- MHN will ensure; by written correspondence (to include certification), that our subcontractors' with subcontracting plans provide the prime contract number, our own DUNS number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, and email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting the reports, to our subcontractors with subcontracting plans.

2.11 Records to be Maintained

MHN will maintain records to demonstrate that our Small Business Subcontracting Program policies and procedures have been implemented. Additionally, records will be maintained, to track actual subcontracted dollars as compared to planned subcontracted dollars with the goal of assuring compliance with the requirements of this plan.

Examples of other records that are maintained are:

- SBI source lists, guides and other data, which enable procurement personnel to identify, develop and provide bid opportunities to such concerns
- Records of efforts to locate, obtain, and utilize SBI sources through contacts with government agencies and industry organizations
- Records of all awards of $100,000 or more, indicating on each solicitation (1) whether SBI concerns were solicited and, if not, why not, and (2) if applicable, the reason why the award was not made to a SBI concern
- Records of outreach efforts to contact trade associations, business development organizations, participation in conferences and trade fairs, and Veteran service organizations to locate SBI concerns
- Records of internal guidance and encouragement provided to procurement staff through workshops, seminars, training, etc., and monitoring performance to evaluate compliance with the program's requirement
- Records supporting award data submitted by the offeror to the government, including name, address, and business size of each subcontractor

2.12 MHN Functions Consistent With Efficient Contract Performance

Consistent with efficient contract performance, the following functions are accomplished through our day-to-day administration of the plan:

- Assist and encourage the participation of all potential subcontractors and SBI concerns by arranging solicitation requirements to ensure the requirements are not needlessly restrictive. The time to respond to solicitations, the quantity of product required, the technical specifications, and the delivery requirements will be designed to accommodate the needs of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. All SBI concerns will be given an opportunity to compete over a period of time, as subcontracting opportunities become available. Guidance and counsel are given to SBI concerns if they are not the selected offeror, whether it is based on non-competitiveness, or for any other reason
- Provide adequate and timely consideration for SBI concerns during the "make-or-buy" decision process. The capabilities of the SBI concerns will be considered prior to finalizing the "make or buy" decision
- Provide timely payment of amounts due pursuant to the terms of their subcontract. Payment procedures are set forth in accordance with our standard "Payments" clause, which is incorporated into every subcontract

- Counsel and discuss potential subcontracting opportunities with representatives of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. This guidance is provided on a daily basis by the Company’s procurement staff
- Confirm by using the Central Contractor Registration (CCR) database or by contacting the SBA any subcontractor representing themselves as a HUBZone small business concern
- Provide notice to subcontractors concerning penalties and remedies they may incur as a result of misrepresenting their business classification/size for the purpose of obtaining a subcontract that is to be included as part or all of a goal contained in the MHN contracting plan
- Prior to contract award, inform in writing any unsuccessful small business concern the name and location of the successful offeror

2.13 Description of Good Faith Effort

MHN’s ability to meet the Small Business goals contained in this Plan are fully achievable as supported by the information above. However, we will nevertheless continue our efforts to expand small business participation in all areas that offer such potential. As opportunities arise under any resulting contract that were not identified at the time of submission of our proposal MHN will continue to reach to our small business partners to satisfy those requirements whenever reasonable and supportable. Further, MHN will continue to expand our MFLC network with qualified counselors who are SDVOSB and VOSB. And, we will continue to urge our small business counselors, where applicable, to seek out Small Business Administration certification of their HUBZone business classification.

In addition, we have met one-on-one with Mrs. Melisa McKenzie, Senior Program Manager, Prime Contractor Programs, of the National Institute of the Severely Handicapped, to explore other possible AbilityOne organizations with which MHN may later subcontract should opportunities arise that were not envisioned during the preparation of this proposal. We will continue to work with Pride Industries (an AbilityOne organization) with which we have an ongoing relationship to identify possible subcontracting opportunities, perhaps in the areas of records retention, reproduction services, materials support, etc. should such requirements materialize under the resulting MFLC contract. MHN is committed to further developing and expanding our small business/AbilityOne partners.

1.0 Subfactor I: Subcontract Management (L.18, M.4)

This Volume II, Subcontracting Plan, has been prepared in full compliance with all requirements of Sections L and M of RFP No. D11PS18854, for the Military & Family Life Counseling (MFLC) Program. Included herein please find full details on MHN Government Services, Inc. (MHN) subcontract management approach for the resulting contract, plus our proposed Small Business Subcontracting Plan which includes the dollar and percentage goals we propose subcontracting across the various small business categories. Please note that in order to respond to the specific Section L and M compliance requirements in a manner consistent with the order in which the same are required by the Solicitation, our responses to the FAR 19.7 requirements will be found in many areas throughout this Volume II, as opposed to a stand-alone Small Business Subcontracting Plan. Our Plan is, nevertheless, in full accord with the requirements of FAR 19.7 and DFARS 215.304.

Volume IIB has been constructed to comply with the Solicitation's requirements supporting the Child & Youth Behavioral (CYB) Mission Execution Task (MET), as detailed below:

- Section 1.0: Addresses Subcontract Management compliance
- Section 2.0: Addresses the Small Business Subcontracting Plan specifics

In continuation of the ongoing practices under our existing MFLC contract, MHN will utilize certain functions of our corporate affiliate, Health Net Federal Services, LLC (“HNFS”), to support any contract to result from Solicitation No. D11PS18854. Specifically, within the context of this Subcontracting Plan, MHN will continue to utilize HNFS' Government Contracts Department to provide the requisite subcontract management, subcontract purchasing and subcontract oversight functions. This department, headed by (b) (4), VP Government Contracts, provides full contract and subcontract management services to both MHN and HNFS under our Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA) – approved Contractor Purchasing System. Reporting directly to (b) (4) is (b) (4) Director of Government Contracts. (b) (4) (characterized as “Contract Administrator” for purposes of this proposal to remain compliant with the designation mandated by the solicitation) has direct contract administration responsibility for MHN's current MFLC contract and will provide the same level of direct support to MHN for any contract to result from Solicitation No. D11PS18854.

MHN's solution to subcontracting counselor services is comprised of two separate approaches. First, we will continue to use our robust network of independent subcontracted counselors. And, secondly, we will rely upon a single formal Team Member and major subcontractor, (b) (4), to provide JFSAP counselors in the Western Region and part of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in four U.S. territories. This solution will ensure comprehensive, timely and effective provision of important and necessary non-medical problem solving counseling services to our military Service Members and their families under the MFLC Program. In addition to subcontracting counseling services, MHN will also be subcontracting with an AbilityOne company, (b) (4), to provide administrative personnel in support of MHN's Program Management function. Additionally, (b) (4) will be our vendor for counselor contact cards and name tags to be purchased for the program by MHN. (b) (4) support is not considered by MHN to meet the definition of a “critical” or “major” subcontractor and MHN, therefore, has not entered into a formal Teaming Agreement (as envisioned by FAR Subpart 9.6) with them. However, they will be an important contributor to the program, accomplishing very meaningful work. And, finally, we will be subcontracting to (b) (4)

(b) (4) for continued information technology support services for our Information Warehouse. With the exception of (b) (4), a large business which operates under a corporate enterprise-wide service level agreement for the provision of certain information technology support services, MHN will be applying all our available subcontracting dollars to small business concerns.

As we are doing under our current MFLC contract, we will continue to afford our small business network counselor partners with an extremely high level of participation under the resulting new MFLC Program. Small businesses are not only the foundation of our American economic system of private enterprise; they also form the backbone of professional counseling support MHN will bring to the MFLC Program. Our long legacy of collaboration with our network of small business counselors provides MHN with excellent experience in managing, coordinating, and controlling the subcontracting activity inherent in placing counselors throughout the United States and around the world. The ability to subcontract timely, professional, face-to-face counseling in places such as the Horn of Africa, Europe, the Asian Pacific Rim, and U.S. territories is not easily mastered, nor maintained. Ensuring that counselors are in-place, when/where required, and addressing all possible logistical challenges requires a dedicated, knowledgeable, experienced group of professionals. These logistical challenges include, but are not necessarily limited to, for example:

- Securing Invited Contract Status under applicable Status of Forces Agreements (SOFA)
- Accommodating legal considerations (international immigration and employment, labor, tax and business practices and regulations)
- Determining applicable visa requirements and processes
- Ensuring counselors' Theater-specific training
- Arranging travel and lodging
- Providing requisite technology for on-line activity reporting
- Coordinating often-changing conditions "on the ground"
- Replacing counselors as needed due to urgent personal or family issues

MHN's MFLC Program management team has experienced all of these challenges and has developed efficient processes, procedures, systems, and technology responses that will allow us to continue to ensure that the counseling needs of our dedicated Service Members and their families are addressed in the best possible way under the MFLC Program. Our service-delivery model under the MFLC Program could not be accomplished without our network of small business partners and we are proud of the level of expertise, commitment, and MFLC-specific experience these counselors and small companies bring our team.

The specifics of how we select, integrate, manage and communicate with our small business subcontractors, a description of their important work efforts, and how their work effort will contribute to MHN's ability to meet the government's goals for the various small business categories, are fully addressed in the following sections. We will subcontract (b) (4) of the total proposed price for the Base and all Option Periods of the CYB-Mission Execution Task of the MFLC Program, well above the government's Request for Proposal requirement of 25%. In so doing, we will also meet or exceed the government's established small business goals in multiple small business categories. We will accomplish this through the continued use of our extensive MFLC network of independent small business counselor subcontractors, under a First-Tier subcontract with our formal Teaming Agreement partner, (b) (4)

(b) (4), and through the use of an AbilityOne company, (b) (4)

Effective utilization of our small business partners will be accomplished while ensuring their use is consistent with, quality of performance, and full compliance with all contract performance requirements.

The MFLC Team

MHN’s truly exceptional team will ensure the provision of comprehensive, timely, and professional counseling services, while concurrently addressing the desire to afford our small business partners opportunities for maximum participation in the Program.

- First, and foremost, MHN will continue to leverage our in-place contracted network of over (b) (4) MFLC small business subcontractor counselors that has been providing, and continues to provide, excellent counseling services under our existing MFLC contract. Nearly every counselor with whom MHN has subcontracted under our current MFLC contract has self certified as a small business concern as defined pursuant to 12CFR121, and over 50% are certified Woman-Owned Small Businesses. Additionally, many have further self certified as Veteran-Owned Small Business, Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business, or Small Disadvantaged Business Concerns. We discuss this more at length, later in this volume.
- MHN has executed a formal Teaming Agreement (as envisioned by FAR Subpart 9.6) with (b) (4) as (b) (4) is considered by MHN to be a major and critical First-Tier subcontractor. They will be providing a sizable portion of fulltime MFLC counselors in support of the JFSAP Program, covering the Western Region and part of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in four U.S. territories. (b) (4) meets the requirements of an (b) (4), and a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) concern), as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN’s small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals.

By leveraging our existing MFLC network of independent counselor small business subcontractors (as discussed in more detail below), and through our established Teaming Agreement with American Hospital Services Group, MHN can offer and substantiate a subcontracting approach that will meet and/or exceed many of the small business goals established by the MFLC Program Solicitation. And, through our use of an AbilityOne company for the provision of administrative support personnel, and provision of certain of our other direct costs, we will be able to meet/exceed the AbilityOne goal established by the Solicitation.

Further, we believe the strengths of our approach to effective management of our cross section of counselor subcontractors under the MFLC Program offers the government substantive and verifiable benefits, which we highlight in Exhibit 1-1.

Exhibit 1-1. Subcontract Management Approach Strengths and Benefits

1.1 Subcontracting Plan Conforming to FAR Subpart 19.7 (L.18, M.4)

Please note that to respond to the specific Sections L and M compliance requirements, in a manner consistent with the order in which the same are required by the Solicitation, our responses to the FAR 19.7 requirements will be found in several areas throughout this Volume II, as opposed to a stand-alone Small Business Subcontracting Plan. However, our Plan is nevertheless in full accord with the requirements of Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR), 19.7 and DFARS 215.304. Our Small Business Subcontracting Plan in Section 2 provides a comprehensive compliance cross reference for ease in evaluating our Plan for compliance with each of the stipulated requirements detailed in FAR 19.704.

MHN's Approved Purchasing System and Subcontracting Program

MHN enjoys the benefits of a Contractor Purchasing System, inclusive of its Small Business Subcontracting Program, that has been approved by the Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA). Our long-established Small Business Subcontracting Program is embraced by the highest levels of our organization and is in complete compliance with both the regulatory requirements detailed in the FAR and in the spirit of the Small Business Act. Requisite policies, procedures, and processes support our Program. The approved Small Business Program has, achieved multiple “Outstanding” Ratings and a “Highly Successful” Rating, from the DCMA for its SDB and WOSB concerns.

MHN understands the necessity for, and has always been a strong proponent of, affording small businesses the maximum practicable opportunity to compete for subcontracting actions consistent with efficient contract performance. We commit to providing advice, assistance, and business counsel to these companies to help facilitate their success. Our efforts are extended to all categories of small businesses, including those identified as small business (SB), SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and historically underutilized business zone (HUBZone).

We also fully understand DoD’s Subcontracting Program and the associated regulatory foundation for the same, such as shown below:

- Section 8(d) Small Business Act – 15 USC 637(d)
- Section 15(g) Small Business Act – 15 USC 644(g)
- FAR 19.7/DFARS 219.7 Small Business Subcontracting Program
- FAR 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns
- FAR 52.219-9, Subcontracting Plan

1.1.1 Teaming Arrangements (L.18, M.4)

MHN has developed a strategic relationship with (b) (4) a Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) concern and proposed First-Tier Subcontractor, which will perform a significant subcontracted component of the MFLC Program. (b) (4) will be providing CYB JFSAP counselors to the Western Region and part of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in four U.S. territories. To ensure clarity on the work share and areas of responsibility to be conducted by our teaming partner, MHN developed, negotiated, and executed a formal Teaming Agreement with (b) (4) to accommodate these important requirements. (b) (4) areas of responsibility will be to provide 25 Baseline, 10 Augmented, and 5 Optional CYB counselors to support the Joint Family Support Assistance Program (JFSAP) in the Western Region and part of the Northeast Region of the United States, and all four U.S. Territories.

1.1.2 Subcontract Management Processes (L.18, M.4)

Counseling services under the MFLC Program will be accommodated through two separate, and well established, subcontracting approaches. Our Team Member First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), will be issued an individual subcontract specifically identifying the type, quantity, and location of Baseline, Augmented, and Optional CYB JFSAP counselors, structured under separate, fixed priced Contract Line Item Numbers (CLINs) which will accommodate the prime contract’s CLIN structure. (b) (4) and MHN will operate within the same line of communication: the operational supervisors from both (b) (4) and MHN will report up to MHN's current JFSAP Manager and therefore, any performance issues will be resolved through the existing, proven chain of command. The JFSAP Manager will continue to provide leadership and delivery of oversight services with the management and supervisory staff as a whole (for both (b) (4) and MHN) across the entire JFSAP footprint. In this fashion, all JFSAPs remain a continuously dedicated and cohesive group of counselors for the Guard and Reserve components, FRG leaders, unit commanders and RDCs in their states/territories. MHN employees who are currently performing JFSAP services under the existing MFLC contract, and who are slated to be assigned to (b) (4) under any resulting new contract/subcontract to result from the solicitation, have all agreed to be rebadged as (b) (4) employees. They will enjoy a professional employee compensation plan commensurate with and competitive to their existing MHN salary and benefits. MHN will be providing, as our own employees, (b) (4) of JFSAP-CYBs for the base year (b) (4) for base, augmented, and options), while (b) (4) will be employing the remaining (b) (4) for the base year (b) (4) base, augmented, and options). We note that there will be no rotational JFSAPs as we have today in the territories under our current MFLC contract.

MHN will also subcontract with its MFLC network of independent counselor subcontractors using its well-established approach of issuing individual Counselor Task Orders (CTO) under previously executed Provider Services Task Order Agreements (PSTOA). Every counselor subcontractor must execute a PSTOA as a condition of joining the MFLC network. The PSTOA establishes an umbrella subcontract arrangement (akin to an Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quantity type contract) with overarching terms and conditions and under which individual CTOs can be quickly issued to address Rotational, On-Demand, and Surge requirements as they materialize under the MFLC Contract. Counselor subcontractors are contacted either by email or telephonically to determine their interest in accepting the given CTO. They're advised of the location and duration of the assignment, and whether travel, lodging, car rental, etc. will be authorized. If the counselor agrees to the assignment, a CTO is emailed to them. The CTO is then either accepted or declined by the subcontractor within three (3) calendar days. Each CTO is identified with a unique Internal Order Number (ION) against which all costs for that given assignment are accumulated in MHN's accounting system, and form the basis for later billing to the government. This approach has worked extremely well under our existing MFLC contract and has allowed for clear cost and performance accountability for each CTO and its associated assignment.

MHN is uniquely qualified in managing the challenges peculiar to provision of thousands of subcontracted counselors around the world, under the MFLC Program. We have managed the existing MFLC Program since its pilot phase in 2004 and through its unprecedented growth under the current MFLC contract. As the prime contractor, MHN takes full responsibility to manage all program activities, including all subcontractors, delivering seamless, high quality services to the Government. MHN establishes and manages program expectations and standards of performance for all MFLC Program management structure members through detailed procedures and agreements tailored to the needs of the MFLC Program and agreed upon by all involved principals before initiation of any program work. These procedures and agreements establish objective performance standards in all areas relevant to service delivery. MHN's MFLC Program Director, (b) (4), and Contract Administrator, (b) (4), will implement (and develop/approve where necessary) all procedures and agreements specific to support of the MFLC Program. Although (b) (4) will provide overarching management of all subcontracting activities, MHN is supplementing the management team by including our Subcontracts Manager, (b) (4), as one of our key personnel. (b) (4), who reports to (b) (4), will prepare and install the First Tier subcontract with (b) (4). He will then provide direct, day-to-day professional contract administration of the subcontract and provide backup contract/subcontract administration support to (b) (4) for the MFLC Program. (b) (4) has more than 20 years of government contract and subcontract management experience, and is extremely qualified to provide the requisite level of professional contract and subcontract administration. He will work with (b) (4) Program Manager to ensure compliance with the terms and conditions of the (b) (4) subcontract including, without limitation, timely submission of invoices and subcontract deliverables and addressing any performance issues that may arise.

All MFLC Provider network CTOs are effectuated as Purchase Orders via MHN's Purchasing Department, which is under (b) (4) cognizance, and will be administered by several members of this department. The Purchasing Department will also draft and install a Purchase Order with (b) (4) our proposed AbilityOne company, for the provision of administrative support services personnel, as well as subsequent Purchase Orders for the provision of certain other direct costs (counselor contact cards and name tags) as those needs arise under the resulting contract. And, that department will also issue a Purchase Order to (b) (4) for information technology services in support of our Information Warehouse. Our established, documented, and consistently maintained DCMA-approved Contractor Purchasing System will ensure adequate controls through which MHN will acquire quality products and services necessary for MFLC contract performance. Our system further ensures that all transactions, except where otherwise justified, are secured on a fully competitive basis and all prices are determined fair and reasonable. Additionally, our processes ensure the appropriateness of all contracted services, through evaluation of the types and quantities of labor, skill level, labor category mix, and direct labor hours proposed to be expended. All transactions are fully supported by user requirements documents. Our First-Tier subcontractor, and all counselors subcontracted through the MFLC network, will report any operational issues having an impact to their on-the-ground performance through the MHN Program Director’s Field Operations organization. (b) (4) Program Manager will all be fully integrated into the MFLC Program management team. Exhibit 1-2 outlines the key functions associated with our approach to managing our major First-Tier subcontractor. The Purchasing Department, under (b) (4) leadership, will also provide the MHN Program Director’s Business Operations organization with contract administration support of the Purchase Orders for (b) (4)

| MHN Assumes Responsibility | MHN shall be fully responsible, as the prime contractor, for the technical, schedule and financial performance of all work performed by (b) (4). Our subcontractors’ performance will be overseen by our Program Director’s organization which will be supported by our Subcontracts Manager. Collectively, our management team will manage, monitor, and review all subcontractor work. Our Business Operations organization will oversee the operations and administrative support services provided by (b) (4) information technology support services for our Information Warehouse. Collectively, our management team will manage, monitor, and review all subcontracted and purchased work. |
| MHN Delivers Scope of Work and Assignment to Subcontractor | (b) (4) will receive a detailed scope of work for specific portions of the Program. This will include detailed budgets and schedules. The Program Director will review and approve the work plans for technical content and cost reasonableness. |
| MHN Closely Manages Subcontractor Program Manager | MHN requires that First-Tier subcontractor (b) (4) assign a Program Manager to the MFLC Program to manage their own performance and for issue escalation and resolution. The MHN Program Director will maintain frequent and open lines of communication with the subcontractor Program Manager, including weekly conference calls and scheduled meetings as circumstances dictate. |
| MHN Communicates and Reports | In addition to frequent communication between MHN and (b) (4) staff, the First-Tier Subcontractor will submit monthly progress reports, with data on the financial and technical status of our tasks. The Subcontractor Program Manager is required to attend scheduled management status and performance monthly reviews/conference calls. |

Exhibit 1-2. Subcontractor Management Approach

The Program Management team will work closely with all assigned network counselors to ensure the provision of required services continues to meets their (CTO) operational requirements and quality standards. We will conduct weekly status calls with all CYB-MFLCs, address any performance issues/challenges, and brief CYB-MFLCs on program updates as necessary. Any service-delivery or operational issues which may arise with our Network counselors that require MFLC Program Management involvement will be vetted by the Field Operations team and technical/operational direction provided to the CYB-MFLCs as needed.

Our Program Director, (b) (4), will ensure that all MHN subcontractors, (b) (4) and CYB-MFLC network counselors, are meeting their performance metrics and deliverables. MHN will involve our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), in its status and performance management reviews.

1.1.2.1 Communicating with Subcontractors (L.18, M.4)

Communication with our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), is an important element of MHN’s integrated management approach. This approach includes a set of meetings and reviews to ensure regular communication and joint review of program status, resolution of issues, and a common understanding of work to be performed. In addition, our subcontractors have access to information on our MFS which will facilitate their performance of services.

MHN will establish clear lines of communication with (b) (4), as shown in Exhibit 1-3, (b) (4), Program Director, will have ultimate responsibility for compliant, successful, and integrated service delivery. He is supported in this effort by the Field Operations Managers and Counseling Supervisors for the network of independent subcontractor counselors. (b) (4), Contract Administrator, and his direct report, (b) (4), Subcontractor Manager will work with our First-Tier subcontractor’s individual Program Manager to ensure timely and compliant administration of the subcontract. (b) (4) will draft, negotiate and install the required First-Tier subcontract using the agreed upon work share, deliverables, and compliance requirements detailed in the formal Teaming Agreement established for bidding the MFLC Program. The First-Tier subcontract and all network counselor subcontracts (PSTOA/CTO) will be effectuated in full accord with MHN’s subcontract policies and procedures as required under our government-approved purchasing system.

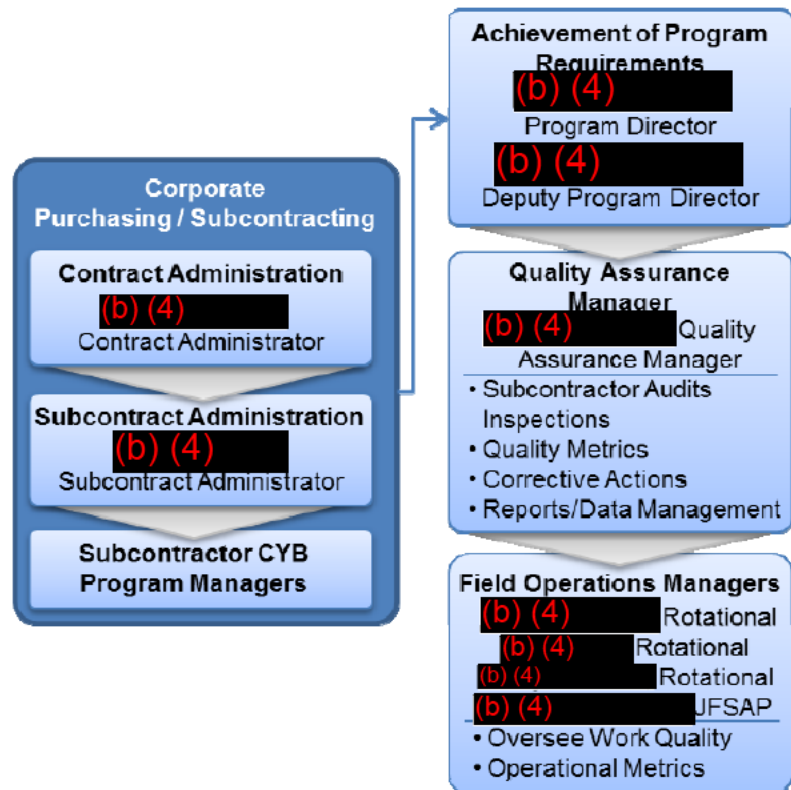

Exhibit 1-3. Subcontractor Lines of Communication

(b) (4), Quality Assurance (QA) Manager, will audit all requisite processes in compliance with ISO standards, Quality Control Plan (QCP) and Quality Assurance Surveillance Plan (QASP) requirements, lead and facilitate Quality Improvement Project teams, and make recommendations to improve services, including tracking and verifying formal Corrective Action Plans (CAPs). All aspects of subcontracted program operations will report up to the MFLC Field Operations Manager and to the Program Director, (b) (4) through integrated transition meetings, status meetings, management reports, and formal in-progress reviews (IPRs).

(b) (4), Quality Assurance (QA) Manager, will audit all requisite processes in compliance with ISO standards, Quality Control Plan (QCP) and Quality Assurance Surveillance Plan (QASP) requirements, lead and facilitate Quality Improvement Project teams, and make recommendations to improve services, including tracking and verifying formal Corrective Action Plans (CAPs). All aspects of subcontracted program operations will report up to the MFLC Field Operations Manager and to the Program Director, (b) (4) through integrated transition meetings, status meetings, management reports, and formal in-progress reviews (IPRs).

While MHN has the capacity, capability, and scale to support all mission tasks as a sole contractor, we believe it is in our and the Government’s best interest to broaden our skill mix, expertise, and capacity for the new contract. Our approach to selecting a First-Tier subcontractor/teaming partner was to identify opportunities for efficiency gains in performance when comparing the Request for Proposal (RFP) Performance Work Statement (PWS) to the current MFLC contract and Statement of Work (SOW). Our general selection criteria for a strategic partner included:

- High standards of business ethics and excellent past performance in behavioral health care staffing for military customers
- Successful experience supporting programs of similar size, scope, and complexity that we intend to subcontract
- Expertise supporting performance-based contracts and the demonstrated ability to perform to relevant metrics identified in the QASP
- Ability to meet the capacity requirements as outlined in the PWS
- Ability to manage staff and work fluctuations as a result of CYB-MFLC peak counselor deployment periods, surges, COTR invocation of the Augmentation CLINs, or CO invocation of the Optional CLINs, under tight deadlines
- Verified expertise in understanding and complying with FAR flow-down requirements
- Requisite qualifications for meeting one or more of the small business concerns categories requirements

As a result of a thorough evaluation of the PWS, and after discounting any operational approach which could disrupt our established contractual relationship with MFLC network of counselors, MHN determined the optimum teaming approach is to subcontract a significant portion of the JFSAP counselor services through a formal Team Member. This major service component of the MFLC contract is performed by fulltime employees and will allow MHN to optimize a logical large portion of services for our Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) Team Member, (b) (4). MHN that will retain all other JFSAP fulltime counselors not subcontracted to (b) (4).

Exhibit 1-4 summarizes our analysis of the PWS and justification for subcontracting a major component of the MFLC services to our First-Tier subcontractor to optimize performance.

| Requirement | Opportunity to Optimize Team Capability | Value Added Contributions |
| 40 fulltime Adult and Youth Behavioral (CYB) counselors (including Baseline, Augmented & Optional) to support Guard and Reserve families in multiple states and US territories | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strengthen and improve time-to-hire full time clinical JFSAP positions by leveraging innovative clinical recruiting techniques • Reduce recruiting costs due to in-place candidate pools in multiple states and US territories | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuous, rapid recruiting-hiring-staffing capability across many states and territories • Retention of best-in-class full time staff who are directly supporting Guard and Reserve POCs by fulfilling counseling needs across their given states |

Exhibit 1-4. Teaming Partner Performance Enhancement Attributes

MHN’s Team Member, (b) (4), will further augment MHN’s corporate capabilities, past performance, and capacity to perform under the new MFLC contract with even greater scale, flexibility, diversity of talent and efficiencies than today. (b) (4) has more than 18 years of demonstrated expertise in rapid clinical staffing for government agencies and long-term retention of full time staff. (b) (4) brings the benefit of direct and relevant experience in the management of programs for the U.S. Army Medical Command (MEDCOM), Navy, Air Force, and Department of Veterans Affairs providing behavioral healthcare professionals to staff CONUS and OCONUS Military Treatment Facilities (MTFs). In addition, they currently provide behavioral health professionals for other government agencies including National Institutes of Health (NIH) and the Library of Congress. With expertise in rapid full-time hiring and staffing, (b) (4) will be responsible for providing full-time MFLCs to support the Reserve Components under JFSAP Program. Leveraging its experience in global government staffing solutions for behavioral health providers, (b) (4) full-time JFSAP CYB-MFLC, in multiple states and U.S. territories. If the Augmented and Option CLINs are exercised, (b) (4) will provide up to an additional (b) (4) JFSAP counselors in those states/territories supported by (b) (4) (b) (4) (b) (4) (b) (4) is a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., Small Disadvantaged Business [SDB] concern), as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN's small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals.

In addition to our First-Tier subcontractor, MHN has an established, robust, General MFLC network that is currently populated with over (b) (4) licensed counselors. These professional counselors are independent contractors, many with their own established practices, or are members of small independent contractor provider groups. MHN will use only counselors/companies that have self certified as a small business concern. As mentioned earlier, each of these counselors are required to execute a PSTOA as part of the process of being added to the MFLC network. This PSTOA predisposes quick subcontracting of these counselors when selected for a given CYB-MFLC Assignment as all non-Assignment specific terms and conditions have already been agreed to. Thus, when a given Assignment is accepted by a counselor, only the details of that particular Assignment need be included in the Counselor Task Order (CTO). As Assignment requirements are identified under the MFLC Program, MHN will receive a Counselor Request Form (CRF) from MFLC Business Operations, detailing the particulars of the given Assignment, e.g., location, assignment duration and location, specialized qualification requirements (e.g., prior experience with being the first CYB counselor at a new location). An interested counselor possessing any stipulated specialized attributes/experience and, whenever possible, who is locally located to the assignment location, will be selected and offered a CTO. Assignment opportunities will be rotated throughout the Network to afford all qualified counselors an opportunity of participating in the MFLC Program.

1.1.2.3 Directing, Coordinating, Integrating Subcontractors (L.18, M.4)

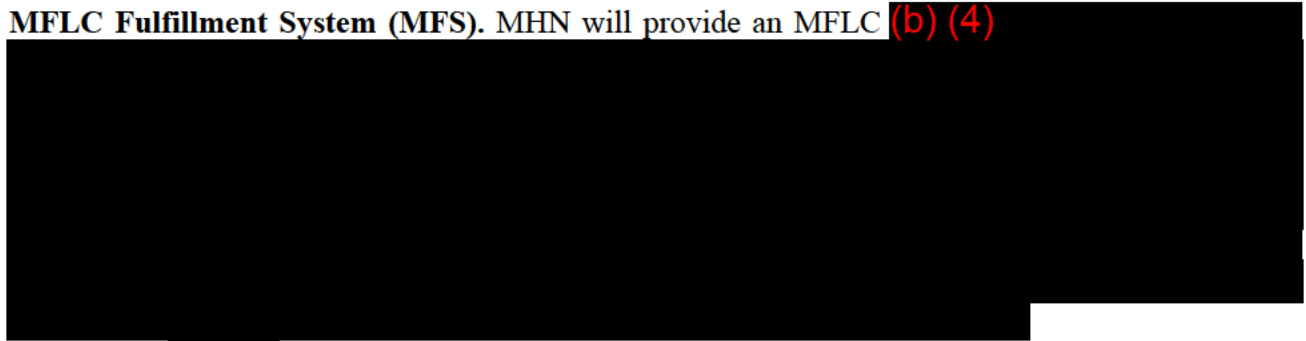

MHN has a rigorous program for directing, coordinating, and integrating the efforts of all personnel on the MFLC Program. Our First-Tier subcontractor's role on the program is to provide full-time CYB-MFLC counselors in support of JFSAP program. The subcontract to be held by these (b) (4) will be contractually administered by MHN's Subcontractor Manager who will ensure full and timely compliance with all applicable subcontract terms and conditions. Operationally, the fulltime JFSAP counselors provided by our (b) (4) will be directed, coordinated, and integrated using the same methods and means as MHN employs with our independent MFLC network counselors. MHN's combined MFLC network and First-Tier subcontractor will be managed as follows:

- Field Operations Management. Actual counseling service performance of (b) (4) fulltime JFSAP counselors and MHN's independent MFLC network subcontractor counselors will be managed through MHN's Field Operations organization, which ensures that services are timely and successfully delivered according to assignment requirements. Counseling Supervisors provide direction, coordination, and integration of efforts for counselors on the ground through weekly telephone conferences, review of daily Activity Form completion, and availability 24x7x365 to address issues or support Duty to Warn (DTW) resolution per established procedures

- MFLC Fulfillment System (MFS). MHN will provide an MFLC (b) (4)

- Reporting. (b) (4) Subcontractor Program Manager will be responsible for documenting and reporting recruiting and hiring actions for all open counselor positions through the portal technology on a weekly basis. Using standard reporting conventions agreed to by both MHN and (b) (4), MHN's program management team will have a near-real-time view into recruiting and retention performance. Statistics from this shared management report, in turn, will feed the MHN Team Performance Management Report, the Executive Dashboard, Monthly Utilization Reports, and Monthly Contract & Financial Status Report CDRL deliverables
- Reviews. MHN has established a set of program management reviews, which will include all subcontractor program performance information. These reviews include the Performance Management Review (PMR) (monitor metrics across key performance indicators, including subcontractor performance), Subcontractor Performance Review (presentation by subcontractor of preceding months performance including trends and open issues, and discussion of any corrective action plans (CAPs) invoking subcontractor performance), and the Subcontractor Management Review (a quarterly meeting with upper management to assess overall subcontractor performance)
- Quality. We understand subcontractor quality management and oversight is a critical element to ensure the overall organizational delivery of quality. MHN has selected First-Tier subcontractor whose approach to quality mirrors our own. The resulting subcontract will incorporate specific quality standards of service delivery against which we can monitor performance. We'll accomplish this by using the MHN Quality Specification which will guide (b) (4) in the development of their QCPs. They will be required to submit written Subcontractor QCPs that fully meet all requirements of our quality specifications and which will require approval and acceptance before the start of service delivery. In addition, the proposed MHN Team QASP integrates prime and subcontractor performance for comprehensive and consistent government quality surveillance activities
- Security. MHN is extremely qualified and experienced in effectively addressing the unique requirements inherent in higher-profile and challenging assignments, such as those associated with work in classified environments, or those in new locations such as the Horn of Africa. Through our Security department MHN has secured a Facilities Clearance (FCL) granted by the U.S. Defense Security Service (DSS). Our FCL will afford us the ability to secure access to the DSS Joint Personnel Adjudication System (JPAS), which allows for expedient online registration, processing, and final adjudication tracking of all subcontractors requiring a National Security Clearance

MFLC-CYB Provider Network

The largest component of MHN's team is comprised of the MHN CYB-MFLC network of licensed and credentialed counselors which MHN has developed under the current MFLC contract, and which we'll continue to expand upon under the new MFLC Program. Unlike generic commercial networks, 100% of our counselors are immediately ready, willing, credentialed, qualified, and MFLC-trained to accept Rotational and On-Demand assignments with the MFLC Program. Not only have we fully vetted these counselor's credentials through our URAC-approved credentialing process to ensure they meet all program criteria, we have also completed their criminal history background checks (CHBCs), and interviewed them to determine their suitability for successfully assisting military families. All of our network counselors have already completed pre-assignment orientation and training regimen that combines Internet-based learning with hands-on applications. Our training plan maintains a 100% course completion rate prior to assignment, which requires a passing exam score, reinforced by field-tested aggressive communication, and a follow-up plan to ensure learning retention. MHN has also begun development of an OSD-approved new training program that is scheduled for release after contract award. The course is envisioned to cover General Orientation, Military Culture Sensitization, Duty to Warn, and Activity Forms. Once final approval of the course is received from OSD, the successful completion of this 3-hour training course will also be mandatory for counselors prior to assignment.

All network counselors will use our MHN MFLC Portal to access required training and complete Activity Forms to record data on the field-based work.

Each network counselor will be assigned to a Counseling Supervisor responsible for overseeing CYB-MFLC counseling services for the location to which they are assigned. Counseling Supervisors will perform consultant evaluations within two days of assignment completion. These evaluations assess performance such as the counselor's ability to give presentations, build relationships with points of contact (POCs) and the military Command, work well with other counselors, understand and relate to issues facing Service Members, and work within and adapt to military culture and installation routines. These evaluations will become a permanent part of each counselor's subcontract performance record and will be used in determining if a counselor is suitable to a specific assignment.

MHN will monitor the credentialed, licensed, and trained MFLC network to ensure high quality, empathetic and appropriate support of military families. We will conduct 100% verification of all credentials during the initial application and re-credentialing phases. Further, prior to any counselor assignment, MHN will ensure that licensure is in good standing and will remain current for the entire period of the assignment, prior to approving a counselor for an assignment. MHN's credentialing program is routinely audited and approved to URAC and state regulatory requirements.

1.1.2.4 Decision Making (L.18, M.4)

As the prime contractor for the MFLC Program, MHN will assume full managerial responsibility and accountability for our performance and that of our subcontractors. The ultimate decision making authority will reside with the MHN MFLC Program Director, (b) (6). Within this construct, our First Tier Subcontractor will be required to manage the work, with their own managers and staff, within their area(s) of responsibility as defined in their teaming agreement and according to the overall MFLC Program management, staffing, and quality control plans.

1.1.2.5 Information Sharing (L.18)

MHN recognizes the importance of sharing information necessary to the successful delivery of services across all team members and counselors. To this end, we are committed to open and frequent communication among all subcontractors participating on the MFLC Program. We have established processes for information sharing including regularly scheduled management meetings, weekly supervisor calls, and the MHN MFLC Portal. (b) (4) will have named a Program Manager who will be dedicated to the MFLC Program as a key person. This manager will be a vital member of our management team and will participate in all management meetings and will be responsible for ensuring that important program information is shared with their consultants in a timely manner. Exhibit 1-5 provides an overview of key formal activities we will use to share information with our First-Tier and network subcontractor counselors.

1.1.2.6 Problem Resolution (L.18, M.4)

Our PMR and Subcontractor Management Reviews, discussed in Section 1.1.2.3, will provide effective forums for early identification and resolution of issues. We will use these reviews to identify issues and develop mentoring and coaching strategies to provide subcontractors with the resources, processes, or tools needed to resolve issues and overcome problems before they affect performance. Should conflicts or problems with subcontractors occur, MHN will use the following steps to ensure the problem or conflict is resolved in a timely manner:

- For network counselors, the CYB-MFLC's Counseling Supervisor will contact the consultant to advise them of the performance concern and provide coaching and mentoring to help them resolve the issue. If after reasonable effort, the problem cannot be resolved, professional relations will be notified and the counselor will be removed from his or her assignment. For serious performance issues or violation of crucial Military protocols, the provider will be removed from our provider network.

- For issues with our Team Member Subcontractor, (b) (4), the problem or conflict will be escalated to the MFLC Program Director to identify the best resolution approach and marshal any additional resources needed to resolve the problem or conflict. If the problem or conflict cannot be resolved at this level, it will be escalated to the Program Executive for mediation. If they cannot be resolved at this level, the Program Executive will charge the Subcontracts Manager with preparing a formal letter to the subcontract manager describing the issues and remediation actions that need to be taken. We anticipate that most problems and conflicts will be resolved long before these formal notifications would need to be implemented. In the unlikely event that all informal and formal remediation approaches fail, MHN will remove the offending subcontractor from the program. The government will be informed of the problem and resolution efforts well before MHN takes this action.

1.1.2.7 Performance Monitoring (L.18, M.4)

MHN will manage our First Tier subcontract with (b) (4) using a subcontract which includes a specific scope of work, and applicable regulations, procedures and policies to which (b) (4) and our subcontractor personnel must adhere. MHN has established standards of service, based on contract and company requirements, for all independent subcontractor counselors and our First Tier subcontractor.

(b) (4) is integral to MHN’s successful performance on the MFLC contract. (b) (4) and MHN will operate within the same line of communication: the operational supervisors from both (b) (4) and MHN will report up to MHN’s current JFSAP Manager and therefore, any performance issues will be resolved through the existing, proven chain of command. The JFSAP Manager will continue to provide leadership and delivery of oversight services with the management and supervisory staff as a whole (for both (b) (4) and MHN) across the entire JFSAP footprint. In this fashion, all JFSAPs remain a continuously dedicated and cohesive group of counselors for the Guard and Reserve components FRG leaders, unit commanders and RDCs in their states/territories. We have in place processes and procedures to continually monitor their efforts against established performance standards. Exhibit 1-6 shows MHN’s approach to monitoring (b) (4) subcontract performance. MHN will establish a service level agreement (SLA) related to the specific PWS requirement filled by (b) (4) to ensure that the overall MHN Team meets contractual requirements and engenders the highest possible levels of customer satisfaction. This SLA will form a component of (b) (4) subcontracts. Our Integrated monthly and quarterly Performance Management Reviews provides oversight of key performance indicators of subcontractor and prime program operations. We will use our CAP process to monitor and resolve any performance issues and validate performance improvement.

Exhibit 1-6. MHN First-Tier Subcontractor Performance Management

MHN's QA Manager will use the processes and procedures outlined in the Quality Control Plan (QCP) to monitor the quality of subcontractor, as well as MHN, efforts. This QCP is built to ensure we meet the requirements of the Government's QASP, and, therefore, perform successfully on the contract.

1.1.2.8 Prior Relationship with Proposed Subcontractors (L.18)

Our CYB-MFLC network, which will be leveraged by MHN under the new contract, is composed of over (b) (4) independently contracted counselors many of whom MHN has had a long-established relationship. Many of these professional relationships extend back to the original MFLC Pilot Program. Through an ongoing evaluation of the MFLC network participants and each counselor's respective assignments, only the finest professionals will be allowed to continue to provide services under this important program. Counselors are licensed, trained, and uniquely experienced to satisfy the needs of military Service Members and their families. The type of issues faced by military members and their families are often unique and require help from counselors who have experience with such unique needs. Unlike other companies, whose lack of experience may lead them to perceive that the MFLC Program is just a matter of placing any given counselor on the ground, MHN fully appreciates the extreme challenges to placing the right counselor on the right assignment. Our substantial experience and relationship with our Network of subcontractor counselors allows MHN to readily identify particular attributes that must be possessed by a given counselor for a given assignment. Knowing which counselor has had direct experience, for example, with handling a terrible loss of life incident in a recent In-theater deployment is critical. Or, having a counselor who has acted in an "embedded" capacity with a given brigade, and has established a hard-earned level of trust from its members, cannot be accomplished without a legacy relationship between the contractor and the counselor. MHN and our network will bring this unique experience to the MFLC Program.

Our Team Member and First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), represent new business relationship. MHN is extremely confident however, of their ability to provide outstanding support of the JFSAP program. Their very successful past performance on multiple government programs providing professional behavioral health professionals supports our confidence level.

1.1.3 Ability to Meet Subcontracting Goals on Previous Government Contracts (L.18)

MHN has an exceptional performance record under the existing MFLC contract of not only meeting, but far exceeding the established goals for subcontracting to SB, WOSB, and VOSB concerns. Our current MFLC contract goal for total small business participation of (b) (4) has been far surpassed; we have placed greater than (b) (4) of all subcontracted dollars with small business concerns. The vast majority of these small businesses are comprised of our MFLC network of counselors. Exhibit 1-7 shows the dollar and percentage goals and actual cumulative subcontractor performance values under our existing MFLC contract. The percentages are taken from our subcontracting report ended March 2011. In accordance with our established government-approved Contractor Purchasing System procedures, each and every subcontract and/or purchase order issued by MHN is conditioned upon receipt of a Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) that is completed by the respective counselor/subcontractor, or vendor. No subcontract or purchase order can be effectuated without MHN's receipt of a subcontractor's/vendor's self certification of its business size. The SBQ is used for this purpose. Entry of the subcontract/vendor transaction in our SAP purchase order system requires a valid vendor number, and by policy, procedure and process, a vendor number cannot be assigned without MHN first obtaining the requisite SBQ completed by the subcontractor or vendor. Thus, MHN's reported performance against our small business goals, which is routinely reported to the government, is strictly based on documented purchasing transactions for which MHN has received the required certifications from our vendors and subcontractors as their business size. Only companies representing their small business status as HUBZone small business concerns are required to obtain SBA certification of such status. Companies of all other small business size categories (e.g., small business, woman-owned business, veteran owned small business, service disabled small business, and small disadvantaged business) are allowed, per statute and regulation, to “self certify” as to their status. Thus, as allowed by Federal regulation, MHN relies upon a subcontractor’s/vendor’s self certification as to its business size.

Each and every MFLC Network counselor with whom MHN has subcontracted (issued a CTO), since the original MFLC Pilot program in 2004, to date under our existing MFLC contract, has self certified. And, based on a recent review of our purchase transactions, greater than 99% have self certified as a Small Business concern and/or other small business subcategory such as Woman-Owned, Veteran-Owned, etc. During March, 2012, MHN asked all subcontracted CYB network counselors to provide recertification of their small business size status by completion of our Small Business Questionnaire. To date, we have received self certifications from the far majority of our network counselors. Of that total, only less than 1% self certified as Large Business or Non-Profit. The balance of greater than 99% network counselors self certified as Small Business. Of those companies self certifying as a small business, the preponderance also certified under the following small business subcategories:

|---|-------|
| Small Disadvantaged Business Concern | 19.7% |
| Woman-Owned Small Business Concern | 72.5% |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business Concern | 7.8% |
| Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business Concern | 2.8% |

Note: Because companies may certify for multiple small business subcategories (e.g., small disadvantaged, woman-owned and veteran-owned), or may not further certify for any small business subcategories, the total of all small business subcategories may not sum to 100%.

Although MHN has had great success in meeting many of our small business goals under our existing MFLC contract, (as depicted under Exhibit 1-7 below), we have been challenged in some small business categories. One such challenge, with the HUBZone goal, is founded in the nature of the population of our MFLC network membership. Our MFLC network is populated with counselors who are nearly all independent small business contractors (sole proprietorships, and a few small provider groups). Typically, this counselor population has historically provided their services to the commercial market place and, except for the MFLC contract, do not generally support federal government contracts/programs. As such, few, if any, of these independent practitioners find value in obtaining the required formal Small Business Administration (SBA) certification of their status as a HUBZone Small Business concern. Such SBA certification as a HUBZone concern brings these providers no perceived benefit in their relationship with the commercial market place. To address this single issue of insufficient HUBZone subcontractor counselors, MHN intends to offer assistance to the network to help them in identifying whether they meet the requirements for HUBZone eligibility. For those that do meet eligibility, MHN will offer to assist those counselors in preparing and processing their applications through the SBA in order to secure their SBA certification. We will educate these particular providers that securing an SBA HUBZone certification is advantageous under a federal government program such as MFLC, as it will allow MHN to specifically target an increased level of work to them once we are aware of their status. In so doing, we believe we will be successful in facilitating these small businesses in obtaining their SBA certification as a HUBZone small business. MHN will then be able to increase our HUBZone small business participation under the MFLC Program.

As a result of our teaming outreach efforts for this proposal, MHN has identified (b) (4) [REDACTED], which is a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) concern) as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C

1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4) is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN’s small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals. In light of their introduction to the CYB Program, and the critical support they will be bringing by provision of substantive numbers of JFSAP counselors, MHN will be able to substantially improve our performance under the SDB goal category in the future MFLC contract.

Exhibit 1-7. Subcontractor Performance Values Under Current MFLC Contract

1.1.4 Description of Work Small Businesses are Proposed to Perform (L.18)

MHN is committed to providing meaningful work to our small business partners. The vast majority of subcontracting opportunities under the resulting MFLC contract will be in providing non-medical problem-solving counseling services. The counseling services must be furnished by formally educated, credentialed, experienced, licensed, and trained counselors. Our identified First-Tier subcontractor and MFLC network provider subcontractors will fill vital roles in our successful execution of the MFLC Program performing very valuable, challenging and rewarding work.

Our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), will be responsible for providing full-time JFSAP counselors in the Western Region and portions of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in four U.S. territories. These services constitute major/critical components of the MFLC Program and as such, (b) (4) is a formal Team Member and First-Tier Subcontractor. MHN will staff all other JFSAP positions not allocated to (b) (4). All other CYB-MFLC subcontracted counseling services will be accomplished through the use of our established MFLC network. Through this network, MHN will draw from a large and well-established, trained and vetted group of professional counselors and small provider groups to fill all other subcontracted counseling efforts. All of these counselors are independent contractors with either their own established practice or are members of small provider groups. MHN will utilize only counselors who have self certified as small business concerns.

In addition to subcontracting counseling services, MHN will also be subcontracting with an AbilityOne company (b) (4) to provide administrative personnel in support of MHN’s Program Management function. Additionally, (b) (4) will be our vendor for counselor contact cards and name tags to be purchased for the program by MHN. (b) (4) support is not considered by MHN to meet the definition of a “critical” or “major” subcontractor and MHN, therefore, has not entered into a formal Teaming Agreement (as envisioned by FAR Subpart 9.6) with them. However, they will be an important contributor to the program, accomplishing very meaningful work.

1.1.5 Subcontractors Performing Major/Critical Aspects of Requirements (L.18, M.4)

Providing face-to-face counseling services represents the most significant aspects of the MFLC contract. We recognize the importance of this work and have established formal relationship with (b) (4) and our network of qualified counselors to fulfill these critical roles. MHN has teamed with (b) (4) to augment our corporate capabilities, past performance, and capacity to perform under the new MFLC contract with even greater scale, flexibility, diversity of talent and efficiencies than today. (b) (4) is a fully qualified Small Disadvantaged Business concern and will be responsible for providing full-time CYB-MFLCs to support the Reserve Components under JFSAP. They will serve the Western Region and parts of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and four U.S. territories. MHN has an established, robust, MFLC network that is currently populated with over (b) (4) contracted counselors, of which over (b) (4) possess the requisite additional experience and qualifications to perform CYB MFLC counseling. These counselors are independent contractors with either their own established practice or are members of small provider groups. Greater than 99% are self-certified business concerns and will be providing non-medical problem-solving counseling services. On any given day under the current MFLC contract, as many as 1,300-1,400 counselors are on-the-ground providing counseling services to our military Service Members and their families in both United States and at many overseas locations.

2.0 Subfactor II: Small Business Goals (L.18, M.4)

MHN takes its commitment to small business participation seriously as evidenced by the percentage and type of work we have committed to small business concerns for the MFLC contract. We recognize that the government has established challenging goals for participation by various small business concern categories and also a goal for participation by an AbilityOne organization(s). As will be supported below, MHN has constructed a team, which will allow us to meet and/or exceed all established DoD goals for each of these categories.

2.1 Small Business Participation/Subcontracting Plan (L.18, M.4)

MHN operates under a Contractor Purchasing System, inclusive of its Small Business Subcontracting Program, that has been approved by DCMA. Our long-established Small Business Subcontracting Program is embraced by the highest levels of our organization and is in complete compliance with both the regulatory requirements detailed in the FAR and DFARS, and in the spirit of the Small Business Act. Our Program is supported by requisite policies, procedures, and processes.

MHN understands the necessity for, and is a strong proponent of, affording small businesses the maximum practicable opportunity to compete for subcontracting actions consistent with efficient contract performance. We commit to provide advice, assistance, and business counsel to these companies to help facilitate their success. Our efforts are extended to all categories of small businesses, including those identified as AbilityOne, SB, SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and HUBZone.

This Individual Contract Plan has been developed in accordance with the following Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) requirements listed in Exhibit 2-1.

2.2 Commitment/Understanding of CYB-MFLC Small Business Goals (L.18, M.4, J.6)

2.2.1 Method for Developing Subcontracting Goals (FAR 19.704 (a) (1) and (2))

We developed our subcontracting goals for this effort after careful consideration of the scope and volume of counseling work described in the solicitation. We also considered our Program Management approach to supporting such work and identified associated subcontracting opportunities in the area of administrative support personnel services. Opportunities were also found in our proposed Other Direct Costs. The solicitation provides for the following broad areas of contract performance for the CYB-MFLC Mission Execution Task area: MFLC Rotational, On-Demand, School and Summer Programs, Surge, and Joint Family Support Assistance Program (JFSAP) counselors. Our proposed Subcontracting Plan will allow us to address the PWS components, and to additionally subcontract some components of our Program Management support staff and Other Direct Costs, as shown below in Exhibit 2-2.

Exhibit 2-2. Products and Services to be Subcontracted

MHN determined that all counseling services provide an opportunity for subcontracting across the full spectrum of small business categories (i.e., SB, SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and HUBZone), all of which are represented within our long-standing professional MFLC network of independent counselor subcontractors. Additionally, MHN has also constructed a First Tier Team Member Subcontract with (b) (4), an SDB. The combination of our MFLC network and our formal Team Member will not only ensure successful performance of the MFLC Program counseling services, it will also allow MHN to fully distribute all counseling work to our small business partners. Further, we have identified and allocated a number of administrative support personnel services to (b) (4), our AbilityOne partner. And, they will be our vendor for the provision of counselor contact cards and name tags. Although not considered a critical or major subcontractor, (b) (4) support services represent an important and valuable component of the work effort.

Section M of the solicitation defines an Outstanding Rating for Subfactor II as follows: “Proposal exceeds DoD’s goals for any five small business concerns, including all of the following: AbilityOne agencies, Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Businesses, and Veteran Owned Small Businesses.” The available DoD Small Business Subcontracting categories depicted in Attachment 6 to the solicitation are: AbilityOne, Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB), Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB), Small Business (the cumulative total of all small business subcategories), Historically Underutilized Business Zone (HUBZone), and Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB). As shown in Exhibit 2-3, MHN’s goals exceed the criteria for an Outstanding Rating under Subfactor II, as we will exceed DoD’s goals in five categories in total, including the required AbilityOne, SDVOSB and VOSB goals. We will accomplish this through a combination of our existing MFLC network, our First Tier Subcontractor, (b) (4), and through a subcontract to our AbilityOne partner.

Exhibit 2-3. Small Business Goals

MHN's realistic and supportable strategy for meeting and/or exceeding the Small Business Goals for the contract is more fully supported below, but includes:

- Small Business. During March, 2012, MHN asked all network counselors to provide recertification of their small business size status by completion of our Small Business Questionnaire. To date, we have received self certifications from the far majority of our CYB-MFLC network counselors. Of those that responded, greater than 99% self certified as a Small Business. And, many of those also self certified as one or more small business subcategories, such as SDB, SDB, WOSB, VOSB, and SDVOSB, as follows: 19.7% SDB (including Woman-Owned SDB), 72.5% WOSB, 7.8% VOSB, and 2.8% SDVOSB. Less than 1% self certified as Non-Profit or Large Business. It is MHN's intent to subcontract with only counselors who have self certified as a small business concern (including small business subcategories). Because the far preponderance of all subcontracting opportunities under the MFLC contract will be accommodated by subcontracting with our MFLC network small business counselors, MHN will far exceed the DoD Small Business participation goal of 32% of all subcontracted dollars.
- Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB). We have executed a formal Teaming Agreement with (b) (4) for providing fulltime CYB-MFLC counselors in support of the JFSAP program in the Western Region and portions of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in four U.S. territories. In addition to (b) (4), greater than 19% of MHN's CYB-MFLC network has self certified as SDBs. Thus, through the combination of a First Tier subcontract with (b) (4) and through effective distribution of counseling assignments to the SDBs within our network, MHN will exceed the SDB goal of 5% established by the Solicitation.
- Women Owned Small Business (WOSB), Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB), and Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business Concerns (SDVOSB). MHN will apply a proven and effective business model to subcontract nearly all counseling efforts to small business concerns via our MFLC network. These counselors will be providing services throughout CONUS and in all OCONUS locations. Based on the above cited recent self certifications by our MFLC network counselors, the percentage distribution of WOSB, VOSB and SDVOSB represented within our network will allow MHN sufficient opportunity to distribute counseling assignments in such a fashion as to exceed these DoD small business subcategory goals of 5% for WOSB and 3% for VOSB and SDVOSB businesses.
- AbilityOne. We have obtained a quotation from (b) (4) to provide six administrative personnel in support of MHN's Program Management function: three Team Assistants in Rancho Cordova, CA and three Administrative Coordinators in Irving, TX. Additionally, we anticipate acquiring certain of our other direct costs (counselor contact cards and name tags) through this company. (b) (4) support is not considered by MHN to meet the definition of a “critical” or “major” subcontractor and MHN, therefore, has not entered into a formal Teaming Agreement (as envisioned by FAR Subpart 9.6) with them. However, they will be an important contributor to the program accomplishing very meaningful work. (b) (4)

(b) (4) associated agency and recognized AbilityOne entity. It is identified and listed on (b) (4) website as an affiliated agency. Additionally, (b) (4) has self certified as an AbilityOne entity in its Central Contractor Registration (CCR) (DUNS (b) (4)). As an (b) (4) associated agency, (b) (4) is a fully qualified nonprofit agency for the blind as defined in section (b) (4) of the Title 41USC. As such, the work MHN intends to award to them is counted toward MHN’s small business subcontracting goals, as provided by 10 U.S.C. 2410d(a). As a result, MHN will exceed the 1% goal for AbilityOne subcontracted work.

- HUBZone Business Concerns. In our recent call for recertification of their small business status, less than 1% of our counselors certified as a HUBZone small business concern. In order to qualify as SB HUBZone, concerns must receive a certification from the Small Business Administration (SBA). To address the issue of insufficient HUBZone subcontractor counselors, MHN intends to offer assistance to our network of counselors to help them in identifying whether they meet the requirements for HUBZone eligibility. For those that do meet eligibility, MHN will offer to assist those counselors in preparing and processing their applications through the SBA in order to secure their SBA certification. We will educate these particular providers that securing an SBA HUBZone certification is advantageous under a Federal Government program such as MFLC, as it will allow MHN to specifically target an increased level of work to them once we are aware of their status. We believe that once these particular providers understand this, they will be incentivized to work to secure their HUBZone certification from the SBA. In light of this, MHN has assumed as (b) (4) “stretch” goal, and will put forth our best efforts to meet the same.

MHN’s small business percentage goals shown above were calculated as a percentage of the proposed Total Available Subcontracted Dollars amount of (b) (4) inclusive of the Base and all Option Years for this FPR. The components of MHN’s estimate of Total Proposed Subcontracted Dollars are reflected below in Exhibit 2-4. Travel-related costs (airfare, lodging, per diem, tolls, car rental, gasoline, etc.) and insurance (Defense Base Act Workers Compensation) are not considered “subcontracted” costs and are not, therefore, included in the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars amount below).

Exhibit 2-4. Small Business Goals

We developed our small business percentage and dollar goals for the CYB-MFLC Mission Execution Task by analyzing each of the major components of the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars, i.e., Subcontracted Counseling Services, Administrative Personnel Support Services, Information Technology Support of Information Warehouse, and Other Direct Costs. With the exception of the Subcontracted Counseling Services component, all remaining estimated subcontracted dollar values are included directly into our calculation of our proposed small business category goals, as shown later below. The remaining, and largest component of subcontracted costs, i.e., the “Subcontracted Counseling Services” expenses, includes both our MFLC Network counselors, and a portion of the JFSAP counselors which are to be furnished by our First-Tier Subcontractor and Teaming Partner, (b) (4). The Base and all Option Periods contract amount included in our Price Proposal for MFLC Network counselors (independent subcontractor counselors) totals (b) (4), inclusive of Baseline, Augmented and Option quantities. An additional (b) (4) has been priced for the (b) (4) subcontract for provision of a portion of JFSAP counselors. The amount priced for (b) (4) is included in our later calculation of dollars to be subcontracted to Small Disadvantaged Business concerns, as (b) (4) fully so qualifies. For the MFLC Network Counselor dollar amount, we developed and assigned reasonable percentage goals across the various small business categories, and then derived the associated dollar values, as depicted in Exhibit 2-5, below. The “MHN Network Goals” were established based on consideration of those percentages derived from both our recent small business network survey and our past performance under the existing MFLC contract. The small business category dollar values derived below from our Network, are then included in the total small business category values for computation of our small business goals for this Proposal.

Exhibit 2-5. MFLC Network Small Business Distribution

Our established MFLC Network goals for Veteran Owned, Woman Owned, and Small Disadvantaged Business concerns are all fully supported by the percentages within our Network. The Small Business (SB) goal shown is simply the balance of subcontracted Network dollars that have been allocated under this Network analysis. In fact, the total value of (b) (4) represents the full MFLC-CYB Network small business goal. For Service Disabled Small Businesses, we used a goal of (b) (4) as it is only one half of one percent higher than the total percentage of our Network SDVOSBs. We will reach or exceed this goal by targeting additional Task Orders to SDVOSB concerns, thereby raising the dollar amount and resulting percentage subcontracted to the category. For the HUBZone Network goal, MHN has established a “stretch goal” of (b) (4) (which will translate into a (b) (4) overall subcontracting goal shown below when subcontracting dollars outside of our Network are considered). We recognize that this will be a challenge to reach, but as supported elsewhere in this Plan, we are confident that through assertive outreach and support efforts, we will be able to realize this goal under the resulting contract.

| Business Category | MFLC Network | JFSAPs | Admin Services | ODCs | IW Support | Total | Goal % |

- AbilityOne. (b) (4) is an AbilityOne organization. The dollar amount estimated to be subcontracted to (b) (4) is based upon two separate components, i.e., administrative labor and other direct costs. The first component is the estimated value of the administrative support services personnel that (b) (4) will be providing in support of MHN. The proposal received by MHN from (b) (4), for the Base and all Option Years purchase order for these administrative services, totaled (b) (4). The second component includes certain other direct costs included in MHN's Price Proposal, which MHN intends to purchase through (b) (4), as the need for the same arises under the resulting contract. These other direct costs include counselor contact cards and name tags required to support the MFLC Program, and equal (b) (4) over the Base and all Option Years contract term. These estimated other direct costs are included in MHN's (as opposed to (b) (4)) proposed price, but will be purchased through (b) (4) once the requirements are definitized under the resulting MFLC contract. The total estimated value of the administrative support services and the other direct costs to be subcontracted to (b) (4) is estimated at (b) (4) or (b) (4) of the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars for the Base Period.
- Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB). (b) (4) and a qualified SDB. We have executed a formal Teaming Agreement with (b) (4) for providing fulltime MFLC counselors in support of the JFSAP program in the Western Region and portions of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in all four U.S. territories. The Price Proposal received by MHN from (b) (4), for the Base and all Option Years totaled (b) (4). Their Price Proposal is fully supported by the number of JFSAP counselors allocated under the formally executed Teaming Agreement between MHN and (b) (4), and will constitute the dollar value of their resulting subcontract. In addition to (b) (4), MHN has allocated (b) (4) of our proposed MFLC Network costs to SDBs, as shown in Exhibit 2-6. Thus, through the combination of a First Tier subcontract with (b) (4) and through effective distribution of counseling assignments to the SDBs within our network, MHN’s goal of (b) (4) will exceed the SDB goal of 5% established by the Solicitation.

- Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB). The (b) (4) goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors. This percentage goal is only very slightly higher than the total percentage of our Network SDVOSBs. We will reach or exceed this goal by targeting additional Task Orders to SDVOSB concerns, thereby raising the dollar amount and resulting percentage subcontracted to the category.
- Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB). The (b) (4) goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors.
- Women Owned Small Business (WOSB). The (b) (4) goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors.

2.2.2 Goals Expressed in Percentages

|---|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| AbilityOne Program | 1% | (b) (4) |
| Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) | 5% | (b) (4) |
| Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) | 3% | (b) (4) |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business (VOSB) | 3% | (b) (4) |
| Woman-Owned Small Business (WOSB) | 5% | (b) (4) |
| Historically Underutilized Business Zone (HUBZone) | 3% | (b) (4) |

Exhibit 2-7. MHN Meets or Exceeds the Government’s Small Business Subcontracting Goals in All Categories

The dollar values supporting the calculation of the above percentage goals are depicted in Exhibit 2-6. Please note that the percentage goals established for these individual small business categories (SDVOSB, VOSB Woman-Owned, etc.) will not sum to the “Small Business (cumulative total of all small business)” percentage reflected in the plan. This is due to the fact that a single small business concern may be counted toward multiple, individual goals. For example, a given company could qualify and self-certify as an SDB, Woman-Owned, and VOSB concern, and the subcontracted dollars/percentages associated with that concern will be counted in each of these example small business subcategories, in addition to being counted in the Small Business category. This approach to accounting for the various small business categories is in strict compliance with instructions provided by the Standard Form 294 (Subcontracting Report for Individual Contracts) and the Standard Form 295 (Summary Subcontract Report).

| Business Category | Dollar Amount | Percentage Goal |
|---|---------------|-----------------|
| AbilityOne | $ | (b) (4) |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| Woman-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| HUB Zone Small Business | $ | |
| Small Disadvantaged Business | $ | |
| Other Small Business | $ | |
| TOTAL Small Business | $ | |
| Large Business | $ | |
| TOTAL SUBCONTRACTED | $ | |

2.3 How SB Participation Will Contribute to Overall Subcontracting Goals (L.18)

MHN will leverage its long-established collaboration with our MFLC network, and our new teaming relationship with our First Tier Team Member Subcontractors, (b) (4), to fully address the important counseling services required under the MFLC Program. These relationships all involve Small Business concerns which will completely contribute to MHN’s subcontracting Goals. And, our AbilityOne vendor, (b) (4), will bring important administrative personnel to support our program management staff. MHN will also use (b) (4) to supply certain other direct cost items.

2.4 Specific Efforts to Ensure Contract Meets or Exceeds Proposed Goals (L.18)

MHN’s ability to meet the various small business goals is fully addressed in Section 2.2.1 above. Each of the individual goals is supported by our First-Tier subcontractor, through our demonstrated performance experience using our CYB-MFLC network, and through our identified AbilityOne company. To ensure that we meet our individual small business categories MHN will issue the respective subcontract to our Team Member, (b) (4), in the dollar amount included in our Proposal for the provision of a large component of JFSAP counselors. Further, we’ll utilize our MFLC network in the provision of all counseling services (excluding JFSAP counselors which will be provided directly by MHN and (b) (4)), thereby ensuring the use of our independent contractor counselors. To reach our AbilityOne goal, we will issue a purchase order to (b) (4) as already discussed, and in the amount of the quotation, and additional purchase orders for certain other direct costs required to support the MFLC Program. To address the issue of insufficient HUBZone subcontractor counselors, MHN intends to accomplish outreach efforts, via email, to our network of counselors to help them in identifying whether they meet the requirements for HUBZone eligibility. We will educate these particular providers that securing an SBA HUBZone certification is advantageous under a Federal Government program such as MFLC, as it will allow MHN to specifically target an increased level of work to them once we are aware of their status. For those that do meet eligibility, MHN will offer to assist those counselors in preparing and processing their applications through the SBA in order to secure their SBA certification. We will follow-up with those providers that do not initially respond to the outreach effort through additional emails. MHN’s subcontract manager and MHN’s Small Business Liaison Officer (SBLO) will provide individual assistance to such businesses demonstrating an interest. On a quarterly basis, MHN will review its small business performance against its established goals and identify any areas requiring improvement. If necessary, MHN will take aggressive action to ensure subcontracted work is brought up to the levels necessary to successfully meet our established goals.

2.5 Identification and Development of Potential Sources

MHN, leveraging Health Net Federal Service’s established Subcontracts Program, maintains database Identification and Development of Potential Sources MHN, leveraging Health Net Federal Service’s established Subcontracts Program, maintains database and source directories to identify small business concerns. We use listings from the following sources in the standard course of our business to the maximum practicable extent to ensure that small business concerns are identified:

MHN also conducts outreach efforts. This effort includes assistance in every reasonable manner to develop new, qualified small business concerns.

2.6 Indirect Costs

The subcontracting goals identified in this section are derived from the direct costs MHN proposes to incur. Indirect costs are not included.

2.8 Subcontractor Flowdown Provisions

MHN includes the FAR clauses at 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns and 52.219-9, Small Business Subcontracting Plan in all subcontracts issued in support of MFLC and other federal agency contracts, except where not required by the terms of the affected clauses. With the inclusion of these flow down provisions, MHN will ensure that all subcontractors (except small business concerns) that receive subcontracts in excess of $650,000 ($1,500,000 for construction) to adopt a plan that complies with the requirements of the clause at 52.219-9.

2.9 Special Studies and Reports

MHN will cooperate in any study or survey as may be required.

- MHN will submit to the Contracting Officer semiannually and at contract completion the required periodic reports utilizing the Electronic Subcontracting Reporting System (eSRS). The reports will include:
 - Individual Subcontract Reports (ISR) (formerly Standard Form 294)
 - Summary Subcontract Report (SSR) (formerly Standard Form 295), including a breakout of subcontract awards, in whole dollars, to small disadvantaged business SBI concerns by North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Industry Subsector at the close of each fiscal year
- MHN will ensure that our subcontractors agree to submit these reports, when appropriate
- MHN will provide our prime contract number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, prime contractor's DUNS number, and the email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting reports, to all first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans so that it can be entered into the eSRS system. MHN will continue to furnish this information to any new first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans in the future
- MHN will ensure; by written correspondence (to include certification), that our subcontractors' with subcontracting plans provide the prime contract number, our own DUNS number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, and email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting the reports, to our subcontractors with subcontracting plans

2.10 Records to be Maintained

MHN will maintain records to demonstrate that our Small Business Subcontracting Program policies and procedures have been implemented. Additionally, records will be maintained, to track actual subcontracted dollars as compared to planned subcontracted dollars with the goal of assuring compliance with the requirements of this plan.

Examples of other records that are maintained are:

- SBI source lists, guides and other data, which enable procurement personnel to identify, develop and provide bid opportunities to such concerns
- Records of efforts to locate, obtain, and utilize SBI sources through contacts with government agencies and industry organizations
- Records of all awards of $100,000 or more, indicating on each solicitation (1) whether SBI concerns were solicited and, if not, why not, and (2) if applicable, the reason why the award was not made to a SBI concern
- Records of outreach efforts to contact trade associations, business development organizations, participation in conferences and trade fairs, and Veteran service organizations to locate SBI concerns
- Records of internal guidance and encouragement provided to procurement staff through workshops, seminars, training, etc., and monitoring performance to evaluate compliance with the program's requirement
- Records supporting award data submitted by the offeror to the government, including name, address, and business size of each subcontractor

2.11 MHN Functions Consistent With Efficient Contract Performance

Consistent with efficient contract performance, the following functions are accomplished through our day-to-day administration of the plan:

- Assist and encourage the participation of all potential subcontractors and SBI concerns by arranging solicitation requirements to ensure the requirements are not needlessly restrictive. The time to respond to solicitations, the quantity of product required, the technical specifications, and the delivery requirements will be designed to accommodate the needs of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. All SBI concerns will be given an opportunity to compete over a period of time, as subcontracting opportunities become available. Guidance and counsel are given to SBI concerns if they are not the selected offeror, whether it is based on non-competitiveness, or for any other reason
- Provide adequate and timely consideration for SBI concerns during the “make-or-buy” decision process. The capabilities of the SBI concerns will be considered prior to finalizing the “make or buy” decision
- Provide timely payment of amounts due pursuant to the terms of their subcontract. Payment procedures are set forth in accordance with our standard “Payments” clause, which is incorporated into every subcontract
- Counsel and discuss potential subcontracting opportunities with representatives of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. This guidance is provided on a daily basis by the Company's procurement staff
- Confirm by using the Central Contractor Registration (CCR) database or by contacting the SBA any subcontractor representing themselves as a HUBZone small business concern
- Provide notice to subcontractors concerning penalties and remedies they may incur as a result of misrepresenting their business classification/size for the purpose of obtaining a subcontract that is to be included as part or all of a goal contained in the MHN contracting plan
- Prior to contract award, inform in writing any unsuccessful small business concern the name and location of the successful offeror

2.12 Equitable Opportunity

As an inter-company partner with MHN, the HNFS Vice President, Government Contracts, has issued several policies and procedures establishing directives to ensure the advocacy of the Small Business Program as it applies to both HNFS and MHN.

These include policies and procedures designed as directives to subcontract managers, purchasing agents, and buyers requiring compliance with corporate policy. MHN’S goal is to support SBI participation to the maximum extent practicable.

These directives prescribe requirements, including, but not limited to Procurement File Documentation, Supplier Business Questionnaires, and Sourcing and Selection Procurement Summaries.

In addition, and to ensure maximum SBI participation, “for each acquisition that has an anticipated dollar value exceeding $2,500, MHN will make a good faith effort to include at least one SBI concern in the solicitation for proposal or request for quote.”

2.13 Description of Good Faith Effort

MHN’s ability to meet the Small Business goals contained in this Plan are fully achievable as supported by the information above. However, we will nevertheless continue our efforts to expand small business participation in all areas that offer such potential. As opportunities arise under any resulting contract that were not identified at the time of submission of our proposal MHN will continue to reach to our small business partners to satisfy those requirements whenever reasonable and supportable. Further, MHN will continue to expand our MFLC network with qualified counselors who are SDVOSB and VOSB. And, we will continue to urge our small business counselors, where applicable, to seek out Small Business Administration certification of their HUBZone business classification.

In addition, we have met one-on-one with (b) (4), Senior Program Manager, Prime Contractor Programs, of the (b) (4), to explore other possible AbilityOne organizations with which MHN may later subcontract should opportunities arise that were not envisioned during the preparation of this proposal. We will continue to work with (b) (4) (an AbilityOne organization) with which we have an ongoing relationship to identify possible subcontracting opportunities, perhaps in the areas of records retention, reproduction services, materials support, etc. should such requirements materialize under the resulting MFLC contract. MHN is committed to further developing and expanding our small business/AbilityOne partners.

VOLUME II: SUBCONTRACTING PLAN (FACTOR 4)

1.0 Subfactor I: Subcontract Management (L.18, M.4)

This Volume II, Subcontracting Plan, has been prepared in full compliance with all requirements of Sections L and M of RFP No. D11PS18854, for the Military & Family Life Counseling (MFLC) Program. Included herein please find full details on MHN Government Services, Inc. (MHN) subcontract management approach for the resulting contract, plus our proposed Small Business Subcontracting Plan which includes the dollar and percentage goals we propose subcontracting across the various small business categories. Please note that in order to respond to the specific Section L and M compliance requirements in a manner consistent with the order in which the same are required by the Solicitation, our responses to the FAR 19.7 requirements will be found in many areas throughout this Volume II, as opposed to a stand-alone Small Business Subcontracting Plan. Our Plan is, nevertheless, in full accord with the requirements of FAR 19.7 and DFARS 215.304.

All projected dollars and percentages included under this Personal Financial Counseling Mission Execution Task (MET) have been based on the Maximum Quantity of PFCs, notwithstanding that the high preponderance of CLINs are Optional and therefore not guaranteed to MHN. However, because Subcontracting Plans are required to include all optional quantities, MHN has structured our PFC Subcontracting Plan accordingly.

Volume IIC has been constructed to comply to the Solicitation's requirements supporting the PFC Mission Execution Task (MET), as detailed below:

- Section 1.0: Addresses Subcontract Management compliance
- Section 2.0: Addresses the Small Business Subcontracting Plan specifics.

In continuation of the ongoing practices under our existing MFLC contract, MHN will utilize certain functions of our corporate affiliate, Health Net Federal Services, LLC (HNFS) to support any contract to result from Solicitation No. D11PS18854. Specifically, within the context of this Subcontracting Plan, MHN will continue to utilize HNFS' Government Contracts Department to provide the requisite subcontract management, subcontract purchasing and subcontract oversight functions. This department headed by (b) (4) VP of Government Contracts, subcontract management solicitation has direct contract administration responsibility for MHN's current MFLC contract and will provide the same level of direct support to MHN for any contract to result from Solicitation No. D11PS18854.

MHN's solution to subcontracting counselor services is comprised of two separate approaches. First, we will continue to use our robust network of independent subcontracted counselors. And, secondly, we will rely upon a single formal Team Member and major subcontractor, (b) (4) (b) (4) to provide JFSAP counselors in the Western Region and part of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in four U.S. territories. This solution will ensure comprehensive, timely and effective provision of important and necessary non-medical problem solving counseling services to our military Service Members and their families under the MFLC Program. In addition to subcontracting counseling services, MHN will also be subcontracting with an AbilityOne company, Winston (b) (4) to provide administrative personnel in support of MHN's Program Management function. Additionally, (b) (4) will be our vendor for counselor contact cards and name tags to be purchased for the program by MHN. (b) (4)'s support is not considered by MHN to meet the definition of a "critical" or "major" subcontractor and MHN, therefore, has not entered into a formal Teaming Agreement (as envisioned by FAR Subpart 9.6) with them. However, they will be an important contributor to the program, accomplishing very meaningful work. And, finally, we will be subcontracting to (b) (4) [REDACTED] for continued information technology support services for our Information Warehouse. With the exception of (b) (4) [REDACTED] a large business which operates under a corporate enterprise-wide service level agreement for the provision of certain information technology support services, MHN will be applying all our available subcontracting dollars to small business concerns.

As we are doing under our current MFLC contract, we will continue to afford our small business network counselor partners with an extremely high level of participation under the resulting new MFLC Program. Small businesses are not only the foundation of our American economic system of private enterprise; they also form the backbone of professional counseling support MHN will bring to the MFLC Program. Our long legacy of collaboration with our network of small business counselors provides MHN with excellent experience in managing, coordinating, and controlling the subcontracting activity inherent in placing counselors throughout the United States and around the world. The ability to subcontract timely, professional, face-to-face counseling in places such as the Horn of Africa, Europe, the Asian Pacific Rim, and U.S. territories is not easily mastered, nor maintained. Ensuring that counselors are in-place, when/where required, and addressing all possible logistical challenges requires a dedicated, knowledgeable, experienced group of professionals. These logistical challenges include, but are not necessarily limited to, for example:

- Securing Invited Contract Status under applicable Status of Forces Agreements (SOFA)
- Accommodating legal considerations (international immigration and employment, labor, tax and business practices and regulations)
- Determining applicable visa requirements and processes
- Ensuring counselors' Theater-specific training
- Arranging travel and lodging
- Providing requisite technology for on-line activity reporting
- Coordinating often-changing conditions "on the ground"
- Replacing counselors as needed due to urgent personal or family issues.

MHN's MFLC Program management team has experienced all of these challenges and has developed efficient processes, procedures, systems, and technology responses that will allow us to continue to ensure that the counseling needs of our dedicated Service Members and their families are addressed in the best possible way under the MFLC Program. Our service-delivery model under the MFLC Program could not be accomplished without our network of small business partners and we are proud of the level of expertise, commitment, and MFLC-specific experience these counselors and small companies bring our team.

The specifics of how we select, integrate, manage and communicate with our small business subcontractors, a description of their important work efforts, and how their work effort will contribute to MHN's ability to meet the government's goals for the various small business categories, are fully addressed in the following sections. We will subcontract (b) (4) [REDACTED] of the total proposed price for the Base and all Option Periods of the PFC Mission Execution Task of the MFLC Program, well above the government's Request for Proposal requirement of 25%. In so doing, we will also meet or exceed the government's established small business goals in multiple small business categories. We will accomplish this through the continued use of our extensive MFLC network of independent small business counselor subcontractors, and under a First-Tier subcontract with our formal Teaming Agreement partner, (b) (4) [REDACTED] (an Alaska Native Company and Small Disadvantaged Business), and through the use of an AbilityOne company, (b) (4) [REDACTED]. Effective utilization of our small business partners will be accomplished while ensuring their use is consistent with, quality of performance, and full compliance with all contract performance requirements.

The MFLC Team. MHN’s truly exceptional team to ensure the provision of comprehensive, timely, and professional counseling services, while concurrently addressing the desire to afford our small business partners opportunities for maximum participation in the Program.

- First, and foremost, MHN will continue to leverage our in-place contracted network of (b) (4) MFLC small business subcontractor counselors that has been providing, and continues to provide, excellent counseling services under our existing MFLC contract. Each and every counselor with whom MHN has subcontracted has self certified as a small business concern as defined pursuant to 12CFR121, and over 50% are certified Woman-Owned Small Businesses. Additionally, many have further self certified as Veteran-Owned Small Business, Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business, or Small Disadvantaged Business Concerns. We discuss this more at length, later in this volume.
- MHN has executed a formal Teaming Agreement (as envisioned by FAR Subpart 9.6) with (b) (4) an (b) (4), as (b) (4) is considered by MHN to be a major and/or critical First-Tier subcontractor. They will be providing a sizable portion of fulltime PFC counselors in support of the JFSAP Program. (b) (4) meets the requirements of an (b) (4), and a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) concern), as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN’s small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals.

By leveraging our existing MFLC network of independent counselor small business subcontractors (as discussed in more detail below), and through our established Teaming Agreement with (b) (4) MHN can offer and substantiate a counseling services subcontracting approach that will meet and/or exceed many of the small business goals established by the MFLC Program Solicitation. And, through our use of an AbilityOne company for the provision of administrative support personnel, and the provision of certain of our other direct costs, we will be able to meet/exceed the AbilityOne goal established by the Solicitation.

Further, we believe the strengths of our approach to effective management of our cross section of counselor subcontractors under the MFLC Program offers the government substantive and verifiable benefits, which we highlight in Exhibit 1-1.

Exhibit 1-1. Subcontract Management Approach Strengths and Benefits

1.1 Subcontracting Plan Conforming to FAR Subpart 19.7 (L.18, M.4)

Please note that to respond to the specific Sections L and M compliance requirements, in a manner consistent with the order in which the same are required by the Solicitation, our responses to the FAR 19.7 requirements will be found in several areas throughout this Volume II, as opposed to a stand-alone Small Business Subcontracting Plan. However, our Plan is nevertheless in full accord with the requirements of Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR), 19.7 and DFARS 215.304. Our Small Business Subcontracting Plan in Section 2 provides a comprehensive compliance cross reference for ease in evaluating our Plan for compliance with each of the stipulated requirements detailed in FAR 19.704.

MHN’s Approved Purchasing System and Subcontracting Program

MHN enjoys the benefits of a Contractor Purchasing System, inclusive of its Small Business Subcontracting Program, that has been approved by the Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA). Our long-established Small Business Subcontracting Program is embraced by the highest levels of our organization and is in complete compliance with both the regulatory requirements detailed in the FAR and in the spirit of the Small Business Act. Requisite policies, procedures, and processes support our Program. The approved Small Business Program has achieved multiple “Outstanding” Ratings and a “Highly Successful” Rating, from the DCMA for its SDB and WOSB concerns.

MHN understands the necessity for, and has always been a strong proponent of, affording small businesses the maximum practicable opportunity to compete for subcontracting actions consistent with efficient contract performance. We commit to providing advice, assistance, and business counsel to these companies to help facilitate their success. Our efforts are extended to all categories of small businesses, including those identified as small business (SB), SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and historically underutilized business zone (HUBZone).

We also fully understand DoD’s Subcontracting Program and the associated regulatory foundation for the same, such as shown below:

- Section 8(d) Small Business Act – 15 USC 637(d)
- Section 15(g) Small Business Act – 15 USC 644(g)
- FAR 19.7/DFARS 219.7 Small Business Subcontracting Program
- FAR 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns
- FAR 52.219-9, Subcontracting Plan

1.1.1 Teaming Arrangements (L.18, M.4)

MHN has developed a strategic relationship with (b) (4) a Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) concern and proposed First-Tier Subcontractor, which will perform a significant subcontracted component of the MFLC Program. (b) (4) will be providing JFSAP counselors to the Western Region and part of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in one U.S. territory, Puerto Rico. To ensure clarity on the work share and areas of responsibility to be conducted by our teaming partner, MHN developed, negotiated, and executed a formal Teaming Agreement with (b) (4) to accommodate these important requirements. (b) (4) areas of responsibility will be to provide 27 Baseline, 20 Augmented, and 10 Optional PFC counselors to support the Joint Family Support Assistance Program (JFSAP) in the Western and parts of the Northeast Regions of the United States, and one U.S. territory, Puerto Rico.

1.1.2 Subcontract Management Processes (L.18, M.4)

Counseling services under the MFLC Program will be accommodated through two separate, and well established, subcontracting approaches. Our Team Member First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), will be issued an individual subcontract specifically identifying the type, quantity, and location of Baseline, Augmented, and Optional JFSAP counselors, structured under separate, fixed priced Contract Line Item Numbers (CLINs) which will accommodate the prime contract's CLIN structure. (b) (4) and MHN will operate within the same line of communication: the operational supervisors from both (b) (4) and MHN will report up to MHN's current JFSAP Manager and therefore, any performance issues will be resolved through the existing, proven chain of command. The JFSAP Manager will continue to provide leadership and delivery of oversight services with the management and supervisory staff as a whole (for both (b) (4) and MHN) across the entire JFSAP footprint. In this fashion, all PFC JFSAPs remain a continuously dedicated and cohesive group of counselors for the Guard and Reserve components, FRG leaders, unit commanders and RDCs in their states/territories. MHN employees who are currently performing JFSAP services under the existing MFLC contract, and who are slated to be assigned to (b) (4) under any resulting new contract/subcontract to result from the solicitation, have all agreed to be rebadged as (b) (4) employees. They will enjoy a professional employee compensation plan commensurate with and competitive to their existing MHN salary and benefits. MHN will be providing, as our own employees, (b) (4) of JFSAP-PFCs for the base year (b) (4) for the base, augmented, and options), while (b) (4) will be employing the remaining (b) (4) for the base year (b) (4) base, augmented, and options). We note that there will be no rotational JFSAPs as we have today in the territories under our current MFLC contract.

MHN will also subcontract with its MFLC network of independent Personal Financial Counselor subcontractors using its well-established approach of issuing individual Counselor Task Orders (CTO) under previously executed Provider Services Task Order Agreements (PSTOA). Every counselor subcontractor must execute a PSTOA as a condition of joining the MFLC network. The PSTOA establishes an umbrella subcontract arrangement (akin to an Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quantity type contract) with overarching terms and conditions and under which individual CTOs can be quickly issued to address Rotational, On-Demand, and Surge requirements as they materialize under the MFLC Contract. Counselor subcontractors are contacted either by email or telephonically to determine their interest in accepting the given CTO. They're advised of the location and duration of the assignment, and whether travel, lodging, car rental, etc. will be authorized. If the counselor agrees to the assignment, a CTO is emailed to them. The CTO is then either accepted or declined by the subcontractor within three (3) calendar days. Each CTO is identified with a unique Internal Order Number (ION) against which all costs for that given assignment are accumulated in MHN's accounting system, and form the basis for later billing to the government. This approach has worked extremely well under our existing MFLC contract and has allowed for clear cost and performance accountability for each CTO and its associated assignment.

MHN is uniquely qualified in managing the challenges peculiar to provision of thousands of subcontracted counselors around the world, under the MFLC Program. We have managed the existing MFLC Program since its pilot phase in 2004 and through its unprecedented growth under the current MFLC contract. As the prime contractor, MHN takes full responsibility to manage all program activities, including all subcontractors, delivering seamless, high quality services to the Government. MHN establishes and manages program expectations and standards of performance for all MFLC Program management structure members through detailed procedures and agreements tailored to the needs of the MFLC Program and agreed upon by all involved principals before initiation of any program work. These procedures and agreements establish objective performance standards in all areas relevant to service delivery. MHN's PFC-MFLC Program Director, (b) (4), and Contract Administrator, (b) (4), will implement (and develop/approve where necessary) all procedures and agreements specific to support of the MFLC Program. Although (b) (4) will provide overarching management of all subcontracting activities, MHN is supplementing the management team, by including our Subcontracts Manager, (b) (4), as one of our key personnel. (b) (4), who reports to (b) (4), will prepare and install the First Tier subcontract with (b) (4). He will then provide direct, day-to-day professional contract administration of the subcontract and provide backup contract/subcontract administration support to (b) (4) for the MFLC Program. (b) (4) has more than 20 years of government contract and subcontract management experience, and is extremely well qualified to provide the requisite level of professional contract and subcontract administration. He will work with (b) (4) Program Manager to ensure compliance with the terms and conditions of the (b) (4) subcontract including, without limitation, timely submission of invoices and subcontract deliverables and addressing any performance issues that may arise.

All MFLC Provider network CTOs are effectuated as Purchase Orders via MHN's Purchasing Department, which is under (b) (4) cognizance, and will be administered by several members of this department. The Purchasing Department will also draft and install a Purchase Order with (b) (4), our AbilityOne company, for the provision of administrative support services personnel, as well as subsequent Purchase Orders for the provision of certain other direct costs (counselor contact cards and names tags) as those needs arise under the resulting contract. And, that department will also issue a Purchase Order to (b) (4) for information technology services in support of our Information Warehouse. Our established, documented, and consistently maintained DCMA-approved Contractor Purchasing System will ensure adequate controls through which MHN will acquire the quality services necessary for MFLC contract performance our system further ensures that all transactions, except where otherwise justified, are secured on a fully competitive basis and all prices are determined fair and reasonable. Additionally, our processes ensures the appropriateness of all contracted services, through evaluation of the types and quantities of labor, skill level, labor category mix, and direct labor hours proposed to be expended. All transactions are fully supported by user requirements documents. Our First-Tier subcontractor, and all counselors subcontracted through the MFLC network, will report any operational issues having an impact to their on-the-ground performance through the MHN Program Director's Field Operations organization. (b) (4) Manager will all be fully integrated into the MFLC Program management team. Exhibit 1-2 outlines the key functions associated with our approach to managing our major First-Tier subcontractor. The Purchasing Department, under (b) (4) leadership, will also provide the MHN Program Director's Business Operations organization with contract administration support of the Purchase Orders for (b) (4) and (b) (4).

|--|--|
| MHN Assumes Responsibility | MHN shall be fully responsible, as the prime contractor, for the technical, schedule and financial performance of all work performed by (b) (4). Our subcontractors' performance will be overseen by our Program Director's organization which will be supported by our Subcontracts Manager. Our Business Operations organization will oversee the operations and administrative support services provided by (b) (4) and (b) (4) information technology support services for our Information Warehouse. Collectively, our management team will manage, monitor, and review all subcontracted and purchased work. |
| MHN Delivers Scope of Work and Assignment to Subcontractor | (b) (4) will receive a detailed scope of work for specific portions of the Program. This will include detailed budgets and schedules. The Program Director will review and approve the work plans for technical content and cost reasonableness. |
| MHN Closely Manages Subcontractor Program Manager | MHN requires that First-Tier subcontractor (b) (4) assign a Program Manager to the MFLC Program to manage their own performance and for issue escalation and resolution. The MHN Program Director will maintain frequent and open lines of communication with the subcontractor Program Manager, including weekly conference calls and scheduled meetings as circumstances dictate. |
| MHN Communicates and Reports | In addition to frequent communication between MHN and (b) (4), the First-Tier Subcontractor will submit monthly progress reports, with data on the financial and technical status of their tasks. The Subcontractor Program Manager are required to attend scheduled management status and performance monthly reviews/conference calls. |

The Program Management team will work closely with all assigned network counselors to ensure the provision of required services continues to meet their (CTO) operational requirements and quality standards. We will conduct weekly status calls with all PFCs, address any performance issues/challenges, and brief PFCs on program updates as necessary. Any service-delivery or operational issues which may arise with our Network counselors that require MFLC Program Management involvement, the same are vetted by the Field Operations team and technical/operational direction provided to the PFCs as needed.

Our Program Director, (b) (4), will ensure that all MHN subcontractors, (b) (4) and PFC network counselors, are meeting their performance metrics and deliverables. MHN will involve our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4) in its status and performance management reviews.

Communication with our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4) is an important element of MHN's integrated management approach. This approach includes a set of meetings and reviews to ensure regular communication and joint review of program status, resolution of issues, and a common understanding of work to be performed. In addition, our subcontractors have access to information on our MFS which will facilitate their performance of services.

MHN will establish clear lines of communication with (b) (4), as shown in Exhibit 1-3, (b) (4) Program Director, will have ultimate responsibility for compliant, successful, and integrated service delivery. He is supported in this effort by the Field Operations Managers and Counseling Supervisors for the network of independent subcontractor counselors. (b) (4), Contract Administrator, and his direct report, (b) (4), Subcontractor Manager will work with our First-Tier subcontractor’s individual Program Manager to ensure timely and compliant administration of the subcontract. Mr. (b) (4) will draft, negotiate and install the required First-Tier subcontract using the agreed upon work share, deliverables, and compliance requirements detailed in the formal Teaming Agreement established for bidding the MFLC Program. The First-Tier subcontract and all network subcontracts (PSTOA/CTO) will be effectuated in full accord with MHN’s subcontract policies and procedures as required under our government-approved purchasing system.

(b) (4) Quality Assurance (QA) Manager, will audit all requisite processes in compliance with ISO standards, Quality Control Plan (QCP) and Quality Assurance Surveillance Plan (QASP) requirements, lead and facilitate Quality Improvement Project teams, and make recommendations to improve services, including tracking and verifying formal Corrective Action Plans (CAPs). All aspects of subcontracted program operations will report up to the MFLC Field Operations Manager and to the Program Director, (b) (4) through integrated transition meetings, status meetings, management reports, and formal in-progress reviews (IPRs).

1.1.2.2 Selecting Subcontractors (L.18, M.4)

While MHN has the capacity, capability, and scale to support all mission tasks as a sole contractor, we believe it is in our and the Government’s best interest to broaden our skill mix, expertise, and capacity for the new contract. Our approach to selecting a First-Tier subcontractor/teaming partner was to identify opportunities for efficiency gains in performance when comparing the Request for Proposal (RFP) Performance Work Statement (PWS) to the current MFLC contract and Statement of Work (SOW). Our general selection criteria for a strategic partner included:

- High standards of business ethics and excellent past performance in behavioral health care staffing for military customers
- Successful experience supporting programs of similar size, scope, and complexity that we intend to subcontract
- Expertise supporting performance-based contracts and the demonstrated ability to perform to relevant metrics identified in the QASP
- Ability to meet the capacity requirements as outlined in the PWS

- Ability to manage staff and work fluctuations as a result of PFC peak counselor deployment periods, surges, COTR invocation of the Augmentation CLINs, or CO invocation of the Optional CLINs, under tight deadlines
- Verified expertise in understanding and complying with FAR flow-down requirements
- Requisite qualifications for meeting one or more of the small business concerns categories requirements

As a result of a thorough evaluation of the PWS, and after discounting any operational approach which could disrupt our established contractual relationship with our PFC network of counselors, MHN determined the optimum teaming approach is to subcontract a significant portion of the JFSAP counselor services through a formal Team Member. This major service component of the MFLC contract is performed by fulltime employees and will allow MHN to optimize a logical large portion of services for our Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) Team Member, (b) (4)

MHN will retain all other JFSAP fulltime counselors not subcontracted to (b) (4)

Exhibit 1-4 summarizes our analysis of the PWS and justification for subcontracting a major component of the PFC services to our First-Tier subcontractor to optimize performance.

Exhibit 1-4. Teaming Partner Performance Enhancement Attributes

MHN's Team Member, (b) (4) will further augment MHN's corporate capabilities, past performance, and capacity to perform under the new MFLC contract with even greater scale, flexibility, diversity of talent and efficiencies than today. (b) (4) has more than 18 years of demonstrated expertise in rapid clinical staffing for government agencies and long-term retention of full time staff. (b) (4) brings the benefit of direct and relevant experience in the management of programs for the U.S. Army Medical Command (MEDCOM), Navy, Air Force, and Department of Veterans Affairs providing behavioral healthcare professionals to staff CONUS and OCONUS Military Treatment Facilities (MTFs). In addition, they currently provide behavioral health professionals for other government agencies including National Institutes of Health (NIH) and the Library of Congress. With expertise in rapid full-time hiring and staffing, (b) (4) will be responsible for providing full-time PFCs to support the Reserve Components under JFSAP Program. Leveraging its experience in global government staffing solutions for behavioral health providers, (b) (4) will staff 27 full-time JFSAP PFCs, in multiple states and one U.S. territory, Puerto Rico. If the Augmented and Option CLINs are exercised, (b) (4) will provide up to an additional 30 JFSAP PFCs counselors in those states and the territory supported by (b) (4). (b) (4) is a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) concern), as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN's small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals. This company This company is a qualified SDB concern.

In addition to First-Tier subcontractor, MHN has an established, robust, PFC network that is currently populated with 1,020 professional PFCs. These professional counselors are independent contractors, many with their own established practices, or are members of small independent contractor provider groups. MHN will use only counselors/companies that have self certified as a small business concern. As mentioned earlier, each of these counselors are required to execute a PSTOA as part of the process of being added to the network. This PSTOA predisposes quick subcontracting of these counselors when selected for a given PFC Assignment as all non-Assignment specific terms and conditions have already been agreed to. Thus, when a given Assignment is accepted by a counselor, only the details of that particular Assignment need be included in the Counselor Task Order (CTO). As Assignment requirements are identified under the MFLC Program, MHN will receive a Counselor Request Form (CRF) from MFLC Business Operations, detailing the particulars of the given Assignment, e.g., location, assignment duration and location, specialized qualification requirements (e.g., prior experience with being the first PFC at a new location). An interested counselor possessing any stipulated specialized attributes/experience and, whenever possible, who is locally located to the assignment location, will be selected and offered a CTO. Assignment opportunities will be rotated throughout the Network to afford all qualified counselors an opportunity of participating in the MFLC Program.

MHN has a rigorous program for directing, coordinating, and integrating the efforts of all personnel on the MFLC Program. Our First-Tier subcontractor's role on the program is to provide full-time PFC counselors in support of JFSAP program. The subcontract to be held by (b) (4) will be contractually administered by MHN's Subcontractor Manager who will ensure full and timely compliance with all applicable subcontract terms and conditions. Operationally, the fulltime JFSAP counselors provided by (b) (4) will be directed, coordinated, and integrated using the same methods and means as MHN employs with our independent PFC network counselors. MHN's combined PFC network and First-Tier subcontractor will be managed as follows:

- Field Operations Management. Actual counseling service performance of (b) (4) fulltime JFSAP counselors and MHN's independent PFC network subcontractor counselors will be managed through MHN's Field Operations organization, which ensures that services are timely and successfully delivered according to assignment requirements. Counseling Supervisors provide direction, coordination, and integration of efforts for counselors on the ground through weekly telephone conferences, review of daily Activity Form completion, and availability 24x7x365 to address issues or support Duty to Warn (DTW) resolution per established procedures
- MFLC Fulfillment System (MFS). (b) (4)

- Reporting. (b) (4) Subcontractor Program Manager will be responsible for documenting and reporting recruiting and hiring actions for all open counselor positions through the portal technology on a weekly basis. Using standard reporting conventions agreed to by both MHN and (b) (4) MHN's program management team will have a near-real-time view into recruiting and retention performance. Statistics from this shared management report, in turn, will feed the MHN Team

Performance Management Report, the Executive Dashboard, Monthly Utilization Reports, and Monthly Contract & Financial Status Report CDRL deliverables

- Reviews. MHN has established a set of program management reviews, which will include all subcontractor program performance information. These reviews include the Performance Management Review (PMR) (monitor metrics across key performance indicators, including subcontractor performance), Subcontractor Performance Review (presentation by subcontractors' of preceding months performance including trends and open issues, and discussion of any corrective action plans (CAPs) invoking subcontractor performance), and the Subcontractor Management Review (a quarterly meeting with upper management to assess overall subcontractor performance)
- Quality. We understand subcontractor quality management and oversight is a critical element to ensure the overall organizational delivery of quality. MHN has selected First-Tier subcontractor whose approach to quality mirrors our own. The resulting subcontract will incorporate specific quality standards of service delivery against which we can monitor performance. We'll accomplish this by using the MHN Quality Specification which will guide (b) (4) in the development of their QCPs. They will be required to submit written Subcontractor QCPs that fully meet all requirements of our quality specifications and which will require approval and acceptance before the start of service delivery. In addition, the proposed MHN Team QASP integrates prime and subcontractor performance for comprehensive and consistent government quality surveillance activities
- Security. MHN is extremely qualified and experienced in effectively addressing the unique requirements inherent in higher-profile and challenging assignments, such as those associated with work in classified environments, or those in new locations such as the Horn of Africa. Through our Security department MHN has secured a Facilities Clearance (FCL) granted by the U.S. Defense Security Service (DSS). Our FCL will afford us the ability to secure access to the DSS Joint Personnel Adjudication System (JPAS), which allows for expedient online registration, processing, and final adjudication tracking of all subcontractors requiring a National Security Clearance

Provider Network

The largest component of MHN's team comprises the MHN MFLC network of licensed and credentialed financial counselors which MHN has developed under the current MFLC contract, and which we'll continue to expand upon under the new MFLC Program. Unlike generic commercial networks, 100% of our counselors are immediately ready, willing, credentialed, qualified, and MFLC-trained to accept Rotational and On-Demand assignments with the MFLC Program. Not only have we fully vetted these counselor's credentials through our URAC-approved credentialing process to ensure they meet all program criteria, we have also completed their criminal history background checks (CHBCs), and interviewed them to determine their suitability for successfully assisting military families. All of our network counselors have already completed pre-assignment orientation and training regimen that combines Internet-based learning with hands-on applications. Our training plan maintains a 100% course completion rate prior to assignment, which requires a passing exam score, reinforced by field-tested aggressive communication, and a follow-up plan to ensure learning retention. MHN has also begun development of an OSD-approved new training program that is scheduled for release after contract award. The course is envisioned to cover General Orientation, Military Culture Sensitization, Duty to Warn, and Activity Forms. Once final approval of the course is received from OSD, the successful completion of this 3-hour training course will also be mandatory for counselors prior to assignment. All network counselors will use our MHN MFLC Portal to access required training and complete Activity Forms to record data on the field-based work.

Each network counselor will be assigned to a Counseling Supervisor responsible for overseeing PFC counseling services for the location to which they are assigned. Counseling Supervisors will perform consultant evaluations within two days of assignment completion. These evaluations assess performance such as the counselor’s ability to give presentations, build relationships with points of contact (POCs) and the military Command, work well with other counselors, understand and relate to issues facing Service Members, and work within and adapt to military culture and installation routines. These evaluations will become a permanent part of each counselor’s subcontract performance record and will be used in determining if a counselor is suitable to a specific assignment.

MHN will monitor the credentialed, licensed, and trained PFC network to ensure high quality, empathetic and appropriate support of military families. We will conduct 100% verification of all credentials during the initial application and re-credentialing phases. Further, prior to any counselor assignment, MHN will verify that licensure is current and in good standing and will remain current for the entire period of the assignment, prior to approving a counselor for an assignment. MHN’s credentialing program is routinely audited and approved to URAC and state regulatory requirements.

1.1.2.4 Decision Making (L.18, M.4)

As the prime contractor for the MFLC Program, MHN will assume full managerial responsibility and accountability for our performance and that of our subcontractors. The ultimate decision making authority will reside with the MHN PFC-MFLC Program Director, (b) (4). Within this construct, our First Tier Subcontractor will be required to manage the work, with their own managers and staff, within their area(s) of responsibility as defined in their teaming agreement and according to the overall MFLC Program management, staffing, and quality control plans.

1.1.2.5 Information Sharing (L.18)

MHN recognizes the importance of sharing information necessary to the successful delivery of services across all team members and counselors. To this end, we are committed to open and frequent communication among all subcontractors participating on the MFLC Program. We have established processes for information sharing including regularly scheduled management meetings, weekly supervisor calls, and the MHN MFLC Portal. (b) (4) will have named a Program Manager who will be dedicated to the MFLC Program as a key person. This manager will be a vital member of our management team and will participate in all management meetings and will be responsible for ensuring that important program information is shared with their consultants in a timely manner. Exhibit 1-5 provides an overview of key formal activities we will use to share information with our First-Tier and network subcontractor counselors.

Exhibit 1-5. Formal Information Sharing Activities

MHN’S technical architecture for the MFLC Program provides an online program portal available to all MHN program and program support personnel including all subcontractor counselors. The counselor and supervisor portal views provide near-real-time status and details of an PFC’s previous, current, and planned assignments, status of activity reporting, status of training due, travel details, to-do tasks including status of administrative matters such as time cards and invoicing, materials for current assignment, assignment opportunities, give-an-hour opportunities, and information feeds including days on location and urgent communications. In addition, the portal provides information on new training and presentations materials as they become available, information on additional, optional training opportunities as they become available, changes to military protocols and other information of interest to PFCs and their supervisors.

1.1.2.6 Problem Resolution (L.18, M.4)

Our PMR and Subcontractor Management Reviews, discussed in Section 1.1.2.3, will provide effective forums for early identification and resolution of issues. We will use these reviews to identify issues and develop mentoring and coaching strategies to provide subcontractors with the resources, processes, or tools needed to resolve issues and overcome problems before they affect performance. Should conflicts or problems with subcontractors occur, MHN will use the following steps to ensure the problem or conflict is resolved in a timely manner:

- For network counselors, the PFC’s Counseling Supervisor will contact the consultant to advise them of the performance concern and provide coaching and mentoring to help them resolve the issue. If after reasonable effort, the problem cannot be resolved, professional relations will be notified and the counselor will be removed from his or her assignment. For serious performance issues or violation of crucial Military protocols, the provider will be removed from our provider network
- For issues with Team Member Subcontractor, (b) (4), the problem or conflict will be escalated to the MFLC Program Director to identify the best resolution approach and marshal any additional resources needed to resolve the problem or conflict. If the problem or conflict cannot be resolved at this level, it will be escalated to the Program Executive for mediation. If they cannot be resolved at this level, the Program Executive will charge the Subcontracts Manager with preparing a formal letter to the subcontract manager describing the issues and remediation actions that need to be taken. We anticipate that most problems and conflicts will be resolved long before these formal notifications would need to be implemented. In the unlikely event that all informal and formal remediation approaches fail, MHN will remove the offending subcontractor from the program. The government will be informed of the problem and resolution efforts well before MHN takes this action

1.1.2.7 Performance Monitoring (L.18, M.4)

MHN will manage our First Tier subcontract with (b) (4) using subcontract which includes a specific scope of work, and applicable regulations, procedures and policies to which all (b) (4) and our subcontractor personnel must adhere. MHN has established standards of service, based on contract and company requirements, for all independent subcontractor counselors and our First Tier subcontractor.

(b) (4) is integral to MHN’s successful performance on the MFLC contract. (b) (4) and MHN will operate within the same line of communication: the operational supervisors from both (b) (4) and MHN will report up to MHN’s current JFSAP Manager and therefore, any performance issues will be resolved through the existing, proven chain of command. The JFSAP Manager will continue to provide leadership and delivery of oversight services with the management and supervisory staff as a whole (for both (b) (4) and MHN) across the entire JFSAP footprint. In this fashion, all JFSAPs remain a continuously dedicated and cohesive group of counselors for the Guard and Reserve components FRG leaders, unit commanders and RDCs in their states/territories. We have in place processes and procedures to continually monitor their efforts against established performance standards. Exhibit 1-6 shows MHN’s approach to monitoring (b) (4) subcontract performance. MHN will establish service level agreement (SLA) related to the specific PWS requirement filled by (b) (4) to ensure that the overall MHN Team meets contractual requirements and engenders the highest possible levels of customer satisfaction. This SLA will form a component (b) (4) subcontract. Our Integrated monthly and quarterly Performance Management Reviews provides oversight of key performance indicators of subcontractor and prime program operations. We will use our CAP process to monitor and resolve any performance issues and validate performance improvement.

Exhibit 1-6. MHN First-Tier Subcontractor Performance Management

MHN’s QA Manager will use the processes and procedures outlined in the Quality Control Plan (QCP) to monitor the quality of subcontractor, as well as MHN, efforts. This QCP is built to ensure we meet the requirements of the Government’s QASP, and, therefore, perform successfully on the contract.

1.1.2.8 Prior Relationship with Proposed Subcontractors (L.18)

Our existing PFC network, which will be leveraged by MHN under the new contract, is composed of (b) (4) independently contracted counselors many of whom MHN has had a long-established relationship. Many of these professional relationships extend back to the start of Personal Financial Counseling as part of the MFLC Program. Through an ongoing evaluation of the MFLC network participants and each counselor’s respective assignments, only the finest professionals will be allowed to continue to provide services under this important program. Counselors are licensed, trained, and uniquely experienced to satisfy the needs of military Service Members and their families. The type of issues faced by military members and their families are often unique and require help from counselors who have experience with such unique needs. Unlike other companies, whose lack of experience may lead them to perceive that the MFLC Program is just a matter of placing any given counselor on the ground, MHN fully appreciates the extreme challenges to placing the right counselor on the right assignment. Our substantial experience and relationship with our Network of subcontractor counselors allows MHN to readily identify particular attributes that must be possessed by a given counselor for a given assignment. Knowing which counselor has had direct experience as an embedded PFC, for example, the PFC in the 3rd BCT of the 1st Cavalry Division at Fort Hood is critical. These individuals work to establish that integral trust with the members of the respective unit, allowing them to easier facilitate discussions on credit repair and other such issues that can affect their security clearances for example, with handling a terrible loss of life incident in a recent In-theater deployment is critical. Or, having a counselor who has acted in an “embedded” or “dedicated” capacity with a given Army Recruiting Brigade, and has established a hard-earned level of trust from its members, cannot be accomplished without a legacy relationship between the contractor and the counselor. MHN and our network will bring this unique experience to the MFLC Program.

Our Team Member and First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), represents a new business relationship. MHN is extremely confident, however, their ability to provide outstanding support of the JFSAP program. Their very successful past performance on multiple government programs providing professional behavioral health professionals supports our confidence level.

MHN has an exceptional performance record under the existing MFLC contract of not only meeting, but far exceeding the established goals for subcontracting to SB, WOSB, and VOSB concerns. Our current MFLC contract goal for total small business participation of (b) (4) has been far surpassed; we have placed greater than (b) (4) of all subcontracted dollars with small business concerns. The vast majority of these small businesses are comprised of our MFLC network of counselors. Exhibit 1-7 shows the dollar and percentage goals and actual cumulative subcontractor performance values under our existing MFLC contract. The percentages are taken from our last required subcontracting report ended March 2011. In accordance with our established government-approved Contractor Purchasing System procedures, each and every subcontract and/or purchase order issued by MHN is conditioned upon receipt of a Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) that is completed by the respective counselor/subcontractor, or vendor. No subcontract or purchase order can be effectuated without MHN’s receipt of a subcontractor’s/vendor’s self certification of its business size. Entry of the subcontract/vendor transaction in our SAP purchase order system requires a valid vendor number, and by policy, procedure and process, a vendor number cannot be assigned without MHN first obtaining the requisite SBQ completed by the subcontractor or vendor. Thus, MHN’s reported performance against our small business goals, which is routinely reported to the government, is strictly based on documented purchasing transactions for which MHN has received the required certifications from our vendors and subcontractors as their business size. The SBQ is used for this purpose. Only companies representing their small business status as HUBZone small business concerns are required to obtain SBA certification of such status. Companies of all other small business size categories (e.g., small business, woman-owned business, veteran owned small business, service disabled small business, and small disadvantaged business) are allowed, per statute and regulation, to “self certify” as to their status. Thus, as allowed by Federal regulation, MHN relies upon a subcontractor’s/vendor’s self certification as to its business size.

Each and every MFLC Network counselor with whom MHN has subcontracted (issued a CTO), since the original MFLC Pilot program in 2004, to date under our existing MFLC contract, has self certified. And, based on a recent review of our purchase transactions, greater than 99% have self certified as a Small Business concern and/or other small business subcategory such as Woman-Owned, Veteran-Owned, etc. During March, 2012, MHN asked all subcontracted network counselors to provide recertification of their small business size status by completion of our Small Business Questionnaire. To date, we have received self certifications from the far majority of our network counselors. Of that total, only 2.3% self certified as Large Business or Non-Profit. The balance of 97.7% network counselors self certified as Small Business. Of those companies self certifying as a small business, the preponderance also certified under the following small business subcategories:

|---|-------|
| Small Disadvantaged Business Concern | 7.1% |
| Woman-Owned Small Business Concern | 34.0% |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business Concern | 21.6% |
| Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business Concern | 5.1% |

Note: Because companies may certify for multiple small business subcategories (e.g., small disadvantaged, woman-owned and veteran-owned), or may not further certify for any small business subcategories, the total of all small business subcategories may not sum to 100%.

Although MHN has had great success in meeting many of our small business goals under our existing MFLC contract (as depicted under Exhibit 1-7 below), we have been challenged in some small business categories. One such challenge, with the HUBZone goal, is founded in the nature of the population of our MFLC network membership. Our MFLC network is populated with counselors who are nearly all independent small business contractors (sole proprietorships, and a few small provider groups). Typically, this counselor population has historically provided their services to the commercial market place and, except for the MFLC contract, do not generally support federal government contracts/programs. As such, few, if any, of these independent practitioners find value in obtaining the required formal Small Business Administration (SBA) certification of their status as a HUBZone Small Business concern. Such SBA certification as a HUBZone concern brings these providers no perceived benefit in their relationship with the commercial market place. To address this single issue of insufficient HUBZone subcontractor counselors, MHN intends to offer assistance to the network to help them in identifying whether they meet the requirements for HUBZone eligibility. For those that do meet eligibility, MHN will offer to assist those counselors in preparing and processing their applications through the SBA in order to secure their SBA certification. We will educate these particular providers that securing an SBA HUBZone certification is advantageous under a federal government program such as MFLC, as it will allow MHN to specifically target an increased level of work to them once we are aware of their status. In so doing, we believe we will be successful in facilitating these small businesses in obtaining their SBA certification as a HUBZone small business. MHN will then be able to increase our HUBZone small business participation under the MFLC Program.

As a result of our teaming outreach efforts for this proposal, MHN has identified (b) (4), which is a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) concern) as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4) as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN's small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals. In light of their introduction to the MFLC Program, and the critical support they will be bringing by provision of substantive numbers of JFSAP counselors, MHN will be able to substantially improve our performance under the SDB goal category in the future MFLC contract.

Exhibit 1-7. Subcontractor Performance Values Under Current MFLC Contract.

1.1.4 Description of Work Small Businesses are Proposed to Perform (L.18)

MHN is committed to providing meaningful work to our small business partners and Team Member. The vast majority of subcontracting opportunities under the resulting MFLC contract will be in providing personal financial counseling services. The counseling services must be furnished by formally educated, credentialed, experienced, licensed, and trained counselors. Our identified First-Tier subcontractor and MFLC network provider subcontractors will fill vital roles in our successful execution of the MFLC PFC Program performing very valuable, challenging and rewarding work.

Our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), will be responsible for providing full-time counselors supporting the Guard and Reserve Components under JFSAP, in the Western Region and portions of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in one U.S. territory, Puerto Rico. These services constitute major/critical components of the MFLC Program and as such, (b) (4) is a formal Team Member and First-Tier Subcontractor. MHN will staff all other JFSAP positions not allocated to (b) (4). All other PFC subcontracted counseling services will be accomplished through the use of our established PFC network. Through this network, MHN will draw from a large and well-established, trained and vetted group of professional counselors to fill all other subcontracted counseling efforts. All of these counselors are independent contractors (typically sole proprietorships). MHN will utilize only counselors who have self certified as small business concerns. .

1.1.5 Subcontractors Performing Major/Critical Aspects of Requirements (L.18, M.4)

Providing face-to-face counseling services represents the most significant aspects of the MFLC contract. We recognize the importance of this work and have established a formal relationship with (b) (4) and our network of qualified counselors to fulfill these critical roles. MHN has teamed with (b) (4) to augment our corporate capabilities, past performance, and capacity to perform under the new MFLC contract with even greater scale, flexibility, diversity of talent and efficiencies than today. (b) (4) is a fully qualified Small Disadvantaged Business concern and will be responsible for providing full-time PFCs to support the Reserve Components under JFSAP, in the Western Region and parts of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in Puerto Rico.

MHN has an established, robust, MFLC network that is currently populated with over (b) (4) contracted counselors, of which (b) (4) possess the requisite additional experience and qualifications to perform PFC counseling. These counselors are independent contractors. 97.7% are self-certified small business concerns and will be providing financial counseling services.

2.0 Subfactor II: Small Business Goals (L.18, M.4)

MHN takes its commitment to small business participation seriously as evidenced by the percentage and type of work we have committed to small business concerns for the MFLC contract. We recognize that the government has established challenging goals for participation by various small business concern categories and also a goal for participation by an AbilityOne organization(s). As will be supported below, MHN has constructed a team, which will allow us to meet and/or exceed all established DoD goals for each of these categories.

2.1 Small Business Participation/Subcontracting Plan (L.18, M.4)

MHN operates under a Contractor Purchasing System, inclusive of its Small Business Subcontracting Program, that has been approved by DCMA. Our long-established Small Business Subcontracting Program is embraced by the highest levels of our organization and is in complete compliance with both the regulatory requirements detailed in the FAR and DFARS, and in the spirit of the Small Business Act. Our Program is supported by requisite policies, procedures, and processes.

MHN understands the necessity for, and is a strong proponent of, affording small businesses the maximum practicable opportunity to compete for subcontracting actions consistent with efficient contract performance. We commit to provide advice, assistance, and business counsel to these companies to help facilitate their success. Our efforts are extended to all categories of small businesses, including those identified as AbilityOne, SB, SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and HUBZone.

This Individual Contract Plan has been developed in accordance with the following Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) requirements listed in Exhibit 2-1.

2.2 Commitment/Understanding of MFLC Small Business Goals (L.18, M.4, J.6)

2.2.1 Method for Developing Subcontracting Goals (FAR 19.704 (a) (1) and (2))

We developed our subcontracting goals for this PFC Mission Execution Task area effort after careful consideration of the scope and volume of work described in the solicitation. We also considered our Program Management approach to supporting such work and identified associated subcontracting opportunities in the area of administrative support personnel services. Opportunities were also found in our proposed Other Direct Costs. The solicitation provides for the following broad areas of contract performance for the PFC Mission Execution Task area: PFC Rotational, On-Demand, Surge, Summer Programs, and Joint Family Support Assistance Program (JFSAP) counselors. Our proposed Subcontracting Plan will allow us to address the PWS components, and to additionally subcontract some components of our Program Management support staff and Other Direct Costs, as shown below in Exhibit 2-2.

Exhibit 2-2. Products and Services to be Subcontracted

MHN determined that all counseling services provide an opportunity for subcontracting across the spectrum of small business categories (i.e., SB, SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and HUBZone), all of which are represented within our long-standing professional MFLC network of independent PFC counselor subcontractors. MHN has also constructed a First Tier Team Member Subcontract with (b) (4). The combination of our MFLC network and our formal Team Member will not only ensure successful performance of the MFLC Program counseling services, it will also allow MHN to fully distribute all counseling work to our small business partners. Further, we have identified and allocated a number of administrative support personnel services to (b) (4), our AbilityOne partner. And, they will be our vendor for provision of counselor contact cards and name tags. Although not considered a critical or major subcontractor, (b) (4) support services represent an important and valuable component of the work effort.

Section M of the solicitation defines an Outstanding Rating for Subfactor II as follows: “Proposal exceeds DoD’s goals for any five small business concerns, including all of the following: AbilityOne agencies, Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Businesses, and Veteran Owned Small Businesses.” The available DoD Small Business Subcontracting categories depicted in Attachment 6 to the solicitation are: AbilityOne, Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB), Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB), Small Business (the cumulative total of all small business subcategories), Historically Underutilized Business Zone (HUBZone), and Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB). As shown in Exhibit 2-3, MHN’s goals exceed the criteria for an Outstanding Rating under Subfactor II, as we will exceed DoD’s goals in five categories in total, including the required AbilityOne, SDVOSB and VOSB goals. We will accomplish this through a combination of our existing MFLC network, our First Tier Subcontractor, (b) (4) and through a subcontract to our AbilityOne partner.

| (b) (4) | AbilityOne | 1.0% | (b) (4) | Exceed |
| (b) (4) | SDB | 5.0% | | Exceed |
| MFLC Network | SDVOSB | 3.0% | | Exceed |
| MFLC Network | VOSB | 3.0% | | Exceed |
| MFLC Network | Woman Owned | 5.0% | | Exceed |
| MFLC Network | HubZone | 3.0% | | Meet |
| Total All Small Business | Total All Small Business | 32.0% | | Exceed |

Exhibit 2-3. Small Business Goals

MHN’s realistic and supportable strategy for meeting and/or exceeding the Small Business Goals for the contract, shown in Exhibit 2-3 is demonstrated through multiple factors, including:

- Small Business. During March, 2012, MHN asked all network counselors to provide recertification of their small business size status by completion of our Small Business Questionnaire. To date, we have received self certifications from the far majority of our PFC network counselors. Of those that responded, 97.7% self certified as a Small Business. And, many of those also self certified as one or more small business subcategories, such as SDB, WOSB, VOSB, and SDVOSB, as follows: 7.1% SDB (including Woman-Owned SDB), 34.0% WOSB, 21.6% VOSB, and 5.1% SDVOSB. Only 2.3% self certified as Non-Profit or Large Business. It is MHN's intent to subcontract with only counselors who have self certified as a small business concern (including small business subcategories). Because the far preponderance of all subcontracting opportunities under the MFLC contract will be accommodated by subcontracting with our MFLC network small business counselors, MHN will far exceed the DoD Small Business participation goal of 32% of all subcontracted dollars.
- Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB). We have executed a formal Teaming Agreement with (b) (4) for providing fulltime MFLC counselors in support of the JFSAP program in the Western Region and portions of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in Puerto Rico. In addition to (b) (4), 7.1% of MHN's PFC network has self certified as SDBs. Thus, through the combination of a First Tier subcontract with (b) (4) and through effective distribution of counseling assignments to the SDBs within our network, MHN will exceed the SDB goal of 5% established by the Solicitation.
- Women Owned Small Business (WOSB), Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB), and Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business Concerns (SDVOSB). MHN will apply a proven and effective business model to subcontract nearly all counseling efforts to small business concerns via our MFLC network. These counselors will be providing services throughout CONUS and in all OCONUS locations. Based on the above cited recent self certifications by our MFLC network counselors, the percentage distribution of WOSB, VOSB and SDVOSB represented within our network will allow MHN sufficient opportunity to distribute counseling assignments in such a fashion as to exceed these DoD small business subcategory goals of 5% for WOSB and 3% for VOSB and SDVOSB businesses.
- AbilityOne. We have obtained a quotation from (b) (4) to provide two Administrative Coordinators in Irving, TX in support of MHN's Program Management function. Additionally, we anticipate acquiring certain of our other direct costs (counselor contact cards and name tags) through this company (b) (4) support is not considered by MHN to meet the definition of a "critical" or "major" subcontractor and MHN, therefore, has not entered into a formal Teaming Agreement (as envisioned by FAR Subpart 9.6) with them. However, they will be an important contributor program accomplishing very meaningful work. (b) (4) is a (b) (4) associated agency and recognized AbilityOne entity. It is identified and listed on (b) (4) website as an affiliated agency. Additionally, (b) (4) has self certified as an AbilityOne entity in its Central Contractor Registration (CCR) (DUNS (b) (4)). As an (b) (4) associated agency, (b) (4) is a fully qualified nonprofit agency for the blind as defined in section 8501(7) of the Title 41USC. As such, the work MHN intends to award to them is counted toward MHN's small business subcontracting goals, as provided by 10 U.S.C. 2410d(a). As a result, MHN will exceed the 1% goal for AbilityOne subcontracted work.
- HUBZone Business Concerns. In our recent call for recertification of their small business status, less than 1% of our counselors certified as a HUBZone small business concern. In order to qualify as SB HUBZone, concerns must receive a certification from the Small Business Administration (SBA). To address the issue of insufficient HUBZone subcontractor counselors, MHN intends to offer assistance to our network of counselors to help them in identifying whether they meet the requirements for HUBZone eligibility. For those that do meet eligibility, MHN will offer to assist those counselors in preparing and processing their applications through the SBA in order to secure their SBA certification. We will educate these particular providers that securing an SBA HUBZone certification is advantageous under a Federal Government program such as MFLC, as it will allow MHN to specifically target an increased level of work to them once we are aware of their status. We believe that once these particular providers understand this, they will be incentivized to work to secure their HUBZone certification from the SBA. In light of this, MHN has assumed as (b) (4) “stretch” goal, and will put forth our best efforts to meet the same.

MHN’s small business percentage goals shown above were calculated as a percentage of the proposed Total Available Subcontracted Dollars amount of (b) (4) inclusive of the Base and all Option Years for this FPR. The components of MHN’s estimate of Total Proposed Subcontracted Dollars are reflected below in Exhibit 2-4. Travel-related costs (airfare, lodging, per diem, tolls, car rental, gasoline, etc.) and insurance (Defense Base Act Workers Compensation). are not considered “subcontracted” costs and are not, therefore, included in the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars amount below)

Exhibit 2-4. Available Subcontracted Dollars

We developed our small business percentage and dollar goals for the PFC Mission Execution Task by analyzing each of the major components of the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars, i.e., Subcontracted Counseling Services, Administrative Personnel Support Services, Information Technology Support of Information Warehouse, and Other Direct Costs. With the exception of the Subcontracted Counseling Services component, all remaining estimated subcontracted dollar values are included directly into our calculation of our proposed small business category goals, as shown later below. The remaining, and largest component of subcontracted costs, i.e., the “Subcontracted Counseling Services” expenses, includes both our MFLC Network counselors, and a portion of the JFSAP counselors which are to be furnished by our First-Tier Subcontractor and Teaming Partner, (b) (4). The first twelve months Base Period contract amount included in our Price Proposal for MFLC Network counselors (independent subcontractor counselors) totals (b) (4), inclusive of Baseline, Augmented and Option quantities. An additional (b) (4) has been priced for the (b) (4) subcontract for provision of a portion of JFSAP counselors. The amount priced for (b) (4) is included in our later calculation of dollars to be subcontracted to Small Disadvantaged Business concerns, as (b) (4) fully so qualifies. For the MFLC Network Counselor dollar amount, we developed and assigned reasonable percentage goals across the various small business categories, and then derived the associated dollar values, as depicted in Exhibit 2-5, below. The “MHN

PFC Goals” were established based on consideration of those percentages derived from both our recent small business network survey and our past performance under the existing MFLC contract. The small business category dollar values derived below from our Network, are then included in the total small business category values for computation of our small business goals for this Proposal.

| PFC Network | Dollar Amount | MHN PFC Network Goals | Current Network |
|---------------------------------|---------------|-----------------------|-----------------|
| VOSB | $ | (b) (4) | (4) |
| SDVOSB | $ | | |
| Woman Owned | $ | | |
| HUBZone | $ | | |
| SDB | $ | | |
| Other SB | $ | | |
| Total Network Counselors | $ | | |

Exhibit 2-5. MFLC Network Small Business Distribution

Our established MFLC Network goals for Veteran Owned, Woman Owned, and Small Disadvantaged Business concerns are all fully supported by the percentages within our Network. The Other Small Business (SB) goal shown is simply the balance of subcontracted Network dollars that have been allocated under this Network analysis. In fact, the total value of (b) (4) represents the full MHN PFC Network small business goal. For Service Disabled Small Businesses, we used a goal of (b) (4) which is higher than the total percentage of our Network SDVOSBs. However, we believe that through aggressive outreach to our PFC network, we will be able to achieve this “stretch goal”. For the HUBZone Network goal, MHN has established a “stretch goal” of (b) (4) (which will translate into a (b) (4) overall subcontracting goal shown below when subcontracting dollars outside of our Network are considered). We recognize that this will be a challenge to reach, but as supported elsewhere in this Plan, we are confident that through assertive outreach and support efforts, we will be able to realize this goal under the resulting contract.

Having calculated the above small business category dollar amounts from our proposed PFC network subcontracted amount, we then used those amounts to calculate our total small business subcontracting goals for this Proposal as shown below:

| Business Category | MFLC Network | JFSAPs | Admin Services | ODCs | IW Support | Total | Goal % |
|----------------------|----------------|------------|----------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|
| VOSB | (b) (4) | (4) | (4) | (4) | (4) | (4) | (4) |

| Total | | | | | | | |

The reasonableness and achievability of each of the goals reflected in Exhibit 2-6 above for the various small business categories is supported below:

- AbilityOne. (b) (4) is an AbilityOne organization. The dollar amount estimated to be subcontracted to (b) (4) is based upon two separate components, i.e., administrative labor and other direct costs. The first component is the estimated value of the administrative support services personnel that (b) (4) will be providing in support of MHN. The proposal received by MHN from (b) (4), for the Base and all Option Periods purchase order for these administrative services, totaled (b) (4). The second component includes certain other direct costs included in MHN's Price Proposal, which MHN intends to purchase through (b) (4), as the need for the same arises under the resulting contract. These other direct costs include counselor contact cards and name tags required to support the MFLC Program, and equal (b) (4) for the Base and all Option Years contract term. These estimated other direct costs are included in MHN's (as opposed to (b) (4) proposed price, but will be purchased through (b) (4) once the requirements are definitized under the resulting MFLC contract. The total estimated value of the administrative support services and the other direct costs to be subcontracted to (b) (4) is estimated at (b) (4) or (b) (4) of the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars for the Base Period.
- Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB). (b) (4) is an (b) (4) and a qualified SDB. We have executed a formal Teaming Agreement with (b) (4) for providing fulltime MFLC counselors in support of the JFSAP program in the Western Region and portions of the Northeast Region of the U.S. and in all four U.S. territories. The Price Proposal received by MHN from (b) (4), for the Base and all Option Periods contract totaled (b) (4). Their Price Proposal is fully supported by the number of JFSAP counselors allocated under the formally executed Teaming Agreement between MHN and (b) (4), and will constitute the dollar value of their resulting subcontract. In addition to (b) (4), MHN has allocated (b) (4) of our proposed MFLC Network costs to SDBs, as shown in Exhibit 2-6. Thus, through the combination of a First Tier subcontract with (b) (4) and through effective distribution of counseling assignments to the SDBs within our network, MHN's goal of (b) (4) will far exceed the SDB goal of 5% established by the Solicitation.
- Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB). The (b) (4) goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is fully supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors.
- Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB). The (b) (4) goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is fully supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors.
- Women Owned Small Business (WOSB). The (b) (4) goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is fully supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors.

2.2.2 Goals Expressed in Percentages

|---|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| AbilityOne Program | 1% | (b) (4) |
| Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) | 5% | (b) (4) |
| Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) | 3% | (b) (4) |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business (VOSB) | 3% | (b) (4) |
| Woman-Owned Small Business (WOSB) | 5% | (b) (4) |
| Historically Underutilized Business Zone (HUBZone) | 3% | (b) (4) |
| Small Business (cumulative total of all small business) | 32% | (b) (4) |

Exhibit 2-7. MHN Meets or Exceeds the Government's Small Business Subcontracting Goals in All Categories

The dollar values supporting the calculation of the above percentage goals are depicted in

Please note that the percentage goals established for these individual small business categories (SDVOSB, VOSB Woman-Owned, etc.) will not sum to the "Small Business (cumulative total of all small business)" percentage reflected in the plan. This is due to the fact that a single small business concern may be counted toward multiple, individual goals. For example, a given company could qualify and self-certify as an SDB, Woman-Owned, and VOSB concern, and the subcontracted dollars/percentages associated with that concern will be counted in each of these example small business subcategories, in addition to being counted in the Small Business category. This approach to accounting for the various small business categories is in strict compliance with instructions provided by the Standard Form 294 (Subcontracting Report for Individual Contracts) and the Standard Form 295 (Summary Subcontract Report).

| Business Category | Dollar Amount | Percentage Goal |
|---|---------------|-----------------|
| AbilityOne | $ | (b) (4) |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | (b) (4) |
| Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | (b) (4) |
| Woman-Owned Small Business | $ | (b) (4) |
| HUB Zone Small Business | $ | (b) (4) |
| Small Disadvantaged Business | $ | (b) (4) |
| Other Small Business | $ | (b) (4) |
| TOTAL Small Business | $ | (b) (4) |
| Large Business | $ | (b) (4) |
| TOTAL SUBCONTRACTED | $ | (b) (4) |

2.3 How SB Participation Will Contribute to Overall Subcontracting Goals (L.18)

MHN will leverage its long-established collaboration with our MFLC network, and our new teaming relationship with our First Tier Team Member Subcontractor, (b) (4), to fully address the important counseling services required under the MFLC Program. These relationships all involve Small Business concerns which will completely contribute to MHN's subcontracting Goals. And, our AbilityOne vendor, (b) (4), will bring important administrative personnel to support our program management staff. MHN will also use (b) (4) to supply certain other direct cost items.

2.4 Specific Efforts to Ensure Contract Meets or Exceeds Proposed Goals (L.18)

MHN's ability to meet the various small business goals is fully addressed in Section 2.2.1 above. Each of the individual goals is supported by our First-Tier subcontractor, and through our demonstrated performance experience using our MFLC network, and through our identified AbilityOne company. To ensure that we meet our individual small business categories MHN will issue a subcontract to our Team Member, (b) (4), in the dollar amount included in our Proposal for the provision of a large component of JFSAP PFC counselors. Further, we'll utilize our MFLC network in the provision of all counseling services (excluding JFSAP counselors which will be provided directly by MHN and (b) (4)), thereby ensuring the use of our independent contractor counselors. To reach our AbilityOne goal, we will issue a purchase order to (b) (4) as already discussed, and in the amount of the quotation, and additional purchase orders for certain other direct costs required to support the MFLC Program. To address the issue of insufficient HUBZone subcontractor counselors, MHN intends to accomplish outreach efforts, via email, to our network of counselors to help them in identifying whether they meet the requirements for HUBZone eligibility. We will educate these particular providers that securing an SBA HUBZone certification is advantageous under a Federal Government program such as MFLC, as it will allow MHN to specifically target an increased level of work to them once we are aware of their status. For those that do meet eligibility, MHN will offer to assist those counselors in preparing and processing their applications through the SBA in order to secure their SBA certification. We will follow-up with those providers that do not initially respond to the outreach effort through additional emails. MHN's subcontract manager and MHN's Small Business Liaison Officer (SBLO) will provide individual assistance to such businesses demonstrating an interest. On a quarterly basis, MHN will review its small business performance against its established goals and identify any areas requiring improvement. If necessary, MHN will take aggressive action to ensure subcontracted work is brought up to the levels necessary to successfully meet our established goals.

2.5 Identification and Development of Potential Sources

MHN, leveraging Health Net Federal Service's established Subcontracts Program, maintains database Identification and Development of Potential Sources MHN, leveraging Health Net Federal Service's established Subcontracts Program, maintains database and source directories to identify small business concerns. We use listings from the following sources in the standard course of our business to the maximum practicable extent to ensure that small business concerns are identified:

This effort includes assistance in every reasonable manner to develop new, qualified small business concerns.

Exhibit 2-9. Representative MHN Small Business Outreach Efforts

2.6 Indirect Costs

The subcontracting goals identified in this section are derived from the direct costs MHN proposes to incur. Indirect costs are not included.

2.7 Administration of the Plan

As part of its inter-company arrangement with MHN, HNFS Government Contracts management oversees the Small business Program and has designated (b) (4) to be responsible for the overall management of the Small Business Program. She has been designated as the MHN Small Business Liaison Officer. (b) (4) reports to (b) (4), our Subcontractor Manager, who also reports directly to (b) (4), Director of Government Contracts. (b) (4) will work hand-in-hand with (b) (4) in the administration of this Subcontracting Plan.

As the MHN Small Business Liaison Officer, it is (b) (4) responsibility to ensure overall implementation of the program and maintain program performance data for periodic review by company senior management and Government representatives. She will also provide procedural guidance to ensure effective consideration of and participation by Small Business Interest (SBI) concerns in the award of subcontracts.

The Small Business Liaison Officer responsibilities include:

modifications with a value of $650,000 or more where the proposed effort offers subcontracting opportunities

- Issue policy memorandums and internal operating procedures relative to implementation requirements of Public Law 95-507, 99-661, 100-180, 106-554, and 105-135 and any and all other relevant public laws and applicable implementing regulations
- Conduct training of MHN personnel
- Provide assistance and counsel to SBI concerns and procurement team members regarding MHN procurement procedures with respect to such matters as bid preparation, quality requirements, schedule requirements, availability of progress payments and assistance with understanding and complying with contractual requirements
- Establish, monitor and control reporting for MHN management, procurement personnel, corporate personnel, and Government agencies. Insure timeliness and accuracy of all reports
- Compile and maintain a database of potential Small Business concerns to assist technical and procurement personnel in locating and contracting with such concerns
- Represent MHN with cognizant Government agencies including components of the DoD and the SBA, as well as state and local agencies, local Chambers of Commerce, national and regional purchasing councils, and other organizations
- Cooperate with and assist local SBA representatives with respect to periodic reviews and/or opportunity referrals
- Assure that SBI concerns are given consideration in make-or-buy decisions
- Participate in and/or sponsor programs that provide training and business related information to SBI concerns
- Attend trade association conferences and trade shows to further promote the business opportunities MHN can provide to SBI concerns
- Promote further outreach if goals are not being met
- Assist with recognizing technical and procurement personnel who have excelled in identifying and developing new SBI business opportunities and implementing the Small Business Subcontracting Plan

2.8 Equitable Opportunity

As an inter-company partner with MHN, the HNFS Vice President, Government Contracts, has issued several policies and procedures establishing directives to ensure the advocacy of the Small Business Program as it applies to both HNFS and MHN.

These include policies and procedures designed as directives to subcontract managers, purchasing agents, and buyers requiring compliance with corporate policy. MHN'S goal is to support SBI participation to the maximum extent practicable.

These directives prescribe requirements, including, but not limited to Procurement File Documentation, Supplier Business Questionnaires, and Sourcing and Selection Procurement Summaries.

In addition, and to ensure maximum SBI participation, “for each acquisition that has an anticipated dollar value exceeding (b) (4), MHN will make a good faith effort to include at least one SBI concern in the solicitation for proposal or request for quote.”

2.9 Subcontractor Flowdown Provisions

MHN includes the FAR clauses at 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns and 52.219-9, Small Business Subcontracting Plan in all subcontracts issued in support of MFLC and other federal agency contracts, except where not required by the terms of the affected clauses. With the inclusion of these flow down provisions, MHN will ensure that all subcontractors (except small business concerns) that receive subcontracts in excess of $650,000 ($1,500,000 for construction) to adopt a plan that complies with the requirements of the clause at 52.219-9.

2.10 Special Studies and Reports

MHN will cooperate in any study or survey as may be required.

- MHN will submit to the Contracting Officer semiannually and at contract completion the required periodic reports utilizing the Electronic Subcontracting Reporting System (eSRS). The reports will include:
 - Individual Subcontract Reports (ISR) (formerly Standard Form 294)
 - Summary Subcontract Report (SSR) (formerly Standard Form 295), including a breakout of subcontract awards, in whole dollars, to small disadvantaged business SBIs concerns by North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Industry Subsector at the close of each fiscal year
- MHN will ensure that our subcontractors agree to submit these reports, when appropriate
- MHN will provide our prime contract number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, prime contractor’s DUNS number, and the email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting reports, to all first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans so that it can be entered into the eSRS system. MHN will continue to furnish this information to any new first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans in the future
- MHN will ensure; by written correspondence (to include certification), that our subcontractors’ with subcontracting plans provide the prime contract number, our own DUNS number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, and email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting the reports, to our subcontractors with subcontracting plans

2.11 Records to be Maintained

MHN will maintain records to demonstrate that our Small Business Subcontracting Program policies and procedures have been implemented. Additionally, records will be maintained, to track actual subcontracted dollars as compared to planned subcontracted dollars with the goal of assuring compliance with the requirements of this plan.

Examples of other records that are maintained are:

- SBI source lists, guides and other data, which enable procurement personnel to identify, develop and provide bid opportunities to such concerns

- Records of efforts to locate, obtain, and utilize SBI sources through contacts with government agencies and industry organizations
- Records of all awards of $100,000 or more, indicating on each solicitation (1) whether SBI concerns were solicited and, if not, why not, and (2) if applicable, the reason why the award was not made to a SBI concern
- Records of outreach efforts to contact trade associations, business development organizations, participation in conferences and trade fairs, and Veteran service organizations to locate SBI concerns
- Records of internal guidance and encouragement provided to procurement staff through workshops, seminars, training, etc., and monitoring performance to evaluate compliance with the program's requirement
- Records supporting award data submitted by the offeror to the government, including name, address, and business size of each subcontractor

2.12 MHN Functions Consistent With Efficient Contract Performance

Consistent with efficient contract performance, the following functions are accomplished through our day-to-day administration of the plan:

- Assist and encourage the participation of all potential subcontractors and SBI concerns by arranging solicitation requirements to ensure the requirements are not needlessly restrictive. The time to respond to solicitations, the quantity of product required, the technical specifications, and the delivery requirements will be designed to accommodate the needs of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. All SBI concerns will be given an opportunity to compete over a period of time, as subcontracting opportunities become available. Guidance and counsel are given to SBI concerns if they are not the selected offeror, whether it is based on non-competitiveness, or for any other reason
- Provide adequate and timely consideration for SBI concerns during the “make-or-buy” decision process. The capabilities of the SBI concerns will be considered prior to finalizing the “make or buy” decision
- Provide timely payment of amounts due pursuant to the terms of their subcontract. Payment procedures are set forth in accordance with our standard “Payments” clause, which is incorporated into every subcontract
- Counsel and discuss potential subcontracting opportunities with representatives of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. This guidance is provided on a daily basis by the Company's procurement staff
- Confirm by using the Central Contractor Registration (CCR) database or by contacting the SBA any subcontractor representing themselves as a HUBZone small business concern
- Provide notice to subcontractors concerning penalties and remedies they may incur as a result of misrepresenting their business classification/size for the purpose of obtaining a subcontract that is to be included as part or all of a goal contained in the MHN contracting plan
- Prior to contract award, inform in writing any unsuccessful small business concern the name and location of the successful offeror

2.13 Description of Good Faith Effort

MHN's ability to meet the Small Business goals contained in this Plan are fully achievable as supported by the information above. However, we will nevertheless continue our efforts to expand small business participation in all areas that offer such potential. As opportunities arise under any resulting contract that were not identified at the time of submission of our proposal MHN will continue to reach to our small business partners to satisfy those requirements whenever reasonable and supportable. Further, MHN will continue to expand our MFLC network with qualified counselors who are SDVOSB and VOSB. And, we will continue to urge our small business counselors, where applicable, to seek out Small Business Administration certification of their HUBZone business classification.

In addition, we have met one-on-one with (b) (4), Senior Program Manager, Prime Contractor Programs, of the National Institute of the Severely Handicapped, to explore other possible AbilityOne organizations with which MHN may later subcontract should opportunities arise that were not envisioned during the preparation of this proposal. We will continue to work with Pride Industries (an AbilityOne organization) with which we have an ongoing relationship to identify possible subcontracting opportunities, perhaps in the areas of records retention, reproduction services, materials support, etc. should such requirements materialize under the resulting MFLC contract. MHN is committed to further developing and expanding our small business/AbilityOne partners.

Attachment B – Quality Assurance Surveillance Plan (L.18)

Purpose

This Quality Assurance Surveillance Plan (QASP) provides a systematic method to evaluate performance for the Military and Family Life Counseling (MFLC) contract. This QASP explains:

- What will be monitored
- How monitoring will take place
- Who will conduct the monitoring
- How monitoring efforts and results will be documented.

This QASP does not detail how the contractor accomplishes the work. Rather, the QASP is created with the premise that the contractor is responsible for management and quality control actions to meet the terms of the contract. It is the Government's responsibility to be objective, fair, and consistent in evaluating performance. This QASP describes how the Government will evaluate the performance of the contractor (b) (4)

Additional time may be required should the Government determine that corrective action or further inspection is needed.

Government Roles and Responsibilities

The following personnel shall oversee and coordinate surveillance activities.

Contracting Officer (CO)

The CO shall ensure performance of all necessary actions for effective contracting, ensure compliance with the contract terms, and shall safeguard the interests of the United States in the contractual relationship. The CO shall also assure that the contractor receives impartial, fair, and equitable treatment under this contract. The CO is ultimately responsible for the final determination of the adequacy of the contractor's performance.

Assigned CO:

Organization or Agency: Department of Defense (DoD), Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD)

Contracting Officer's Technical Representative (COTR)

The COTR is responsible for technical administration of the contract and shall assure proper Government surveillance of the contractor's performance. The COTR shall keep a quality assurance file. The COTR is not empowered to make any contractual commitments or to authorize any contractual changes on the Government's behalf.

Assigned COTR:

Contractor Representatives

The following employees of the contractor serve as the contractor's program manager for this contract.

Program Director: (b) (4)

Performance Standards

Performance standards define desired services. The Government performs surveillance to determine if the contractor exceeds, meets, or does not meet these standards.

The Government shall use these standards to determine contractor performance and shall compare contractor performance to the Acceptable Quality Level (AQL).

Quality Assurance Surveillance Plan

The proposed QASP includes those metrics that represent to the Government whether we have fully met our contractual requirements. These measures are the result of many internal monitoring and quality control systems we have in place to ensure we meet our obligations. The MHN internal leadership committee tasked with monitoring those functions is the Performance Management Review Committee (PMRC). To learn more about the PMRC and how the internal measures are monitored and risk managed see Section 3.2.2 and Volume V, Exhibit 5-3.

Documenting performance

Acceptable Performance

The Government shall document positive performance. Any report may become a part of the supporting documentation for any contractual action.

Unacceptable performance

When unacceptable performance occurs, the COTR shall inform the contractor. This will normally be in writing unless circumstances necessitate verbal communication. In all cases, the COTR shall document the discussion and place it in the COTR file.

When the COTR determines formal written communication is required, the COTR shall prepare a Contract Discrepancy Report (CDR), and present it to the contractor's program manager.

The contractor shall acknowledge receipt of the CDR in writing. The CDR will specify if the contractor is required to prepare a CAP to document how the contractor shall correct the unacceptable performance and avoid a recurrence. The CDR will also state how long after receipt the contractor has to present this corrective action plan to the COTR. The Government shall review the contractor's corrective action plan to determine acceptability.

Any CDRs may become a part of the supporting documentation for any contractual action deemed necessary by the CO.

Frequency of Measurement

a. During contract performance, the COTR will periodically analyze whether the negotiated frequency of surveillance is appropriate for the work being performed.

b. Frequency of Performance Assessment Meetings. The COTR shall meet with the contractor quarterly to assess performance and shall provide a written assessment.

Signature – Contractor Program Manager

Signature – Contracting Officer’s Technical Representative

Rating System

If the performance rating for any task in this QASP is not met, the MFLC Program will provide the CO documentation regarding the action taken to remedy the deficiency. If a rating of “Not Met” is under consideration, the CO will notify MHN MFLC Program Management by issuing a CDR and the rating will be held in a “pending status” during this period of communication. The CDR will state how long the contractor has to respond. MHN MFLC Program Management will provide a written acknowledgement of receipt of the CDR, including how the discrepancy will be addressed. We may also provide any mitigating factors or dispute the alleged discrepancy. The COTR will review the contractor’s response and issue any required corrective action.

Internal Metrics monitored by the MHNGS Performance Management Review Committee.

Although operating outside of the formal QASP in service of meeting contract requirements, the following measures are monitored in the monthly PMRC. Each measure indicates both the acceptable quality level and the levels that would trigger corrective action. For additional information about our PMRC process see Section 3.2.2.

Unless otherwise indicated by the context the singular of the word "contract" as used in this Agreement shall mean the plural term "contracts" whenever this Agreement shall become effective with respect to more than one contract between the Government and the Contractor. For the purpose of any additional procurement of supplies or services called for by any agreement supplemental to a contract between the Government and the Contractor, the term "contract" shall refer to such supplemental agreement.

Additionally, this Agreement will include the contracts already in existence between the Contractor and the Government before the Agreement date, as specified here:

The Guaranty Agreement is a continuing guaranty and shall remain in full force and effect until the later of (1) the performance in full of the guaranteed obligations, or under the guaranteed contracts. (2) the termination of all continuing obligations and commitments of the Contractor under the guaranteed contracts. In the case of termination of the continuing commitments of the Contractor on any guaranteed contract, the termination notices must be given in writing citing the affected contracts.

A separate written notice shall be given with respect to each contract that the Contracting Officer determines shall not be subject to the effect of this Agreement.
- d. In the event that all of the contracts covered by this Guaranty Agreement have been satisfactorily completed by the Contractor including all continuing commitment of the Contractor under the contracts, the Guarantor may request the cognizant Government Contracting Officer for this Guaranty Agreement to issue a written notice which states that this Guaranty Agreement is considered to have expired.

CHANGES TO SECTION J– SEE ATTACHMENT

1. Attachment J-11, DD254, is updated.
2. Attachment J-17, Key Personnel, is updated.
3. New columns are added to Attachment J-1, CLIN Funding, in order to provide better tracking and visibility of incremental funding per contract action. Incremental funding is provided as described:

BASE PERIOD TAB

MFLC CLIN 0001

- Incremental funding is allocated in the amount of (b) (4), for a Revised Contract Funding (as of Mod 0002) total of (b) (4).

MFLC CLIN 0002

- Incremental funding is allocated in the amount of (b) (4) for a Revised Contract Funding (as of Mod 0002) total of (b) (4).

MFLC CLIN 0003

- Incremental funding is allocated in the amount of (b) (4) a Revised Contract Funding (as of Mod 0002) total of (b) (4).

MFLC CLIN 0012

- Incremental funding is allocated in the amount of (b) (4) for a Revised Contract Funding (as of Mod 0002) total of (b) (4).
- Funding has been realigned to accommodate any travel increases due to the USMC Expansion, and the total price of this reimbursable travel CLIN is increased from $(b) (4) by (b) (4) to (b) (4).

MFLC CLIN 0014

- This is a newly added CLIN that compiles the total funded value of MFLC CLINs 0001AA, 0002AA, 0003AA, 0003EAA, 0004AA, 0007AA, and 0009AA. The purpose of this addition is to create a singular CLIN for the billing purposes of those variable labor hour program management CLINs listed herein, and the total of (b) (4) will serve as the ceiling. Of this amount, (b) (4) is effectuated by Modification 0002.

CYB CLIN 0001

- Incremental funding is allocated in the amount of (b) (4) for a Revised Contract Funding (as of Mod 0002) total of (b) (4).

CYB CLIN 0002

- Incremental funding is allocated in the amount of (b) (4) for a Revised Contract Funding (as of Mod 0002) total of (b) (4)

CYB CLIN 0004AA

- This CLIN is decreased from (b) (4) by (b) (4) to (b) (4). The reason for decrease is that this CLIN should only include the variable cost of Program Management for CLIN 0004 of (b) (4) (Consistent with the contractor proposal). The amount of decrease of (b) (4) has been moved to CYB CLIN 0018 as fixed program management funding (Consistent with the contractor proposal).

CYB CLIN 0011

- Incremental funding is allocated in the amount of (b) (4) for a Revised Contract Funding (as of Mod 0002) total of (b) (4).

CYB CLIN 0012

- Incremental funding is allocated in the amount of (b) (4) for a Revised Contract Funding (as of Mod 0002) total of (b) (4)

CYB CLIN 0017

- Incremental funding is allocated in the amount of (b) (4) a Revised Contract Funding (as of Mod 0002) total of (b) (4)
- Funding has been realigned (descoped) to accommodate any General MFLC travel increases due to the USMC Expansion. The total price of this reimbursable travel CLIN is decreased from (b) (4) by (b) (4) to (b) (4).

CYB CLIN 0018

- This CLIN is increased from (b) (4) by (b) (4) to (b) (4). The reason for increase is that this CLIN should have included the fixed cost of Program Management that was previously included in CYB CLIN 0004AA. This increase is proportional to the amount reduced from that CLIN, and is consistent with the contractor proposal.

CYB CLIN 0019

- This is a newly added CLIN that compiles the total funded value of CYB CLINs 0001AA, 0002AA, 0004AA, 0007AA, 0009AA, 0011AA, 0012AA, and 0014AA. The purpose of this addition is to create a singular CLIN for the billing purposes of those variable labor hour program management CLINs listed herein, and the total of (b) (4) will serve as the ceiling. Of this amount, (b) (4) is incrementally funded by Modification 0002.

CONTRACT VALUE

The total value of this contract is unchanged and remains $1,279,245,513.00

TOTAL PRICE, BASELINE QUANTITY

The total price of the baseline quantity (Base Year) has increased from (b) (4) by (b) (4) $91,854,572.00. Although this appears to be an increase to Modification 0001, it is in fact not an increase as the amount of (b) (4) was erroneously reduced from the baseline quantity of Modification 0001, and is hereby corrected.

CONTRACT FUNDING

The total contract funding is increased from (b) (4) by $23,000,000.00 to $86,943,208.54.

SECTION B – SUPPLIES OR SERVICES AND PRICES/COSTS

B.1 Consideration and Payment

This contract is comprised of Firm-Fixed Price (FFP) and Labor Hour (LH) Contract Line Items (CLINs). At the conclusion of the Base Period (and any exercised option periods thereafter) the Government may request to convert the LH CLINs to FFP CLINs. This may be accomplished by increasing the baseline quantity (and correspondingly decreasing the baseline augmentation of counselors); the associated fixed price management cost may also increase, thereby reducing the LH portion of program management associated with the decrease of counselors for baseline augmentation.

The CLIN structure and funding information is located in Section J, Attachment 1, CLIN Structure. All CLINs for all METs are subject to the availability of funds, including FFP CLINs. The contractor shall not perform work in excess of the funded total per CLIN. The funded total for each individual CLIN is reflected in Section J, Attachment 1, and will be updated with each contract modification that involves quantities and/or funding. The contractor is responsible for notifying the Contracting Officer (CO) and Contracting Officer's Representative (COR) if work is requested or required that would exceed the available funding for any individual CLIN.

B.2 Other Direct Costs

B.3 Travel

All travel must be approved in advance and in writing by the COR, Program Manager, or CO, prior to travel. Once approved, the contractor shall be reimbursed for the actual costs of transportation, lodging, meals, and incidental expenses during the authorized travel in accordance with the current Federal Travel Regulations (FTR).

B.4 Overtime

In the event the Government determines overtime to be necessary, it shall be negotiated and approved in advance and in writing by the CO.

B.5 Holidays

The following is a list of Government holidays:

New Year's Day
Inauguration Day*
Martin Luther King Day
President's Day
Memorial Day
Independence Day
Labor Day
Columbus Day
Veterans Day
Thanksgiving Day
Christmas Day

SECTION C – DESCRIPTION AND SPECIFICATIONS

PERFORMANCE WORK STATEMENT

Mission Execution Tasks:

- 1. General Military & Family Life Counseling Program (MFLC)
- 2. Child and Youth Behavioral Program (CYB)
- 3. Personal Financial Counseling Program (PFC)

1.0 INTRODUCTION

On behalf of the U.S. Military Departments, including the National Guard and Reserve Components, the Department of Defense (DoD) requires a contractor(s) to provide general MFLC, CYB-MFLC, and PFC counseling services. These counseling services are intended to augment other DoD support services/programs available for active military as well as Guard and Reserve service members and their families. This non-medical counseling services are intended to provide private and confidential, short term, situational, problem-solving counseling services, which are targeted to ensure that personal and family issues of military service members do not detract from military operational readiness. These services also serve to strengthen the confidence and increase the competencies of military service members and their families in dealing with the stressors of military life. The counseling services will be provided world-wide on an as needed basis for all military active duty as well as Guard and Reserve service members and their families.

The counseling services shall be delivered face-to-face using a “walk-around/coaching” approach, usually at or near participating duty stations, but also within the civilian communities. Typically, counselors will provide these services via a highly flexible 40 hour work week.

1.1 BACKGROUND

Due to unprecedented high levels of past and present deployments of U.S. military service members to locations such as Iraq, Afghanistan and other areas of world conflict, military members/families have experienced extreme stress. The stresses of military life have become increasingly complex, requiring a wide range of problem solving skills in areas such as: single parenting; child care; financial stability; spousal employment; fluctuating family income; frequent relocations; isolation from other extended family members, child education, and children coping with the absence of a parent. The DoD recognizes these difficulties and is committed to providing the necessary support.

Active participation in stress prevention and counseling programs by military service members and their families is highly encouraged by DoD. In order to satisfy this widely recognized and unmet need, DoD created the MFLC Program, facilitating private and confidential services outside the chain of command.

Other military family life issues of a medical nature requiring a medical diagnosis, including but not limited to those disorders found in the latest Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders – currently the Fourth Edition (DSM-IV, TR) - are not provided under the MFLC services. Issues of a medical nature will be referred to a Military Medical Treatment Facility (MTF), TRICARE or other civilian medical treatment facility.

CONTRACT NUMBER: D12PC00479
CONTRACTOR: MHN GOVERNMENT SERVICES, INC.

Situations encountered that involve domestic violence, child abuse, and duty to warn (harm to self or others,) are not provided for under the MFLC Program, and therefore, must be reported, as mandated, to the respective military (Reference Section J, Attachment 5), federal and state authorities.

2.0 SCOPE OF WORK

The contractor will assist the DoD in the following tasks: provide private and confidential non-medical, problem-solving, counseling services, in support of the MFLC Program on an as-needed basis, to support all active and Reserve component military service members and their families, including severely injured service members and their families. MFLC services are meant to augment, not replace, other existing DoD military support services or programs. The MFLC services will be provided by licensed or certified counselors. The counseling support will not be associated with any Military Medical Treatment Facility, mental health counseling service, TRICARE, or any other medical providers.

Counseling sessions (which may vary in duration from a few minutes to 2 hours) shall be provided on an as needed basis. Counseling is limited to defined problem areas that address situational “problems-in-living” – most conditions listed as V Codes in the DSM-IV, TR. V Code exceptions include those listed in the DSM IV, TR, “Problems related to Abuse and Neglect” (child physical abuse/neglect, physical abuse of an adult (domestic violence), and sexual abuse and assault. Counseling shall be non-medical, short-term, solution-focused, and is intended to address issues, which are amenable to brief intervention. For issues not amenable to intervention via brief/short term interaction, counseling shall be referred to behavioral health, TRICARE, or other providers of professional mental health services as appropriate.

Installations receiving counseling services are located throughout the Continental United States (CONUS), overseas (OCONUS), and are comprised of all military branches as well as National Guard and Reserve Components (Reference Section J, Attachment 8).

3.0 OBJECTIVE

To provide private, confidential non-medical and financial counseling/coaching program for service members and their families. The counseling support is intended to augment, but not replace, existing military/civilian support services or Service funded staff positions/programs. The counseling program should remain flexible to ensure services are provided when and where they are needed, and to service National Guard and Reserve Component service members federally activated in accordance with U.S.C. Title 10 as well as their families who often feel isolated and do not live near military installations. The counseling program will consist of an as needed, short-term, situational, problem-solving counseling service for service members and their families which addresses the stressors of military life. The counseling service will assist service members and their families in dealing with deployments, effects of war, relationships, crisis intervention, stress management, family issues, parent-child communications, family separations, reunions and reintegration due to deployments. This counseling service is an integral part of military and family support programs that are targeted to ensure personal and family issues do not detract from operational readiness; to strengthen individuals by assisting them in the problem-solving process and to increase individual and family member competencies and confidence.

6.0 SPECIFIC TASK REQUIREMENTS PER MISSION EXECUTION TASK

Counseling modalities include individual, family, couples, and groups. Military and family member counseling services are intended to be solution-focused, short term for defined problem areas amenable to brief intervention. Services are not delivered in the traditional manner of 50 minute sessions in an office setting, but rather vary in duration from a few minutes to 2 hours. Services are provided “just in time,” when and where they are needed using a “walk around/coaching” approach. Counselors go to where the people are instead of waiting for people to schedule an appointment to see them, but an appointment can be made if desired. For example, counselors may meet with family readiness groups; meet service members returning from deployments (including welcome events at respective airports), be available in reintegration orientations, meet with rear detachment commanders and other community agency staff upon request, brief commanders and leadership, and work with children and youth.

General MFLC counseling may also require MFLCs to provide services outside the gates of installations nearest to where families live and socialize. This may include placing counselors in housing areas and/or community agencies (Red Cross, Boys and Girls Clubs, YMCAs and others) frequented by families.

Counselors may also be assigned to solely support various levels of the command structure (i.e. Army brigades).

Counselors will rotate at locations world-wide. Duration of rotations shall be no less than one month and no longer than six months. The baseline requirements may fluctuate periodically for counseling services that vary in length of time. Counselors may be required individually or in teams.

Counselors should be easily identifiable and approachable, operate in a manner that maximizes accessibility, including availability on the installation common areas and family support centers. Sessions may vary in duration, depending on the circumstances of the situation, with some lasting from a few minutes to 2 hours.

General MFLC Counseling may assist service members and their families with issues including, but not limited to:

EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS AND PRESENTATIONS

Contractor shall develop (after OSD approval) or modify (provided by OSD as government furnished property) a variety of educational materials and presentations on specific subject areas herein including, but not limited to, deployment and reintegration, coping with separation, loss and grief, effects of deployment on children, communication, compassion fatigue/caring for the caregiver, and financial readiness/planning. The OSD Program Manager shall review/approve all materials prior to dissemination. These materials are also applicable to the child and youth behavioral mission execution task at PWS 6.2.

SCHEDULING AND LOGISTICS

The counselors shall establish a schedule that allows for regular contact with agency staff during office hours yet is flexible enough to be responsive to family needs after hours. Designated Service installation POCs will coordinate work schedule with counselors. Normal work schedule is a highly flexible 40 hours per week. Counselors should take into account the unique nature of work, which may require operating on extended hours. These periods may require hours of operation beyond normal hours in accordance with mission requirements, and may also include performance on Federal holidays. For example, a counselor may meet with a family group at 1800 hours and meet a returning plane on the tarmac at 0200 hours. Under these extended hours, start times may be adjusted to accommodate the workload. This reduction of work schedules will equal the time required to perform work during special operating hours.

Due to potential unforeseen circumstances attributable to the requirements solicited under this contract, the Government reserves the right to add, delete or modify clauses to facilitate specific conditions.

H.3 Conflict of Interest

It is the Department of the Interior's policy to avoid situations in the procurement process where, by virtue of work or services performed for DOI or DoD, or as the result of data acquired from DOI, DoD, or from industry, a particular company:

- a. Is given unfair competitive advantage over the companies in respect to future DOI or DoD business;
- b. Is placed in a position to affect Government actions under circumstances in which there is danger that the company's judgment may be biased; or
- c. Otherwise finds that a conflict exists between the performance of work or devices for Government in an impartial manner and the company's self-interest.

- d. The Contractor agrees that if an actual or potential organizational conflict of interest is discovered after award, the Contractor shall make a full disclosure in writing to the CO. This disclosure shall include a description of actions which the Contractor has taken or proposes to take to avoid or mitigate the actual or potential conflict.

PROTECTING "FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY" (FOUO) INFORMATION

1. GENERAL:

- a. The "For Official Use Only" (FOUO) marking is assigned to information at the time of its creation in a DoD User Agency. It is not authorized as a substitute for a security classification marking but is used on official government information that may be withheld from the public under exemptions 2 through 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).
- b. Other non-security markings, such as "Limited Official Use" and "Official Use Only" are used by non-DoD User Agencies for the same type of information and should be safeguarded and handled in accordance with instruction received from such agencies.
- c. Use of the above markings does not mean that the information cannot be released to the public under FOIA, only that it must be reviewed by the Government prior to its release to determine whether a significant and legitimate government purpose is served by withholding the information or portions of it.

2. MARKINGS:

- a. An unclassified document containing FOUO information will be marked "For Official Use Only" at the bottom of the front cover (if any), on the first page, on each page containing FOUO information, on the back page, and on the outside of the back cover (if any). No portion markings will be shown.
- b. Within a classified document, an individual page that contains both FOUO and classified information will be marked at the top and bottom with the highest security classification of information appearing on the page. If an individual portion contains FOUO information but no classified information, the portion will be marked, "FOUO."
- c. Any "For Official Use Only" information released to a contractor by a DoD User Agency is required to be marked with the following statement prior to transfer.

"This document contains information EXEMPT FROM MANDATORY DISCLOSURE UNDER THE FOIA. Exemptions apply."

- d. Removal of the "For Official Use Only" marking can only be accomplished by the originator or other competent authority. When the "For Official Use Only" status is terminated, all known holders will be notified to the extent practical.

3. DISSEMINATION: Contractors may disseminate "For Official Use Only" information to their employees and subcontractors who have a need for the information in connection with a classified contract. Contractors must ensure employees and subcontractors are aware of the special handling instructions detailed below.

4. STORAGE: During working hours, "For Official Use Only" information shall be placed in an out-of-sight location if the work area is accessible to persons who do not have a need for the information. During nonworking hours, the information shall be stored to preclude unauthorized access. Filing such material with other unclassified records in unlocked files or desks, is adequate when internal building security is provided during nonworking hours. When such internal security control is not exercised, locked buildings or rooms will provide adequate after- hours protection or the material can be stored in locked receptacles such as file cabinets, desks, or bookcases.

5. TRANSMISSION: "For Official Use Only" information may be sent via first-class mail or parcel post. Bulky shipments may be sent by fourth-class mail. DoD components, officials of DoD components, and authorized DoD contractors, consultants, and grantees send FOUO information to each other to conduct official DoD business. Tell recipients the status of such information, and send the material in a way that prevents unauthorized public disclosure. Make sure documents that transmit FOUO material call attention to any FOUO attachments. Normally, you may send FOUO records over facsimile equipment. To prevent unauthorized disclosure, consider attaching special cover sheets, the location of sending and receiving machines, and whether authorized personnel are around to receive FOUO information. FOUO information may be passed to officials in other departments and agencies of the executive and judicial branches to fulfill a government function. Mark the records "For Official Use Only" and tell the recipient the information is exempt from public disclosure under the FOIA and requires special handling.

1.0 INTRODUCTION

On behalf of the U.S. Military Departments, including the National Guard and Reserve Components, the Department of Defense (DoD) requires a contractor(s) to provide general MFLC, CYB-MFLC, and PFC counseling services. These counseling services are intended to augment other DoD support services/programs available for active military as well as Guard and Reserve service members and their families. This non-medical counseling services are intended to provide private and confidential, short term, situational, problem-solving counseling services, which are targeted to ensure that personal and family issues of military service members do not detract from military operational readiness. These services also serve to strengthen the confidence and increase the competencies of military service members and their families in dealing with the stressors of military life. The counseling services will be provided world-wide on an as needed basis for all military active duty as well as Guard and Reserve service members and their families.

The counseling services shall be delivered face-to-face using a “walk-around/coaching” approach, usually at or near participating duty stations, but also within the civilian communities. Typically, counselors will provide these services via a highly flexible 40 hour work week.

Due to unprecedented high levels of past and present deployments of U.S. military service members to locations such as Iraq, Afghanistan and other areas of world conflict, military members/families have experienced extreme stress. The stresses of military life have become increasingly complex, requiring a wide range of problem solving skills in areas such as: single parenting; child care; financial stability; spousal employment; fluctuating family income; frequent relocations; isolation from other extended family members, child education, and children coping with the absence of a parent. The DoD recognizes these difficulties and is committed to providing the necessary support.

Active participation in stress prevention and counseling programs by military service members and their families is highly encouraged by DoD. In order to satisfy this widely recognized and unmet need, DoD created the MFLC Program, facilitating private and confidential services outside the chain of command.

Other military family life issues of a medical nature requiring a medical diagnosis, including but not limited to disorders found in the latest (5th Edition) Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM 5) ~~Fourth (DSM-IV, TR)~~ are not provided under the MFLC services. Issues of a medical nature will be referred to a Military Medical Treatment Facility (MTF), TRICARE or other civilian medical treatment facility.

CONTRACT NUMBER: D12PC00479
CONTRACTOR: MHN GOVERNMENT SERVICES, INC.

V code indicators (Reference Section J-19) must be documented in the daily activity form immediately upon the conclusion of every contact. In the event the issue is not documented reflective of a V code, the accurate diagnostic indicator shall be identified, using the DSM 5, and the Participant shall be referred to the appropriate clinical support.

Non-medical counseling scope of care is limited to specific V codes (Reference Section J-19). Clinical mental health counseling, treatment and/or therapy, or substance abuse treatment is prohibited.

In addition, pre-marital counseling, or any other counseling typically provided by military chaplains, which addresses spiritual and religious values, marital roles, and family planning is prohibited from being performed under this contract.

Situations encountered that involve domestic violence, child abuse, and duty to warn (harm to self or others), are not provided for under the MFLC Program, and therefore, must be reported, as mandated, to the respective military (Reference Section J, Attachment 5), federal and state authorities.

In the event of an adverse incident, follow prescribed policies and procedures listed in Section J-20. The Contractor shall develop, maintain, and execute a process for notification to the Government MFLC Program Office (COR and Government Program Manager (PM)). In the event of any situation or incident that could potentially generate media or other attention to the MFLC Program (reference Section J-20), the contractor shall follow its process ensuring notification within 24 hours.

4. The contractor will adhere to existing written protocols for each type of service delivery.
5. For service continuity purposes, it is unacceptable to the Government if all personnel rotate simultaneously. The Government requires a seamless and transparent transition between the individual outgoing and incoming counselors. Counselors assigned to the CONUS will have a two day transition with the outgoing counselor. Counselors assigned to the OCONUS will have a three day transition with the outgoing counselor. During this transition, the outgoing counselor shall, at a minimum, convey pertinent data such as installation points of contact (POC) and procedures, critical issues, and status of the installation's current counseling needs.

Counseling modalities include individual, family, couples, and groups. Military and family member counseling services are intended to be solution-focused, short term for defined problem areas amenable to brief intervention. Services are not delivered in the traditional manner of 50 minute sessions in an office setting, but rather vary in duration from a few minutes to 2 hours. Services are provided "just in time," when and where they are needed using a "walk around/coaching" approach. Counselors go to where the people are instead of waiting for people to schedule an appointment to see them, but an appointment can be made if desired. For example, counselors may meet with family readiness groups; meet service members returning from deployments (including welcome events at respective airports), be available in reintegration orientations, meet with rear detachment commanders and other community agency staff upon request, brief commanders and leadership, and work with children and youth.

General MFLC counseling may also require MFLCs to provide services outside the gates of installations nearest to where families live and socialize. This may include placing counselors in housing areas and/or community agencies (Red Cross, Boys and Girls Clubs, YMCAs and others) frequented by families.

Counselors may also be assigned to solely support various levels of the command structure (i.e. Army brigades).

Counselors will rotate at locations world-wide. Duration of rotations shall be no less than one month and no longer than six months (one year for SOCOM/Embedded assignments). As described in Section 7.1 "Travel Management," the Government prefers and highly encourages maximizing the duration of each rotation (six months, or one year in the case of SOCOM/Embedded), as well as the overall quantity of longer duration rotations. In addition, the Contractor is required to staff rotations in accordance with each country's respective Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA). Consecutive six month rotations performed by the same provider is authorized and also highly encouraged. ~~The baseline requirements may fluctuate periodically for counseling services that vary in length of time.~~ Counselors may be required individually or in teams.

Counselors should be easily identifiable and approachable, operate in a manner that maximizes accessibility, including availability on the installation common areas and family support centers. Sessions may vary in duration, depending on the circumstances of the situation, with some lasting from a few minutes to 2 hours.

General MFLC Counseling may assist service members and their families with issues including, but not limited to:

EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS AND PRESENTATIONS

Contractor shall develop (after OSD approval) or modify (provided by OSD as government furnished property) a variety of educational materials and presentations on specific subject areas herein including, but not limited to, deployment and reintegration, coping with separation, loss and grief, effects of deployment on children, communication, compassion fatigue/caring for the caregiver, and financial readiness/planning. The OSD Program Manager shall review/approve all materials prior to dissemination. These materials are also applicable to the child and youth behavioral mission execution task at PWS 6.2.

SCHEDULING AND LOGISTICS

The counselors shall establish a schedule that allows for regular contact with agency staff during office hours yet is flexible enough to be responsive to family needs after hours. Designated Service installation POCs will coordinate work schedule with counselors. Normal work schedule is a highly flexible 40 hours per week. Situations and/or meetings, briefings and appointments may extend the daily work schedule that counselors must attend, as requested by the installation POC. Counselors' hours will be flexible to meet the needs of the organization and families which will include evenings and weekends as needed for meeting with families and overall outreach. Counselors should take into account the unique nature of work, which may require operating on extended hours. These periods may require hours of operation beyond normal hours in accordance with mission requirements, and may also include performance on Federal holidays. For example, a counselor may meet with a family group at 1800 hours and meet a returning plane on the tarmac at 0200 hours. Under these extended hours, start times may be adjusted to accommodate the workload. This reduction of work schedules will equal the time required to perform work during special operating hours.

6.2 MISSION EXECUTION TASK 2; CHILD AND YOUTH BEHAVIORAL PROGRAMS

OBJECTIVES

The Government's objective is to provide support to staff, parents, and with parental consent, children in military Child Development Centers (CDCs) located on or near the installations, Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) schools, local education agencies (LEA), Youth Centers, National Military Family Association (NMFA) Operation Purple Camps, and DoDEA Child and Youth Program (CYP) Summer Enrichment Programs which operate during the summer months to support summer school, camps, and summer child and youth programs DoD-wide. When providing counseling services to military children, counselors shall always remain in the line of sight of a child's parent, guardian, or an individual with purview over the child (such as a school Principal, YMCA Director, CDC Director, Teacher) who has successfully completed a background check. Support topics may include, but are not limited to, problem solving with staff about how to engage/intervene with children displaying behavioral difficulties, bullying, self-esteem, coping with deployment, peer relationships, managing anger, separation from a deployed parent, and divorce.

Consecutive six month rotations performed by the same provider is authorized and also highly encouraged. CYB School Rotations shall cover the entire academic year, which range from 9 to 12 months. This would include, providing briefings, presentations, as well as “walk-around/coaching” services throughout the installation. The baseline and expansion requirements may fluctuate periodically for counseling services that vary in length of time. Counselors may be required individually or in teams.

PROTECTING "FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY" (FOUO) INFORMATION

1. GENERAL:

- a. The "For Official Use Only" (FOUO) marking is assigned to information at the time of its creation in a DoD User Agency. It is not authorized as a substitute for a security classification marking but is used on official government information that may be withheld from the public under exemptions 2 through 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).
- b. Other non-security markings, such as "Limited Official Use" and "Official Use Only" are used by non-DoD User Agencies for the same type of information and should be safeguarded and handled in accordance with instruction received from such agencies.
- c. Use of the above markings does not mean that the information cannot be released to the public under FOIA, only that it must be reviewed by the Government prior to its release to determine whether a significant and legitimate government purpose is served by withholding the information or portions of it.

2. MARKINGS:

- a. An unclassified document containing FOUO information will be marked "For Official Use Only" at the bottom of the front cover (if any), on the first page, on each page containing FOUO information, on the back page, and on the outside of the back cover (if any). No portion markings will be shown.
- b. Within a classified document, an individual page that contains both FOUO and classified information will be marked at the top and bottom with the highest security classification of information appearing on the page. If an individual portion contains FOUO information but no classified information, the portion will be marked, "FOUO."
- c. Any "For Official Use Only" information released to a contractor by a DoD User Agency is required to be marked with the following statement prior to transfer.

- d. Removal of the "For Official Use Only" marking can only be accomplished by the originator or other competent authority. When the "For Official Use Only" status is terminated, all known holders will be notified to the extent practical.

3. DISSEMINATION: Contractors may disseminate "For Official Use Only" information to their employees and subcontractors who have a need for the information in connection with a classified contract. Contractors must ensure employees and subcontractors are aware of the special handling instructions detailed below.

4. STORAGE: During working hours, "For Official Use Only" information shall be placed in an out-of-sight location if the work area is accessible to persons who do not have a need for the information. During nonworking hours, the information shall be stored to preclude unauthorized access. Filing such material with other unclassified records in unlocked files or desks, is adequate when internal building security is provided during nonworking hours. When such internal security control is not exercised, locked buildings or rooms will provide adequate after- hours protection or the material can be stored in locked receptacles such as file cabinets, desks, or bookcases.

5. TRANSMISSION: "For Official Use Only" information may be sent via first-class mail or parcel post. Bulky shipments may be sent by fourth-class mail. DoD components, officials of DoD components, and authorized DoD contractors, consultants, and grantees send FOUO information to each other to conduct official DoD business. Tell recipients the status of such information, and send the material in a way that prevents unauthorized public disclosure. Make sure documents that transmit FOUO material call attention to any FOUO attachments. Normally, you may send FOUO records over facsimile equipment. To prevent unauthorized disclosure, consider attaching special cover sheets, the location of sending and receiving machines, and whether authorized personnel are around to receive FOUO information. FOUO information may be passed to officials in other departments and agencies of the executive and judicial branches to fulfill a government function. Mark the records "For Official Use Only" and tell the recipient the information is exempt from public disclosure under the FOIA and requires special handling.

6. DISPOSITION: When no longer needed, FOUO information must be shredded.

7. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE: Unauthorized disclosure of "For Official Use Only" information does not constitute a security violation but the releasing agency should be informed of any unauthorized disclosure. The unauthorized disclosure of FOUO information protected by the Privacy Act may result in criminal sanctions and disciplinary action may be taken against those responsible.

SECTION B – SUPPLIES OR SERVICES AND PRICES/COSTS

B.1 Consideration and Payment

This contract is comprised of Firm-Fixed Price (FFP) and Labor Hour (LH) Contract Line Items (CLINs). At the conclusion of the Base Period (and any exercised option periods thereafter) the Government may request to convert the LH CLINs to FFP CLINs. This may be accomplished by increasing the baseline quantity (and correspondingly decreasing the baseline augmentation of counselors); the associated fixed price management cost may also increase, thereby reducing the LH portion of program management associated with the decrease of counselors for baseline augmentation.

The CLIN structure and funding information is located in Section J, Attachment 1, CLIN Structure. All CLINs for all METs are subject to the availability of funds, including FFP CLINs. The contractor shall not perform work in excess of the funded total per CLIN. The funded total for each individual CLIN is reflected in Section J, Attachment 1, and will be updated with each contract modification that involves quantities and/or funding. The contractor is responsible for notifying the Contracting Officer (CO) and Contracting Officer's Representative (COR) if work is requested or required that would exceed the available funding for any individual CLIN.

Per Section C, Military Family Life Counselors (MFLCs), Child and Youth Behavioral (CYB) MFLCs, and Personal Financial Counselors (PFCs) may provide short term surge support for planned and unplanned events, military contingencies, emerging issues and/or disasters. If a planned event is cancelled, the contractor shall be allowed payment of all reasonable charges associated with event preparation if the notice of cancellation is received five days or less prior to the date of the event.

B.2 Other Direct Costs

B.3 Travel

All travel must be approved in advance and in writing by the COR, Program Manager, or CO, prior to travel. Once approved, the contractor shall be reimbursed for the actual costs of transportation, lodging, meals, and incidental expenses during the authorized travel in accordance with the current Federal Travel Regulations (FTR).

B.4 Overtime

In the event the Government determines overtime to be necessary, it shall be negotiated and approved in advance and in writing by the CO.

ENCLOSURE 3

PROCEDURES

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECKS

a. All criminal history background checks required by this instruction must be initiated, tracked and overseen by properly trained and vetted individuals who have been determined to be responsible for personnel security pursuant to Reference (g) or human resource functions pursuant to Volume 731 of Reference (e). Program managers, supervisors, and others not routinely performing personnel security and human resource functions are prohibited from managing the criminal history checks.

b. All employment applications completed by individuals subject to this instruction must comply with the requirements of section 13041(d) of Reference (c).

c. The DoD Component will ensure that only authorized investigative service providers are used.

d. When permitted by the host government, foreign government checks of individuals serving on DoD installations overseas must be requested directly by the employing Military Service or agency in accordance with Volume 1231 of Reference (e). As an alternative, DoD Components may request that overseas Military Service investigative elements obtain appropriate host-government checks and accept such checks if they are comparable to those required by section 13041 of Reference (c). Where it is not possible to obtain criminal history checks comparable to those required by section 13041 of Reference (c), foreign nationals will not be eligible for employment in child care services.

e. Individuals subject to criminal history background checks are:

(1) All personnel employed or performing duties in DoD Child and Youth or other sanctioned child care services program.

(2) Individuals providing in-home FCC.

(3) Personnel employed or performing duties in child and youth recreational and athletic programs (e.g., Morale, Welfare, and Recreation), including instructors and, when working in a facility when children and youth are present, custodial personnel.

(4) Individuals employed or performing duties in a Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) school (whether or not directly involved with teaching), including but not limited to teachers, administrators, other professional staff, aides, bus drivers, janitors, cafeteria workers, nurses, and attendants.

(5) Chaplains, chaplains' assistants, religious program specialists, and other individuals employed or performing child care services duties for children under 18 years of age on a DoD installation or as part of a military-sanctioned program.

(6) Foster and respite child care providers on a DoD installation, program, or as part of a military-sanctioned activity.

(7) Health and mental health care personnel, employed or performing child care services duties on a DoD installation, in a DoD sanctioned program, or as part of a military-sanctioned activity, including but not limited to physicians, dentists, nurse practitioners, clinical social workers, physical therapists, speech-language pathologists, clinical support staff (including residents), registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, nursing assistants, play therapists, and technicians. Healthcare providers participating in TRICARE will be governed by TRICARE policy..

(8) Individuals employed or performing child care duties in social services, residential care, rehabilitation programs, detention, and correctional services on a DoD installation, program, or as part of a military-sanctioned activity.

(9) Any other individuals reasonably expected to have regular contact with children on a DoD installation, in a DoD sanctioned program, or as part of a military-sanctioned activity, including specified volunteers and any person 18 years of age or older residing in an FCC, foster, or respite care home.

f. The DoD Components will also determine any other classes of positions subject to criminal history background checks, taking care to ensure that all individuals who have regular contact with children when providing child care services are investigated and the requirement must pertain to the class as a whole.

g. Individuals designated in non-specified volunteer positions must always be under direct LOSS in accordance with Enclosure 4.

2. TYPES OF BACKGROUND CHECKS. Procedures for conducting a background check on individuals in paragraphs 1.e.(1)-(9) of this enclosure differ based on the employment status of the individual. Military members are subject to the background check requirements of Reference (g) and this enclosure. The FBI criminal history background checks for all categories of individuals must be fingerprint-based and fingerprints must be captured using an FBI-approved system. State criminal history repository (SCHR) checks may require hardcopy fingerprint submissions. State checks must include the State child abuse and neglect repository and the State sex offender registry. The Component must request a check of the State child abuse and neglect repository and the State sex offender registry if they are not automatically checked as part of the standard SCHR check.

a. Criminal History Background Checks for DoD Civilian and Military Personnel Who Are Investigated at the NACI or a Higher Level Pursuant to DoD's Personnel Security Program

(1) DoD civilian and military personnel required by Reference (g) to be investigated according to the requirements of the NACI or a higher level investigation and who have regular contact with children under 18 years of age in DoD-sanctioned programs will be investigated and adjudicated in accordance with the provisions of Reference (g).

(2) These personnel will also be subject to the additional requirements of the Child Care National Agency Check and Inquiries (CNACI) and the criteria for presumptive and automatic disqualification as specified in section 3 of this enclosure.

b. Criminal History Background Checks for Civilian Employees (APF and NAF)

(1) In accordance with section 13041 of Reference (c) and Volumes 731 and 1403 of Reference (e), complete a CNACI, which includes an FBI criminal history background check conducted through the Criminal Justice Information Services Division of the FBI and SCHR checks through State repositories of all States that an employee or prospective employee lists as current and former residences on an employment application. Results of an advanced FBI fingerprint check must be provided, before completion of the full CNACI, to determine employment under LOSS.

(2) Individuals with a prior DoD affiliation must also complete an IRC, which includes an installation law enforcement check, drug and alcohol records check, and a check of the Family Advocacy Program (FAP) records for a minimum of 2 years before the date of the application.

c. Criminal History Background Checks for FCC Providers and Contractors

(1) In accordance with section 13041 of Reference (c), complete a CNACI, which includes an FBI criminal history background check conducted through the Criminal Justice Identification Services Division of the FBI and SCHR checks through State repositories of all States that a provider or contractor or prospective provider or contractor lists as current and former residences in an employment application. Results of an advanced FBI fingerprint check must be provided before completion of the full CNACI. Results for contractors may be used to determine employment under LOSS.

(2) Individuals with a prior DoD affiliation must also complete an IRC, including an installation law enforcement check, drug and alcohol records check, and a check of the FAP records for a minimum of 2 years before the date of the application.

d. Criminal History Background Checks for Others

(1) In accordance with section 13041 of Reference (c), only an FBI advanced fingerprint check is required for criminal history background checks for volunteers and persons 18 years of age or older residing in an FCC, foster, or respite care home.

(2) Individuals with a prior DoD affiliation must also complete an IRC to include: an installation law enforcement check, drug and alcohol records check, and a check of the FAP records for a minimum of 2 years before the date of the application.

e. Timely Completion. To ensure timely completion, the DoD Components will establish procedures to initiate or request criminal history background check results, follow up to ensure checks have been completed, and address situations where there is a delay in receiving results. In no event will an individual subject to this instruction be presumed to have a favorable background check merely because there has been a delay in receiving the results of the requisite background check. If no response from the State(s) is received within 60 days, determinations based upon the CNACI report may be made.

3. CRITERIA FOR DISQUALIFICATION BASED ON RESULTS OF CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECKS. The ultimate decision to determine how to use information obtained from the criminal history background checks in selection for positions involving the care, treatment, supervision, or education of children must incorporate a common sense decision based upon all known facts.

a. Evaluation Authority. Adverse information is evaluated by the DoD Component who is qualified at the appropriate level of command in interpreting criminal history background checks.

(1) All information of record both favorable and unfavorable will be assessed in terms of its relevance, recentness, and seriousness. Likewise, positive mitigating factors should be considered. Final suitability decisions will be made by that commander or designee.

(2) Criteria that will result in disqualification of an applicant require careful screening of the data. A disqualifying event may be the basis for a non-selection, withdrawal of a tentative offer of employment, ineligibility for facility access, removal from a contract, a suitability action under part 731 of Reference (d), a probationary termination, an adverse action, or other appropriate action.

b. Criteria for Automatic Disqualification. No person, regardless of circumstances, will be approved to provide child care services pursuant to this instruction if the background check discloses:

(1) That the individual has been convicted in either a civilian or military court (to include any general, special or summary court-martial conviction) or received non-judicial punishment (under Article 15 or chapter 47 of Title 10, U.S.C., also known and referred to in this instruction as “the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ)” (Reference (h)) for any of the following:

(a) A sexual offense.

(b) Any criminal offense involving a child victim.

(c) A felony drug offense.

(2) That the individual has been held to be negligent in a civil adjudication or administrative proceeding concerning the death or serious injury to a child or dependent person entrusted to the individual's care.

4. SUITABILITY AND FITNESS DETERMINATIONS FOR INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED WITH THE PROVISION OF CHILD CARE SERVICES. Suitability and fitness determinations for individuals subject to this instruction will be made in accordance with Volume 731, Volume 1231, and Volume 1403 of Reference (e), and part 1201 of Title 5, U.S.C. (Reference (i)), as appropriate. The following may be the basis for non-selection, withdrawal of a tentative offer of employment, ineligibility for facility access, removal from a contract, a suitability action under Reference (e), a probationary termination, an adverse action, or other appropriate action.

a. Criteria for Presumptive Disqualification. Officials charged with making determinations pursuant to this instruction must include in the record a written justification for any favorable determination made where background check findings include any of the following presumptively disqualifying information:

(1) A FAP record indicating that the individual met criteria for child abuse or neglect or civil adjudication that the individual committed child abuse or neglect.

(2) Evidence of an act or acts by the individual that tend to indicate poor judgment, unreliability, or untrustworthiness in providing child care services.

(3) Evidence or documentation of the individual's past or present dependency on or addiction to any controlled or psychoactive substances, narcotics, cannabis, or other dangerous drug without evidence of rehabilitation.

(4) A conviction, including any general, special, or summary court-martial conviction, or non-judicial punishment under Article 15 of the UCMJ for:

(a) A crime of violence committed against an adult.

(b) Illegal or improper use, possession, or addiction to any controlled or psychoactive substances, narcotics, cannabis, or other dangerous drug.

(5) A civil adjudication that terminated the individual's parental rights to his or her child, except in cases where the birth parent places his or her child for adoption.

b. Evaluation of Presumptively Disqualifying Information. The DoD Components will establish and oversee procedures for the evaluation of presumptively disqualifying information for all categories of individuals in section 2 of this enclosure. Evaluation of presumptively disqualifying information for APF and NAF personnel must be in accordance with Volume 731 and Volume 1403 of Reference (e), respectively.

c. Criteria for Disqualification Under LOSS. If an investigation of an individual who is currently working under LOSS subsequently results in an unfavorable determination, the DoD Components will take action to protect children by reassigning or removing the individual from employment, contract, or volunteer status.

d. Disputes and Appeals. The DoD Components will establish and oversee procedures for the communication of determinations and the appeal of unfavorable determinations for all categories of individuals in section 2 of this enclosure. The procedures for civilian personnel are subject to Volume 731 of Reference (e) for APF employees and Volume 1403 of Reference (e) for NAF employees.

5. REINVESTIGATION

a. All DoD civilian employees (both APF and NAF), contractors, military personnel, and any other individuals reasonably expected to have regular contact with children on a DoD installation, program, or as part of a military-sanctioned activity, including specified volunteers and any person 18 years of age or older residing in an FCC, foster, or respite care home, who continue to perform duties in the position for which their initial background check was conducted, must undergo a reinvestigation every 5 years. The reinvestigation must consist of the same check conducted for the initial investigation as outlined in section 2 of this enclosure.

b. All FCC providers and adults residing in an FCC home must undergo an annual reinvestigation utilizing the Special Agreement Check for childcare providers. The Special Agreement Check reinvestigation consists of an update to the initial investigation as outlined in section 2 of this enclosure.

c. If the reinvestigation results in an unfavorable determination, the DoD Components will take action to protect children by reassigning or removing the individual from employment, contract, or volunteer status.

d. If derogatory information surfaces within the 5 years before the reinvestigation, the DoD Component will take action to protect children by reassigning or suspending from having contact with children, any individual, contractor or volunteer until the case is resolved..

6. SELF-REPORTING

a. Individuals who have regular contact with children under 18 years of age in DoD-sanctioned programs who have a completed background check are required to immediately report subsequent automatic disqualification criteria under paragraph 3a of this enclosure and presumptive disqualification criteria under paragraphs 3b(1), (4), and (5) of this enclosure.

b. The DoD Components will establish procedures for:

(1) Informing individuals of the requirement to immediately report any incident or conviction that may invalidate their prior background check and make them ineligible to work or have contact with children.

(2) Responding to and evaluating reports made by such individuals, and taking appropriate action until the case has been resolved or closed.

ENCLOSURE 4

ELIGIBILITY TO PERFORM DUTIES UNDER LOSS

The DoD Components will establish Component-specific procedures, policies, and requirements, subject to the requirements of this enclosure, to permit applicants for whom a criminal history background check has been initiated but not yet completed, to perform duties under LOSS upon favorable findings of preliminary investigations.

a. No Presumption of Right. No individual will be permitted to perform duties under LOSS in a position subject to criminal history background check without authorizing policy or other written permission from a DoD Component head.

b. Preliminary Investigations Required. No individual will be permitted to perform duties under LOSS in a position subject to criminal history background check unless the following investigative elements have been reviewed and determined favorably:

(1) An IRC, including installation law enforcement records check, drug and alcohol records, and FAP records check for a minimum of 2 years before the date of the application if the individual has a preexisting DoD affiliation.

(2) Initial results from the advanced FBI fingerprint criminal history background check (not the full check)

c. Exception for Non-specified Volunteers. Due to the controlled, limited duration of an activity for these individuals, an advanced FBI fingerprint criminal history background check is not required. Non-specified volunteers will be permitted to perform duties and services under LOSS for the duration of the activity.

d. Supervisor Requirements. The supervisor must be a person who:

(1) Has undergone and successfully completed the required background check.

(2) Has complied, as required, with the periodic reinvestigation requirement for a recurring criminal history background check.

(3) Has not previously exhibited reckless disregard for an obligation to supervise an employee, contractor, or volunteer.

e. Video Surveillance. The use of video surveillance equipment to provide temporary oversight for individuals whose required background checks have been initiated but not completed is acceptable provided it is continuously monitored by an individual who has undergone and successfully completed all required background checks. This provision will meet the intent of a flexible and reasonable alternative for “direct sight supervision.”

f. Conspicuous Identification of Individuals Subject to LOSS. Individuals permitted to perform duties solely under LOSS must be conspicuously marked by means of distinctive clothing, badges, wristbands, or other visible and apparent markings. The purpose of such markings must be communicated to staff, customers, parents, and guardians by conspicuous posting or printed information.

g. Permissible Performance of Duties Without Supervision. Individuals otherwise required to perform duties only under LOSS may perform duties without supervision if:

- (1) Interaction with a child occurs in the presence of the child's parent or guardian;
- (2) Interaction with children is in a medical facility, subject to supervisory policies of the facility, and in the presence of a mandated reporter of child abuse; or
- (3) Interaction is necessary to prevent death or serious harm to the child, and supervision is impractical or unfeasible (e.g., response to a medical emergency, emergency evacuation of a child from a hazardous location).

contractor. Any individual, firm, corporation, partnership, association, or other legal non-Federal entity that enters into a contract directly with DoD or a DoD Component to furnish supplies, services, or both including construction. Foreign governments or representatives of foreign governments that are engaged in selling to DoD or a DoD Component are defense contractors when acting in that context. A subcontractor is any supplier, distributor, vendor, or firm that furnishes supplies or services to or for a prime contractor or another subcontractor.

covered position. Defined in Volume 731 of Reference (e).

criminal history background checks. A review of records, investigative reports, and other investigative elements to generate criminal history background findings to be used to make fitness or suitability determinations.

derogatory information. Information that may reasonably justify an unfavorable personnel suitability or fitness determination because of the nexus between the issue or conduct and the core duties of the position.

DoD affiliation. A prior or current association, relationship, or involvement with the DoD or any elements of DoD, including the Military Departments.

DoD-sanctioned programs. Any program, facility, or service funded or operated by the DoD, a Military Department or Service, or any agency, unit, or subdivision thereof. Examples include, but are not limited to, chapel programs, child development centers, family child care programs, medical treatment facilities, DoDEA schools, recreation and youth programs. These do not include programs operated by other State or federal government agencies or private organizations without the official sanction of a DoD entity.

employee. An individual, paid from funds appropriated by the Congress of the United States, or an individual employed by a NAF instrumentality as defined in accordance with section 2105(c) of Reference (i). Includes foreign nationals in accordance with Volume 1231 of Reference (e), Military Service members working during their off-duty hours, and non-status, non-continuing temporary positions with specified employment periods not to exceed 1 year such as summer hires, student interns, and seasonal hires.

FAP. Defined in DoDI 6400.01 (Reference (j)).

FAP records check. A review of FAP records maintained on an individual, including records maintained by the installation office and records in the Service Child and Spouse Abuse Central Registry in accordance with Reference (j). If the individual is the spouse or dependent of a Service member, this may entail review of records maintained on the sponsoring Service member. Installation and Service Central Registry checks are limited to identifying pending and met criteria incidents of maltreatment and do not include information related to incidents that did not meet criteria or any information contained in the clinical case record that is protected by section 1320d-6 or section 552a of Reference (i).

FBI criminal history background check. An FBI identification record – often referred to as a criminal history record or a “rapsheet” – is a listing of certain information taken from fingerprint submissions retained by the FBI in connection with arrests and, in some instances, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. The process of responding to an identification record request is generally known as a criminal history background check.

FCC. Defined in DoDI 6060.2 (Reference (k)).

FCC provider. Defined in Reference (k).

FCC adult family members. Any adult, 18 years of age or older, who resides in the home of an FCC provider for 30 or more consecutive days.

fitness. The reference to a person’s level of character and conduct determined necessary for an individual to perform work for, or on behalf of, a federal agency as an employee in the excepted service (other than in a position subject to suitability) or as a contractor employee.

fitness determination. A decision, based on review of criminal history background check findings, that an individual is fit to perform duties in a position subject to criminal history background check. Fitness determinations will be “favorable,” meaning that the individual is fit to perform the duties, or “unfavorable,” meaning that the individual is not.

foreign nationals. Individuals who are not citizens of the United States.

foster care providers. A voluntary or court-mandated program that provides 24-hour care and supportive services in a family home or group facility, within government-owned or -leased quarters, for children and youth who cannot be properly cared for by their own family.

healthcare personnel. Military, civilian, or contract staff involved in the delivery of healthcare services.

host-government check. A criminal history background check conducted on foreign nationals in accordance with U.S. and host country treaties or agreements.

interim suitability or fitness determination. Part of the pre-screening process in the identification and resolution of suitability or fitness issues, which occurs prior to the initiation of the required investigation. It involves the review of applications and other employment related documents. A favorable interim suitability or fitness determination is a status granted on a temporary basis, which permits individuals to work under LOSS after the return of the advance FBI fingerprint check, pending completion of full investigative requirements and a final suitability determination.

investigative elements. The records, reports, or other individual elements that comprise the whole of information collected during a criminal history background check and used to make a fitness or suitability determination.

IRC. A query of records maintained on an individual by programs and entities at the military installation where the individual lives, is assigned, or works, including military law enforcement and installation security records, drug and alcohol records, and FAP records for a minimum of 2 years before the date of the application.

LOSS. Continuous visual observation and supervision of an individual whose background check has not yet cleared, and has a favorable interim suitability or fitness determination, while engaged in child interactive duties, or in the presence of children in a DoD-sanctioned program or activity. The person providing supervision must have undergone a background check and received a final favorable suitability or fitness determination and be current on all periodic reinvestigations as required by this instruction.

met criteria. Reported incident of alleged maltreatment found to meet DoD incident determination criteria for child abuse or domestic abuse and entry into the Service FAP central registry of child abuse and domestic abuse reports.

position. An employee, contractor, provider, or volunteer role or function.

preliminary investigations. Those investigative elements of a criminal history background check, including those specified in Enclosure 4 of this instruction, which must be favorably completed and reviewed before an individual may be permitted to perform duties under LOSS.

providers. Individuals involved in child care services who have regular contact with children or may be alone with children in the performance of their duties. Includes FCC providers and individuals with overall management responsibility for child and youth programs.

regular contact with children. Recurring and more than incidental contact with or access to children in the performance of their duties on a DoD installation, program, or as part of a DoD-sanctioned activity.

reinvestigation. A criminal history background check conducted after the period of time prescribed by this instruction to ensure the individual remains eligible to provide child care services. Reinvestigation includes the same checks conducted for the initial investigation as outlined in section 2 of Enclosure 3.

respite care providers. Individuals who provide short-term care and supportive services in a family home or group facility within government-owned or -leased quarters.

SCHR. Checks of the SCHR may include the State child abuse and neglect repository and the State sex offender registry.

suitability determination. A decision that a person is or is not suitable for a covered position within the DoD.

volunteer. There are two types of volunteers:

specified volunteers. Individuals who could have extensive or frequent contact with children over a period of time. They include, but are not limited to, positions involving extensive interaction alone, extended travel, or overnight activities with children or youth. Coaches and long-term instructors are among those who fall in this category. Specified volunteers are designated by the DoD Component head. Background checks are required in accordance with paragraph 2d of Enclosure 3.

non-specified volunteers. Individuals who provide services that are shorter in duration than is required to perform a criminal history background check (e.g., one-day class trip, class party). Because non-specified volunteers do not receive the same level of background checks as youth program. Defined in DoDI 6060.4 (Reference (1)).

FOUO ADDENDUM

PROTECTING "FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY" (FOUO) INFORMATION

1. GENERAL:

- a. The "For Official Use Only" (FOUO) marking is assigned to information at the time of its creation in a DoD User Agency. It is not authorized as a substitute for a security classification marking but is used on official government information that may be withheld from the public under exemptions 2 through 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).
- b. Other non-security markings, such as "Limited Official Use" and "Official Use Only" are used by non-DoD User Agencies for the same type of information and should be safeguarded and handled in accordance with instruction received from such agencies.
- c. Use of the above markings does not mean that the information cannot be released to the public under FOIA, only that it must be reviewed by the Government prior to its release to determine whether a significant and legitimate government purpose is served by withholding the information or portions of it.

2. MARKINGS:

- a. An unclassified document containing FOUO information will be marked "For Official Use Only" at the bottom of the front cover (if any), on the first page, on each page containing FOUO information, on the back page, and on the outside of the back cover (if any). No portion markings will be shown.
- b. Within a classified document, an individual page that contains both FOUO and classified information will be marked at the top and bottom with the highest security classification of information appearing on the page. If an individual portion contains FOUO information but no classified information, the portion will be marked, "FOUO."
- c. Any "For Official Use Only" information released to a contractor by a DoD User Agency is required to be marked with the following statement prior to transfer.

"This document contains information EXEMPT FROM MANDATORY DISCLOSURE UNDER THE FOIA. Exemptions apply."

- d. Removal of the "For Official Use Only" marking can only be accomplished by the originator or other competent authority. When the "For Official Use Only" status is terminated, all known holders will be notified to the extent practical.

3. DISSEMINATION: Contractors may disseminate "For Official Use Only" information to their employees and subcontractors who have a need for the information in connection with a classified contract. Contractors must ensure employees and subcontractors are aware of the special handling instructions detailed below.

4. STORAGE: During working hours, "For Official Use Only" information shall be placed in an out-of-sight location if the work area is accessible to persons who do not have a need for the information. During nonworking hours, the information shall be stored to preclude unauthorized access. Filing such material with other unclassified records in unlocked files or desks, is adequate when internal building security is provided during nonworking hours. When such internal security control is not exercised, locked buildings or rooms will provide adequate after-hours protection or the material can be stored in locked receptacles such as file cabinets, desks, or bookcases.

5. TRANSMISSION: "For Official Use Only" information may be sent via first-class mail or parcel post. Bulky shipments may be sent by fourth-class mail. DoD components, officials of DoD components, and authorized DoD contractors, consultants, and grantees send FOUO information to each other to conduct official DoD business. Tell recipients the status of such information, and send the material in a way that prevents unauthorized public disclosure. Make sure documents that transmit FOUO material call attention to any FOUO attachments. Normally, you may send FOUO records over facsimile equipment. To prevent unauthorized disclosure, consider attaching special cover sheets, the location of sending and receiving machines, and whether authorized personnel are around to receive FOUO information. FOUO information may be passed to officials in other departments and agencies of the executive and judicial branches to fulfill a government function. Mark the records "For Official Use Only" and tell the recipient the information is exempt from public disclosure under the FOIA and requires special handling.

6. DISPOSITION: When no longer needed, FOUO information must be shredded.

7. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE: Unauthorized disclosure of "For Official Use Only" information does not constitute a security violation but the releasing agency should be informed of any unauthorized disclosure. The unauthorized disclosure of FOUO information protected by the Privacy Act may result in criminal sanctions and disciplinary action may be taken against those responsible.

Subcontracting Plan Revision 01

MHN Government Services, Inc. (MHNGS) is pleased to submit this Revision 01 to the Subcontracting Plan for the Military & Family Life Counseling (MFLC) Contract Number D12PC00479 (Contract). Our Subcontracting Plan, Volume II, is based upon the Maximum Quantity of all Full Time Equivalent (FTE) MFLCs and CYBs depicted in the government's CLIN structure provided under the Attachment J-1 of the Contract as of June 2015. This Subcontracting Plan revision takes into account the change in direction from the Government in terms of longer duration of assignments and more local counselors. MHNGS acknowledges that the actual quantity of FTEs, by MET, may well be substantially less than the Maximum Quantities. Based on actual FTEs, by MET, assigned to MHNGS, we will strive to achieve the various small business category goals established in this Subcontracting Plan.

Offeror's Corporate Relationship

MHNGS is the current MFLC Contractor under Prime Contract D12PC00479. MHNGS is focused on Federal Government contracts and providing family support programs for military personnel and their dependents. With more than 24 years of corporate experience and the only contractor for the MFLC Program, we are uniquely qualified to execute as the prime contractor for this program. Applying our extensive experience and lessons learned, we will manage all aspects of the scope of work, oversee daily operations, and provide infrastructure, tools, processes and procedures, technology systems, information warehouse, reporting, subcontract management, counselor network development and maintenance to include credentialing, quality assurance and control, and compliance.

As shown in the corporate relationship chart in Exhibit i-1 MHNGS is a subsidiary company under Health Net, Inc. (HNI). HNI provides traditional overhead and administrative services such as payroll and human resources to its subsidiary companies including MHNGS. As a Fortune 150 company, HNI is among the nation's largest publicly traded managed healthcare entities. The company's health plans and Government contracts subsidiaries provide health benefits to more than 6.7 million eligible individuals across the country through commercial group, individual, Medicare, Medicaid, MFLC, TRICARE, and Veterans Affairs programs.

Health Net Federal Services (HNFS) is also a subsidiary company under HNI. MHNGS will rely upon HNFS as an integral partner to provide, among other things, travel booking and travel cost management; accounting and financial controls; security and records retention and control; Government contracts/subcontracts administration; legal and Privacy Office. For convenience, this affiliate team of MHNGS and HNFS that were described in our proposal is referred to collectively as "MHN." However, the specific services provided by HNFS are limited to those described above and where expressly noted in the proposal. HNFS has an accurate and current Central Contractor Registration (CCR) and Online Representations and Certifications Application (ORCA) as a Federal Government contractor itself, and meets all requirements for contracting with the Federal Government. HNFS also holds current Federal contracts, including the TRICARE North contract.

HNI, as the ultimate parent of the Offeror, will guarantee that the Offeror performs its responsibilities under the contract.

VOLUME II: SUBCONTRACTING PLAN (FACTOR 4)

SECTION 1: MISSION EXECUTION TASK 3A – GENERAL MFLC SUPPORT (L.19, M.4)

1.0 Subfactor I: Subcontract Management (L.18, M.4)

This Volume II, Subcontracting Plan, was prepared in full compliance with all requirements of Sections L and M of RFP No. D11PS18854 and the Contract for the MFLC Program. Included herein please find full details on MHN subcontract management approach for the Contract, plus our proposed Small Business Subcontracting Plan that includes revised dollar and percentage goals we propose subcontracting across the various small business categories. Changes to our plan take into account the Government's request for longer duration of assignments and the need for more local counselors.

Volume IIA was constructed to comply with the Solicitation's requirements supporting the MFLC Mission Execution Task (MET), as detailed below:

- Section 1.0: Addresses Subcontract Management compliance
- Section 2.0: Addresses the Small Business Subcontracting Plan specifics.

In continuation of the ongoing practices under our existing Contract, MHN will utilize certain functions of our corporate affiliate, HNFS, to support the Contract. Specifically, within the context of this Subcontracting Plan, MHN will continue to utilize HNFS' Government Contracts Department to provide the requisite subcontract management, subcontract purchasing and subcontract oversight functions. This department, headed by the Vice President of Government Contracts, provides full contract and subcontract management services to both MHN and HNFS under our Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA) – approved Contractor Purchasing System. Reporting directly to the Vice President of Government Contracts is the Director of Government Contracts. The Director of Government Contracts (characterized as "Contract Administrator" for purposes of Key Personnel assigned to the Contract) has direct contract administration responsibility for MHN's Contract.

MHN's solution to subcontracting counselor services is comprised of two (2) separate approaches. First, in order to comply with recent and evolving Government requirements (including longer duration assignments and the need for more local counselors); we will recruit our pool of employed MFLC counselors from our robust provider network of independent behavioral health providers. Moreover, secondly, we will rely upon a major subcontractor, (b) (4) to provide counselors. This solution will ensure comprehensive, timely, and effective provision of important and necessary non-medical problem solving counseling services to our military Service Members and their families under the MFLC Program. In addition to subcontracting counseling services, MHN will also be subcontracting with an AbilityOne company, (b) (4), to provide administrative personnel in support of MHN's Program Management function. (b) (4) will be our vendor for counselor contact cards and nametags to be purchased for the program by MHN. Finally, we will be subcontracting to (b) (4) for continued information technology support services for our Information Warehouse. With the exception of (b) (4), a large business that operates under a corporate enterprise-wide service level agreement for the provision of certain information technology support services, MHN will be applying all our available subcontracting dollars to small business concerns.

MHN will continue to afford our small business network counselor partners with participation under the MFLC Program. Our long legacy of collaboration with our network of small business counselors provides MHN with excellent experience in managing, coordinating, and controlling the subcontracting activity inherent in placing counselors throughout the United States and around the world. The ability to subcontract timely, professional, face-to-face counseling in places such as the Horn of Africa, Europe, the Asian Pacific Rim, and U.S. territories is not easily mastered, nor maintained. Ensuring that counselors are in-place, when/where required, and addressing all possible logistical challenges requires a dedicated, knowledgeable, experienced group of professionals. These logistical challenges include, but are not necessarily limited to, for example:

- Accommodating legal considerations (international immigration and employment, labor, tax and business practices and regulations)
- Determining applicable visa requirements and processes
- Ensuring counselor's Theater-specific training
- Arranging travel and lodging
- Providing requisite technology for on-line activity reporting
- Coordinating often-changing conditions "on the ground"
- Replacing counselors as needed due to urgent personal or family issues.

MHN's MFLC Program management team has experienced all of these challenges and has developed efficient processes, procedures, systems, and technology responses that will allow us to continue to ensure that the counseling needs of our dedicated Service Members and their families are addressed in the best possible way under the MFLC Program. Our service-delivery model under the MFLC Program could not be accomplished without our network of small business partners and we are proud of the level of expertise, commitment, and MFLC-specific experience these counselors and small companies bring our team.

The specifics of how we select, integrate, manage, and communicate with our small business subcontractors, a description of their important work efforts, and how their work effort will contribute to MHN's ability to meet the government's goals for the various small business categories, are fully addressed in the following sections. (b) (4)

(b) (4) of the MFLC MET of the MFLC Program. In so doing, we will also meet or exceed the government's established small business goals in multiple small business categories. We will accomplish this through the continued use of our extensive MFLC network of independent small business counselor subcontractors, under a First-Tier subcontract with (b) (4) (an (b) (4) (b) (4) and Small Disadvantaged Business), and through the use of an AbilityOne company (b) (4). Effective utilization of our small business partners will be accomplished while ensuring their use is consistent with, quality of performance, and full compliance with all contract performance requirements.

The MFLC Team

MHN's truly exceptional team will ensure the provision of comprehensive, timely, and professional counseling services, while concurrently addressing the desire to afford our small business partners opportunities for maximum participation in the Program.

- First, and foremost, MHN will continue to leverage our in-place contracted behavioral health provider network of MFLC small business subcontractor counselors that have been providing, and continue to provide, excellent counseling services under our existing Contract. Nearly every counselor with whom MHN has subcontracted under our current Contract has self-certified as a small business concern as defined pursuant to 12CFR121, and over 50% are certified Woman-Owned Small Businesses. Additionally, many have further self-certified as Veteran-Owned Small Business, Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business, or Small Disadvantaged Business Concerns. We discuss this more at length, later in this volume.
- (b) (4) an (b) (4) as (b) (4) is considered by MHN to be a major and critical First-Tier subcontractor. They will be providing fulltime MFLC counselors. (b) (4) meets the requirements of an (b) (4), and a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) concern), as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN’s small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals.

By leveraging our existing MFLC network of independent counselor small business subcontractors (as discussed in more detail below), and through our established subcontract with (b) (4) MHN can offer and substantiate a subcontracting approach that will meet and/or exceed many of the small business goals established by the MFLC Program Solicitation. In addition, through our use of an AbilityOne company for the provision of administrative support personnel, and the provision of certain of our other direct costs, we will be able to meet/exceed the AbilityOne goal established by the Solicitation.

We believe the strength of our approach is to effectively manage our cross section of subcontractors under the MFLC Program, which offers the government substantive and verifiable benefits, which we highlight in Exhibit 1-1.

Exhibit 1-1. Subcontract Management Approach Strengths and Benefits

1.1 Subcontracting Plan Conforming to FAR Subpart 19.7 (L.18, M.4)

Please note that to respond to the specific Sections L and M compliance requirements, in a manner consistent with the order in which the same were required by the Solicitation, our responses to the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) 19.7 requirements will be found in several areas throughout this Volume II, as opposed to a stand-alone Small Business Subcontracting Plan. However, our Plan is nevertheless in full accord with the requirements of FAR, 19.7 and DFARS 215.304. Our Small Business Subcontracting Plan in Section 2 provides a comprehensive compliance cross reference for ease in evaluating our Plan for compliance with each of the stipulated requirements detailed in FAR 19.704.

MHN's Approved Purchasing System and Subcontracting Program. MHN enjoys the benefits of a Contractor Purchasing System, inclusive of its Small Business Subcontracting Program, that has been approved by the DCMA. Our long-established Small Business Subcontracting Program is embraced by the highest levels of our organization and is in complete compliance with both the regulatory requirements detailed in the FAR and in the spirit of the Small Business Act. Requisite policies, procedures, and processes support our Program. The approved Small Business Program has, achieved multiple “Outstanding” Ratings and a “Highly Successful” Rating, from the DCMA for its Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) and Woman-owned Small Business (WOSB) concerns.

MHN understands the necessity for, and has always been a strong proponent of, affording small businesses the maximum practicable opportunity to compete for subcontracting actions consistent with efficient contract performance. We commit to providing advice, assistance, and business counsel to these companies to help facilitate their success. Our efforts are extended to all categories of small businesses, including those identified as Small Business (SB), SDB, WOSB, Veteran-owned Small Business (VOSB), Service-disabled Veteran-owned Small Business (SDVOSB), and historically underutilized business zone (HUBZone).

We also fully understand the Department of Defense's (DoD) Subcontracting Program and the associated regulatory foundation for the same, such as shown below:

- Section 8(d) Small Business Act – 15 USC 637(d)
- Section 15(g) Small Business Act – 15 USC 644(g)
- FAR 19.7/DFARS 219.7 Small Business Subcontracting Program
- FAR 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns
- FAR 52.219-9, Subcontracting Plan

1.1.1 Subcontract Management Processes (L.18, M.4)

Many of the counseling services under the MFLC Program will be accommodated through two (2) separate, and well established, subcontracting approaches. (b) (4) has been issued an individual subcontract that specifically identifies the type, quantity, and location of counselors, structured under separate, fixed priced Contract Line Item Numbers (CLINs) which will accommodate the Contract's CLIN structure. (b) (4) and MHN will operate within parallel lines of communication: the operational supervisors from both (b) (4) and MHN will be subject to subcontract oversight or report up to MHN's current Manager, respectively, and therefore any performance issues will be resolved through the existing, proven chain of command.

MHN will also subcontract with counselors from our MFLC provider network of independent counselor subcontractors using its well-established approach of issuing individual Counselor Task Orders (CTO) under executed Provider Services Task Order Agreements (PSTOA). Every counselor subcontractor must execute a PSTOA as a condition of joining the MFLC network. The PSTOA establishes an umbrella subcontract arrangement with overarching terms and conditions and under which individual CTOs can be quickly issued to address Rotational, On-Demand, and Surge requirements as they materialize under the Contract. This approach has works extremely well under the Contract and has allowed for clear cost and performance accountability for each CTO and its associated assignment.

MHN is uniquely qualified in managing the challenges peculiar to provision of subcontracted counselors around the world, under the MFLC Program. We have managed the existing MFLC Program since its pilot phase in 2004 and through its unprecedented growth under the current Contract. As the prime contractor, MHN takes full responsibility to manage all program activities, including all subcontractors, delivering seamless, high quality services to the Government. MHN establishes and manages program expectations and standards of performance for all MFLC Program Management structure members through detailed procedures and agreements tailored to the needs of the MFLC Program and agreed upon by all involved principals before initiation of any program work. These procedures and agreements establish objective subcontract performance standards in all areas relevant to service delivery. MHN's MFLC Program Director and Contract Administrator will implement (develop/approve where necessary) all procedures and agreements specific to support of the MFLC Program. Although the Contract Administrator will provide overarching management of all subcontracting activities, MHN is supplementing the management team by including our Subcontracts Manager as one of our key personnel. The Subcontracts Manager, who reports to Contract Administrator, will prepare and implement the First Tier subcontract with (b) (4). The Subcontracts Manager will then provide direct, day-to-day professional contract administration of the subcontract and provide backup contract/subcontract administration support to the Contract Administrator for the MFLC Program. The Subcontracts Manager will work with (b) (4) Program Manager to ensure compliance with the terms and conditions of the (b) (4) subcontract including, without limitation, timely submission of invoices and subcontract deliverables and addressing any performance issues that may arise.

MHN will also draft and implement a subcontract agreement with (b) (4), our proposed AbilityOne company, for the provision of administrative support services personnel, as well as the provision of certain other direct costs (counselor contact cards and nametags) as those needs arise under the Contract. An agreement has also been issued to (b) (4) for information technology services in support of our Information Warehouse. Our established, documented, and consistently maintained DCMA-approved Contractor Purchasing System will ensure adequate controls through which MHN will acquire quality products and services necessary for contract performance. Our system further ensures that all transactions, except where otherwise justified, are secured on a fully competitive basis and all prices are determined fair and reasonable. Additionally, our processes ensure the appropriateness of all contracted services, through evaluation of the types and quantities of labor, skill level, labor category mix, and direct labor hours proposed to be expended. All transactions are fully supported by user requirements documents. Our First-Tier subcontractor, and all counselors subcontracted through the MFLC network, will report any operational issues having an impact to their on-the-ground performance through the MHN Program Director's Field Operations organization. (b) (4) Program Manager will be integrated into the MFLC Program management team. Exhibit 1-2 outlines the key functions associated with our approach to managing our major First-Tier subcontractor. The Purchasing Department, under the Contract Administrator's leadership, will also provide the MHN Program Director's Business Operations organization with contract administration support for (b) (4) and (b) (4).

|--|--|
| MHN Assumes Responsibility | MHN shall be fully responsible, as the prime contractor, for the technical, schedule and financial performance of all work performed by (b) (4). Our subcontractors' performance will be overseen by our Program Director's organization that will be supported by our Subcontracts Manager. Our Business Operations organization will oversee the administrative support services provided by (b) (4) and (b) (4) information technology support services for our Information Warehouse. Collectively, our management team will manage, monitor, and review all subcontracted and purchased work. |
| MHN Delivers Scope of Work and Assignment to Subcontractor | (b) (4) will receive a detailed scope of work for specific portions of the Program. This will include detailed budgets and schedules. The Program Director will review and approve the work plans for technical content and cost reasonableness. |
| MHN Closely Manages Subcontractor | MHN requires that First-Tier subcontractor (b) (4) assign a Program Manager to the MFLC Program to manage their own performance and for issue escalation and resolution. The MHN Program Director will maintain frequent and open lines of communication with the subcontractor |

| MHN Function | Description |
|------------------------------|---|
| Program Manager | Program Manager, including weekly conference calls and scheduled meetings as circumstances dictate. |
| MHN Communicates and Reports | In addition to frequent communication between MHN and (b) (4) staff, the First-Tier Subcontractor will submit monthly progress reports, with data on the financial and technical status of their tasks. The Subcontractor Program Manager is required to attend scheduled management status and performance monthly reviews/conference calls. |

Exhibit 1-2. Subcontractor Management Approach

The Program Management team will also work closely with all assigned network counselors to ensure the provision of required services continues to meet their operational requirements and quality standards. We will conduct weekly status calls with all MFLCs, address any performance issues/challenges, and brief MFLCs on program updates as necessary. Any service-delivery or operational issues which may arise with our Network counselors that require MFLC Program Management involvement will be vetted by the Field Operations team and technical/operational direction provided to the MFLCs as needed.

Our Program Director will ensure that all MHN subcontractors are meeting their subcontract performance metrics and deliverables. MHN will involve our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), in its status and performance management reviews.

Communication with our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), is an important element of MHN’s integrated management approach. This approach includes a set of meetings and reviews to ensure regular communication and joint review of program status, resolution of issues, and a common understanding of work to be performed. In addition, our subcontractors have access to information on our MFLC Fulfillment System (MFS) that will facilitate their performance of services.

MHN will establish clear lines of communication with (b) (4), as shown in Exhibit 1-3, the Program Director, will have ultimate responsibility for compliant, successful, and integrated service delivery. Supported in this effort by the Field Operations Managers and Counseling Supervisors for the network of independent subcontractor counselors. The Contract Administrator and Subcontractor Manager will work with our First-Tier subcontractor’s individual Program Manager to ensure timely and compliant administration of the subcontract. The Subcontract Manager will draft, negotiate and install the required First-Tier subcontract using the agreed upon work share, deliverables, and compliance requirements. The subcontracts will be effectuated in full accord with MHN's subcontract policies and procedures as required under our government-approved purchasing system. The Purchasing Department will issue and administer Purchase Orders for the provision of support services by (b) (4) and (b) (4).

The Quality Assurance (QA) Manager, will audit all requisite processes in compliance with ISO standards, Quality Control Plan (QCP) and Quality Assurance Surveillance Plan (QASP) requirements, lead and facilitate Quality Improvement Project teams, and make recommendations to improve services, including tracking and verifying formal Corrective Action Plans (CAPs). All aspects of subcontracted program operations will report up to the MFLC Field Operations Manager and to the Program Director through integrated transition meetings, status meetings, management reports, and formal in-progress reviews (IPRs).

While MHN has the capacity, capability, and scale to support all mission tasks as a sole contractor, we believe it is in our and the Government's best interest to broaden our skill mix, expertise, and capacity for the new contract. Our general selection criteria for a strategic partner included:

- High standards of business ethics and excellent past performance in behavioral health care staffing for military customers
- Successful experience supporting programs of similar size, scope, and complexity that we intend to subcontract
- Expertise supporting performance-based contracts and the demonstrated ability to perform to relevant metrics identified in the QASP
- Ability to meet the capacity requirements as outlined in the Performance Work Statement (PWS)
- Ability to manage staff and work fluctuations as a result of MFLC peak counselor deployment periods, surges, Contracting Officer's Technical Representative (COTR) invocation of the Augmentation CLINs, or Contracting Officer (CO) invocation of the Optional CLINs, under tight deadlines
- Verified expertise in understanding and complying with FAR flow-down requirements
- Requisite qualifications for meeting one or more of the small business concerns categories requirements

(b) (4) will further augment MHN's corporate capabilities, past performance, and capacity to perform under the Contract with scale, flexibility, diversity of talent and efficiencies. (b) (4) has more than 18 years of demonstrated expertise in rapid clinical staffing for government agencies and long-term retention of full time staff. (b) (4) brings the benefit of direct and relevant experience in the management of programs for the (b) (4)

(b) (4) In addition, they have provided behavioral health professionals for other government agencies including (b) (4)

(b) (4) With expertise in rapid full-time hiring and staffing, (b) (4) will be responsible for providing full-time MFLCs to support the MFLC Program. An ANC, (b) (4) is a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., SDB concern), as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN's small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals.

In addition to our First-Tier subcontractor, MHN has an established, robust, MFLC provider network of licensed counselors to fulfill short term and backfilled assignments. These professional counselors are independent subcontractors, many with their own established practices, or are members of small independent subcontractor provider groups. MHN will use only counselors/companies that have self-certified as a small business concern. As mentioned earlier, each of these counselors are required to execute an agreement as part of the process of being added to the MFLC network. This agreement predisposes quick engagement of these counselors when selected for a given MFLC assignment as all non-assignment specific terms and conditions have already been agreed to. Thus, when a given assignment is accepted by a counselor, only the details of that particular assignment need be included in the CTO. As assignment requirements are identified under the MFLC Program, MHN will receive a Counselor Request Form (CRF) from MFLC Business Operations, detailing the particulars of the given assignment, e.g., location, assignment duration and location, specialized qualification requirements (e.g., prior experience with being the first MFLC at a new location). An interested counselor possessing any stipulated specialized attributes/experience and, whenever possible, who is locally located to the assignment location, will be selected, and offered a CTO. Assignment opportunities will be rotated throughout the Network to afford all qualified counselors an opportunity of participating in the MFLC Program.

MHN has a rigorous program for directing, coordinating, and integrating the efforts of all personnel on the MFLC Program. Our First-Tier subcontractor's role on the program is to provide full-time MFLC counselors. The subcontract to be held by (b) (4) will be contractually administered by MHN's Subcontractor Manager who will ensure full and timely compliance with all applicable subcontract terms and conditions. Operationally, the fulltime counselors provided by (b) (4) will be directed, coordinated, and integrated using the same methods and means as MHN employs with our MFLC network independent subcontractor counselors. MHN's combined MFLC network independent subcontractor counselors and First-Tier subcontractor will be managed as follows:

- Field Operations Management. Actual counseling service performance of (b) (4) fulltime counselors and MHN's independent subcontractor counselors will be managed through MHN's Field Operations organization, which ensures that services are timely and successfully delivered according to assignment requirements. Counseling Supervisors provide direction, coordination, and integration of efforts for counselors on the ground through weekly telephone conferences, review of daily Activity Form completion, and availability 24x7x365 to address issues or support Duty to Warn (DTW) resolution per established procedures.
- MFLC Fulfillment System (MFS). MHN will provide an MFLC web-based portal for use by all counselors in the field. Using unique usernames and passwords, counselors will access the secure web portal for purposes of (b) (4)

- Reporting. (b) (4) Program Manager will be responsible for documenting and reporting recruiting and hiring actions for all open counselor positions through the portal technology on a weekly basis. Using standard reporting conventions agreed to by both MHN and (b) (4) MHN's program management team will have a near-real-time view into recruiting and retention performance. Statistics from this shared management report, in turn, will feed the MHN Team Performance Management Report, the Executive Dashboard, Monthly Utilization Reports, and Monthly Contract & Financial Status Report deliverables.

- Reviews. MHN has established a set of program management reviews, which will include all subcontractor program performance information. These reviews include the Performance Management Review (PMR) (monitor metrics across key performance indicators, including subcontractor performance), Subcontractor Performance Review (presentation by subcontractors' of preceding months performance including trends and open issues, and discussion of any CAPs invoking subcontractor performance), and the Subcontractor Management Review (a quarterly meeting with upper management to assess overall subcontractor performance).
- Quality. MHN has selected a First-Tier subcontractor whose approach to quality mirrors our own. The subcontract incorporates specific quality standards of service delivery against which we can monitor performance. We have accomplished this by using the MHN Quality Specification that guides (b) (4) in the development of their QCPs. They are be required to submit written Subcontractor QCPs that fully meet all requirements of our quality specifications and which will require approval and acceptance before the start of service delivery. In addition, the MHN Team QASP integrates prime and subcontractor performance for comprehensive and consistent government quality surveillance activities.
- Security. MHN is extremely qualified and experienced in effectively addressing the unique requirements inherent in higher-profile and challenging assignments, such as those associated with work in classified environments, or those in locations such as the Horn of Africa. Through our Security department, MHN has secured a Facilities Clearance (FCL) granted by the U.S. Defense Security Service (DSS).

Provider Network

MHN's team of independent subcontractors that MHN will be using supplements the MHN MFLC network of licensed and credentialed counselors which MHN has developed under the current Contract, and which will continue to expand under the MFLC Program. Unlike generic commercial networks, our counselors are immediately ready, willing, credentialed, qualified, and MFLC-trained to accept assignments with the MFLC Program. Not only have we fully vetted these counselor's credentials through our URAC-approved credentialing process to ensure they meet all program criteria, we have also completed their criminal history background checks (CHBCs), and interviewed them to determine their suitability for successfully assisting military families. All of our network counselors have already completed pre-assignment orientation and training regimen that combines Internet-based learning with hands-on applications. Our training plan maintains a 100% course completion rate prior to assignment, which requires a passing exam score, reinforced by field-tested aggressive communication, and a follow-up plan to ensure learning retention. MHN has also developed an (b) (4)

Il network counselors will use our MHN MFLC Portal to access required training and complete Activity Forms to record data on the field-based work.

Each network counselor is assigned to a Counseling Supervisor responsible for overseeing MFLC counseling services for the location to which they are assigned. Counseling Supervisors will perform consultant subcontract performance reviews within two (2) days of assignment completion. These assess performance against subcontract requirements such as the counselor's ability to give presentations, build relationships with points of contact (POCs) and the military Command, work well with other counselors, understand, and relate to issues facing Service Members, and work within and adapt to military culture and installation routines. These become a permanent part of each counselor’s performance record and will be used in determining if a counselor is suitable to a specific assignment.

MHN monitors the credentialed, licensed, and trained MFLC network to ensure high quality, empathetic and appropriate support of military families. We conduct 100% verification of all credentials during the initial application and re-credentialing phases. Further, prior to any counselor assignment, MHN verifies that licensure is in good standing and will remain current for the entire period of the assignment, prior to approving a counselor for an assignment. MHN’s credentialing program is routinely audited and approved to URAC and state regulatory requirements.

1.1.1.4 Decision Making (L.18, M.4)

As the prime contractor for the MFLC Program, MHN assumes full managerial responsibility and accountability for our performance and that of our subcontractors. The ultimate decision making authority will reside with the MHN MFLC Program Director. Within this construct, our First Tier Subcontractor is required to manage the work, with their own managers and staff, within their area(s) of responsibility as defined in their teaming agreement and according to the overall MFLC Program management, staffing, and quality control plans.

1.1.1.5 Information Sharing (L.18)

MHN recognizes the importance of sharing information necessary to the successful delivery of services across all team members and counselors. To this end, we are committed to open and frequent communication among all subcontractors participating on the MFLC Program. We have established processes for information sharing including regularly scheduled management meetings, weekly supervisor calls, and the MHN MFLC Portal. (b) (4) will have named a Program Manager who will be dedicated to the MFLC Program as a key person. This manager will be a vital member of our management team, will participate in all management meetings, and will be responsible for ensuring that important program information is shared with their consultants in a timely manner. Exhibit 1-4 provides an overview of key formal activities we will use to share information with our First-Tier and network subcontractor counselors.

1.1.1.6 Problem Resolution (L.18, M.4)

Our PMR and Subcontractor Management Reviews, discussed in Section 1.1.1.3, will provide effective forums for early identification and resolution of issues. We will use these reviews to identify issues and develop mentoring and coaching strategies to provide subcontractors with the resources, processes, or tools needed to resolve issues and overcome problems before they affect performance. Should conflicts or problems with subcontractors occur, MHN will use the following steps to ensure the problem or conflict is resolved in a timely manner:

- For network counselors, the MFLC's Counseling Liaison will contact the consultant to advise them of the subcontract performance concern and provide details to help them resolve the issue. If after reasonable effort, the problem cannot be resolved, professional relations will be notified and the subcontract will be terminated or amended, as appropriate. For serious performance issues or violation of crucial Military protocols, the provider subcontract will be terminated and the counselor will be removed from our provider network.
- For issues with (b) (4), the problem or conflict will be escalated to the MFLC Program Director to identify the best resolution approach and marshal any additional resources needed to resolve the problem or conflict. If the problem or conflict cannot be resolved at this level, it will be escalated to the Program Executive for mediation. If they cannot be resolved at this level, the Program Executive will charge the Subcontracts Manager with preparing a formal letter to the subcontract manager describing the issues and remediation actions that need to be taken. We anticipate that most problems and conflicts will be resolved long before these formal notifications would need to be implemented. In the unlikely event that all informal and formal remediation approaches fail, MHN will remove the offending subcontractor from the program. The government will be informed of the problem and resolution efforts well before MHN takes this action

MHN will manage our First Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), using a subcontract that includes a specific scope of work, and applicable regulations, procedures and policies to which (b) (4) and our subcontractor personnel must adhere. MHN has established standards of service, based on contract and company requirements, for all independent subcontractor counselors and our First Tier subcontractor.

(b) (4) is integral to MHN’s successful performance on the Contract. (b) (4) and MHN will operate within parallel lines of communication: the operational supervisors from both (b) (4) and MHN will be accountable to MHN’s Manager and therefore, any performance issues will be resolved through the existing, proven chain of command. The Manager will continue to provide leadership and delivery of oversight services with the management staff as a whole (for both (b) (4) and MHN) across the applicable footprint. In this fashion, all counselors remain a continuously dedicated and cohesive group. We have in place processes and procedures to continually monitor their efforts against established performance standards. Exhibit 1-5 shows MHN’s approach to monitoring (b) (4) subcontract performance. Our Integrated monthly and quarterly Performance Management Reviews provides oversight of key performance indicators of subcontractor and prime program operations. We will use our CAP process to monitor and resolve any performance issues and validate performance improvement.

Exhibit 1-5. MHN First-Tier Subcontractor Performance Management

MHN’s QA Manager will use the processes and procedures outlined in the Quality Control Plan (QCP) to monitor the quality of subcontractor, as well as MHN, efforts. This QCP is built to ensure we meet the requirements of the Government’s QASP, and, therefore, perform successfully on the contract.

1.1.1.8 Prior Relationship with Proposed Subcontractors (L.18)

Our existing General MFLC network, is composed independently contracted counselors, many of whom MHN has had a long-established relationship. Many of these professional relationships extend back to the original MFLC Pilot Program. Through an ongoing evaluation of the MFLC network participants and each counselor’s respective assignments, only the finest professionals will be allowed to continue to provide services under this important program. Counselors are licensed, trained, and uniquely experienced to satisfy the needs of military Service Members and their families. The type of issues faced by military members and their families are often unique and require help from counselors who have experience with such unique needs. Unlike other companies, whose lack of experience may lead them to perceive that the MFLC Program is just a matter of placing any given counselor on the ground, MHN fully appreciates the extreme challenges to placing the right counselor on the right assignment. Our substantial experience and relationship with our Network of subcontractor counselors allows MHN to readily identify particular attributes that must be possessed by a given counselor for a given assignment. Knowing which counselor has had direct experience, for example, with handling a terrible loss of life incident in a recent In-theater deployment is critical. Alternatively, having a counselor who has acted in an “embedded” capacity with a given brigade, and has established a hard-earned level of trust from its members, cannot be accomplished without a legacy relationship between the contractor and the counselor. MHN and our network will bring this unique experience to the MFLC Program.

1.1.2 Ability to Meet Subcontracting Goals on Previous Government Contracts (L.18)

MHN has an exceptional performance record under the existing Contract of not only meeting, but far exceeding the established goals for subcontracting to SB, WOSB, and VOSB concerns. Our revised Contract goal for total small business participation of 32% has been surpassed; we have placed greater than 80% of all subcontracted dollars with small business concerns. Exhibit 1-6 shows the dollar and percentage goals and actual cumulative subcontractor performance values under the Contract. The percentages are taken from our subcontracting report ended March 2015. In accordance with our established government-approved Contractor Purchasing System procedures, each and every subcontract and/or purchase order issued by MHN is conditioned upon receipt of a Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) that is completed by the respective counselor/subcontractor, or vendor. No subcontract or purchase order can be effectuated without MHN’s receipt of a subcontractor /vendor’s self-certification of its business size. Entry of the subcontract/vendor transaction in our purchase order system requires a valid vendor number, and by policy, procedure, and process, a vendor number cannot be assigned without MHN first obtaining the requisite SBQ completed by the subcontractor or vendor. Thus, MHN’s reported performance against our small business goals, which is routinely reported to the government, is strictly based on documented purchasing transactions for which MHN has received the required certifications from our vendors and subcontractors as to their business size. The SBQ is used for this purpose. Only companies representing their small business status as HUBZone small business concerns are required to obtain Small Business Administration (SBA) certification of such status. Companies of all other small business size categories (e.g., SB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and SDB) are allowed, per statute and regulation, to “self-certify” as to their status. Thus, as allowed by Federal regulation, MHN relies upon a subcontractor /vendor’s self-certification as to its business size.

The majority of the MFLC Network independent subcontractor counselors with whom MHN has subcontracted, since the original MFLC Pilot program in 2004, to date under our existing Contract, has self-certified. Based on a recent review of our purchase transactions, greater than 99% have self-certified as a Small Business concern and/or other small business subcategory such as WOSB, VOSB, etc. During March 2012, MHN asked all subcontracted network counselors to provide recertification of their small business size status by completion of our Small Business Questionnaire. Less than 1% self-certified as Large Business or Non-Profit. The balance of greater than 99% of the independent subcontractor counselors self-certified as Small Business. Of those companies self-certifying as a small business, the preponderance also certified under the following small business subcategories:

|---|-------|
| Small Disadvantaged Business Concern | 16.6% |
| Woman-Owned Small Business Concern | 69.7% |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business Concern | 9.5% |

Note: Because companies may certify for multiple small business subcategories (e.g., SDB, WOSB and VOSB), or may not further certify for any small business subcategories, the total of all small business subcategories may not sum to 100%.

Although MHN has had great success in meeting many the DoD small business goals under our existing Contract (as depicted under Exhibit 1-6 below), we have been challenged in some small business categories. One challenge with the HUBZone goal is founded in the nature of the population of our independently subcontracted counselors. Our MFLC network is populated with counselors who are nearly all independent small business contractors (sole proprietorships, and a few small provider groups). Typically, this counselor population has historically provided their services to the commercial market place and, except for the MFLC contract, do not generally support federal government contracts/programs. As such, few, if any, of these independent practitioners find value in obtaining the required formal SBA certification of their status as a HUBZone Small Business concern. Such SBA certification as a HUBZone concern brings these providers no perceived benefit in their relationship with the commercial market place. To address this single issue of (b) (4)

(b) (4)

MHN has identified (b) (4), which is a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., SDB concern) as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN’s small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals. In light of the critical support they will be bringing by provision of substantive numbers of counselors, MHN will be able to substantially improve our performance under the SDB goal category.

| Subcontract Awards | | |

| Type | DoD Goals Percent | Actual Cumulative Percent |

Exhibit 1-6. Subcontractor Performance Values Under Current Contract

1.1.3 Description of Work Small Businesses are Proposed to Perform (L.18)

MHN is committed to providing meaningful work to our small business partners. The vast majority of subcontracting opportunities under the resulting Contract will be in providing non-medical problem-solving counseling services. The counseling services must be furnished by formally educated, credentialed, experienced, licensed, and trained counselors. Our identified First-Tier subcontractor and MFLC network provider subcontractors will fill vital roles in our successful execution of the MFLC Program performing very valuable, challenging, and rewarding work.

Our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), will be responsible for providing full-time counselors. MHN will staff all other positions not allocated to (b) (4). All other MFLC subcontracted counseling services will be accomplished through the use of our established MFLC network. Through this network, MHN will draw from a large and well-established, trained and vetted group of professional counselors and small provider groups to fill all other subcontracted counseling efforts. This includes independent subcontractor counselors with either their own established practice or are members of small provider groups.

In addition to subcontracting counseling services, MHN will also be subcontracting with an AbilityOne company, (b) (4), to provide administrative personnel in support of MHN’s Program Management function. Additionally, (b) (4) will be our vendor for counselor contact cards and nametags to be purchased for the program by MHN. (b) (4) support is not considered by MHN to meet the definition of a “critical” or “major” subcontractor and MHN, therefore, has not entered into a formal Teaming Agreement (as envisioned by FAR Subpart 9.6) with them. However, they will be an important contributor to the program, accomplishing very meaningful work.

1.1.4 Subcontractors Performing Major/Critical Aspects of Requirements (L.18, M.4)

Providing face-to-face counseling services represents the most significant aspects of the Contract. We recognize the importance of this work and have established formal relationship with (b) (4) and our network of qualified counselors to fulfill these critical roles. MHN has teamed with (b) (4) to augment our corporate capabilities, past performance, and capacity to perform under the new Contract with even greater scale, flexibility, diversity of talent and efficiencies than today. (b) (4) is a fully qualified Small Disadvantaged Business concern and will be responsible for providing full-time MFLCs.

MHN has an established, robust, MFLC provider network that possess the requisite additional experience and qualifications to perform General MFLC counseling. These counselors are independent subcontractors with either their own established practice or are members of small provider groups. Greater than 99% are self-certified small business concerns and will be providing non-medical problem-solving counseling services.

2.0 Subfactor II: Small Business Goals (L.18, M.4)

MHN takes its commitment to small business participation seriously as evidenced by the percentage and type of work we have committed to small business concerns for the Contract. We recognize that the government has established challenging goals for participation by various small business concern categories and a goal for participation by an AbilityOne organization(s). As will be supported below, MHN has constructed a team, which will allow us to meet and/or exceed all established DoD goals for each of these categories.

2.1 Small Business Participation/Subcontracting Plan (L.18, M.4)

MHN operates under a Contractor Purchasing System, inclusive of its Small Business Subcontracting Program, that has been approved by DCMA. Our long-established Small Business Subcontracting Program is embraced by the highest levels of our organization and is in complete compliance with both the regulatory requirements detailed in the FAR and DFARS, and in the spirit of the Small Business Act. Our Program is supported by requisite policies, procedures, and processes.

MHN understands the necessity for, and is a strong proponent of, affording small businesses the maximum practicable opportunity to compete for subcontracting actions consistent with efficient contract performance. We commit to provide advice, assistance, and business counsel to these companies to help facilitate their success. Our efforts are extended to all categories of small businesses, including those identified as AbilityOne, SB, SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and HUBZone.

This Individual Contract Plan has been developed in accordance with the following FAR requirements listed in Exhibit 2-1.

2.2 Commitment/Understanding of MFLC Small Business Goals (L.18, M.4, J.6)

2.2.1 Method for Developing Subcontracting Goals (FAR 19.704 (a) (1) and (2))

We developed our subcontracting goals for this effort after careful consideration of the scope and volume of counseling work described in the solicitation. We also considered our Program Management approach to supporting such work and identified associated subcontracting opportunities in the area of administrative support personnel services. Opportunities were also found in our proposed Other Direct Costs. The solicitation provides for the following broad areas of contract performance for the MFLC Mission Execution Task area: MFLC Rotational, On-Demand, and Surge counselors. Our proposed Subcontracting Plan allows us to address the PWS components, and to additionally subcontract some components of our Program Management support staff and Other Direct Costs, as shown below in Exhibit 2-2.

| Product/Service | AbilityOne | VOSB | SD-VOSB | SB | WOSB | HUBZone | SDB |
| MFLC Rotational Counseling | (b) (4) | | | | | | |
| MFLC On-demand Counseling | | | | | | | |
| MFLC Surge Counseling | | | | | | | |
| Other Direct Costs (Contact Cards and Name Tags) | | | | | | | |
| Administrative Support Personnel Services | | | | | | | |

Exhibit 2-2. Products and Services to be Subcontracted

MHN determined that all counseling services provide an opportunity for subcontracting across the full spectrum of small business categories (i.e., SB, SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and HUBZone), all of which are represented within our long-standing professional MFLC network of independent counselor subcontractors. Additionally, MHN has also constructed a First Tier Subcontract with (b) (4) an SDB. The combination of our MFLC network and our First Tier Subcontractor will not only ensure successful performance of the MFLC Program counseling services, it will also allow MHN to distribute counseling work to our small business partners. Further, we have identified and allocated a number of administrative support personnel services to (b) (4) our AbilityOne partner. In addition, they will be our vendor for the provision of counselor contact cards and nametags. Although not considered a critical or major subcontractor, (b) (4) support services represent an important and valuable component of the work effort.

|---------------------------------|--------------|---------------------------------|--------------|
| (b) (4) | 1.0% | AbilityOne | 1.0% |
| (b) (4) & MFLC Network | 20.0% | SDB | 5.0% |
| MFLC Network | 3.0% | SDVOSB | 3.0% |
| MFLC Network | 3.0% | VOSB | 3.0% |
| MFLC Network | 20.0% | Woman-Owned | 5.0% |
| MFLC Network | 3.0% | HUBZone | 3.0% |
| Total All Small Business | 60.0% | Total All Small Business | 32.0% |

Exhibit 2-3. Small Business Goals

MHN’s small business percentage goals are based upon our proposed Total Available Subcontracted Dollars amount of (b) (4), inclusive of the Base and all Option Years is in excess of 25% of the proposed effort. Travel-related costs (airfare, lodging, per diem, tolls, car rental, gasoline, etc.) and insurance (Defense Base Act Workers Compensation) are not considered “subcontracted” costs and are not, therefore, included in the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars amount.

We developed our small business percentage and dollar goals for the MFLC Mission Execution Task by analyzing each of the major components of the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars, i.e., Subcontracted Counseling Services, Administrative Personnel Support Services, Information Technology Support of Information Warehouse, and Other Direct Costs. With the exception of the Subcontracted Counseling Services component, all remaining estimated subcontracted dollar values are included directly into our calculation of our proposed small business category goals. The remaining component of subcontracted costs, the “Subcontracted Counseling Services” expenses, includes our MFLC Network counselors that are to be provided by our First-Tier Subcontractor (b) (4). (b) (4) is included in our later calculation of dollars to be subcontracted to SDB concerns, as (b) (4) fully so qualifies.

Our established goals for VOSB, SDVOSB, WOSB, SDB, and HUBZone concerns are all fully supported by the percentages within our Network. The other SB goal shown is simply the balance of subcontracted dollars that have been allocated under this analysis. In fact, the total value of $(b) (4) represents the full MFLC small business goal. Having calculated the above small business category dollar amounts from our proposed MFLC subcontracted amount, we then used those amounts to calculate our total small business subcontracting goals as shown below:

|----------------------|---------|---------|
| VOSB | (b) (4) | (b) (4) |
| SDVOSB | | |
| Woman Owned | | |
| HUBZone | | |
| SDB | | |
| AbilityOne | | |
| Total Small Business | | |
| Large Business | | |
| Total | | |

Exhibit 2-4. Calculated Small Business Subcontract Dollars & Percentages

The reasonableness and achievability of each of the goals reflected in Exhibit 2-4 above for the various small business categories is supported below:

- AbilityOne. (b) (4) is an AbilityOne organization, the dollar amount estimated to be subcontracted to (b) (4) is based upon two (2) separate components, i.e., administrative labor and other direct costs. The first component is the estimated value of the administrative support services personnel that (b) (4) will be providing in support of MHN. The second component includes certain other direct costs included in MHN’s Price Proposal, which MHN intends to purchase through (b) (4), as the need for the same arises under the Contract. These other direct costs include counselor contact cards and nametags required to support the MFLC Program. These estimated other direct costs were included in MHN’s (as opposed to (b) (4)) proposed price, but will be purchased through (b) (4) as the requirements are definitized under the Contract.

- Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB). (b) (4) is an ANC and a qualified SDB; we have executed an agreement with (b) (4) for providing fulltime MFLC counselors in support of the MFLC Program. Through the combination of a First Tier subcontract with (b) (4) and through effective distribution of counseling assignments to the SDBs within our network, MHN will meet or exceed the SDB goal of 20.0%.
- Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB). The 3.0% goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC goals analysis. We will reach or exceed this goal by targeting additional assignments to SDVOSB concerns, thereby raising the dollar amount and resulting percentage subcontracted to the category.
- Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB). The 3.0% goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC goals analysis.
- Women Owned Small Business (WOSB). The 20.0% goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC goals analysis.

2.2.2 Goals Expressed in Percentages

| Small Business Type | Percentage Goal |
|---|-----------------|
| AbilityOne Program | 1% |
| Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) | 20% |
| Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) | 3% |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business (VOSB) | 3% |
| Woman-Owned Small Business (WOSB) | 20% |
| Historically Underutilized Business Zone (HUBZone) | 3% |
| Small Business (cumulative total of all small business) | 60% |

Exhibit 2-5. MHN Meets or Exceeds the Government’s Small Business Subcontracting Goals in All Categories

The dollar values supporting the calculation of the above percentage goals are depicted in Exhibit 2-6. Please note that the percentage goals established for these individual small business categories (SDVOSB, VOSB Woman-Owned, etc.) will not sum to the “Small Business (cumulative total of all small business)” percentage reflected in the plan. This is due to the fact that a single small business concern may be counted toward multiple, individual goals. For example, a given company could qualify and self-certify as an SDB, Woman-Owned, and VOSB concern, and the subcontracted dollars/percentages associated with that concern will be counted in each of these example small business subcategories, in addition to being counted in the Small Business category. This approach to accounting for the various small business categories is in strict compliance with instructions provided by the Standard Form 294 (Subcontracting Report for Individual Contracts) and the Standard Form 295 (Summary Subcontract Report).

2.2.3 Total Dollars Planned to Be Subcontracted & Associated Goals

| Business Category | Dollar Amount | Percentage Goal |
|---|---------------|-----------------|
| AbilityOne | $ | (b) (4) |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| Woman-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| HUB Zone Small Business | $ | |
| Small Disadvantaged Business | $ | |
| TOTAL Small Business | $ | |
| Large Business | $ | |
| TOTAL SUBCONTRACTED | $ | |

2.3 How SB Participation Will Contribute to Overall Subcontracting Goals (L.18)

MHN will leverage its long-established collaboration with our MFLC network, and with our First Tier Team Member Subcontractor, (b) (4) to fully address the important counseling services required under the MFLC Program. These relationships all involve Small Business concerns that will completely contribute to MHN’s Subcontracting Goals. Our AbilityOne vendor, (b) (4), will bring important administrative personnel to support our program management staff. MHN will also use (b) (4) to supply certain other direct cost items.

2.4 Specific Efforts to Ensure Contract Meets or Exceeds Proposed Goals (L.18)

MHN’s ability to meet the various small business goals is fully addressed in Section 2.2.1 above. Each of the individual goals is supported by our First-Tier subcontractor, through our demonstrated performance experience using our MFLC network, and through our identified AbilityOne company. To ensure that we meet our individual small business categories MHN has issued the respective subcontract to (b) (4) for the provision of counselors. Further, we will utilize our MFLC network in the provision of counseling services, thereby ensuring the use of our independent subcontractor counselors. To reach our AbilityOne goal, we will issue a purchase order to (b) (4) as previously discussed, and additional purchase orders for certain other direct costs required to support the MFLC Program. On at least a quarterly basis, MHN will review its small business performance against its established goals and identify any areas requiring improvement. If necessary, MHN will take aggressive action to ensure subcontracted work is brought up to the levels necessary to successfully meet our established goals.

2.5 Identification and Development of Potential Sources

MHN, leveraging HNFS’ established Subcontracts Program, maintains database and source directories to identify small business concerns. We use listings from the following sources in the standard course of our business to the maximum practicable extent to ensure that small business concerns are identified:

- CCR of the SBA

- Veterans Service Organizations
- National Minority Purchasing Council Vendor Information Service
- Research and Information Division of the Minority Business Development Agency
- Trade Associations
- Minority Business Development Agencies
- MHN'S internal SAP System Vendor Minority Indicator Report
- DoD Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization Regional Councils
- Vendor Information at the Center for Veterans Enterprise (VetBiz)
- Defense Contract Management Agency
- Minority Professional Networks Diversity Information Resources
- Department of Veterans Affairs Center for Veterans Enterprise
- BuyVeteran.com
- Federal Agency Veterans Business Advocates
- Service Disabled Veteran Business General Directory
- State Offices of Veterans Affairs
- National Contract Management Association
- Internet

MHN also conducts outreach efforts, our representatives regularly attend and actively participate in federal procurement conferences, trade fairs, corporate meetings, industry council conferences, professional seminars, and association meetings to seek new small businesses qualified to furnish subcontracted services and materials. This effort includes assistance in every reasonable manner to develop new, qualified small business concerns.

2.6 Indirect Costs

The subcontracting goals identified in this section are derived from the direct costs MHN proposes to incur. Indirect costs are not included.

2.7 Administration of the Plan

As part of its inter-company arrangement with MHN, HNFS Government Contracts management oversees the Small Business Program in order to be responsible for the overall management of the Small Business Program. The MHN Small Business Liaison Officer(s) reports to our Subcontractor Manager, who also reports directly to the Director of Government Contracts. The Director of Government Contracts will work hand-in-hand with the Small Business Liaison Officer(s) in the administration of this Subcontracting Plan.

It is the MHN Small Business Liaison Officer's responsibility to ensure overall implementation of the program and maintain program performance data for periodic review by company senior management and Government representatives. In addition, to provide procedural guidance to ensure effective consideration of and participation by Small Business Interest (SBI) concerns in the award of subcontracts.

The Small Business Liaison Officer responsibilities include:

- Develop subcontract plans including percentages and dollar goals for participation of SBI concerns as requested by contracting officers for DoD and other federal agency contracts, proposals, and modifications with a value of $650,000 or more where the proposed effort offers subcontracting opportunities

- Issue policy memorandums and internal operating procedures relative to implementation requirements of Public Law 95-507, 99-661, 100-180, 106-554, and 105-135 and any and all other relevant public laws and applicable implementing regulations
- Conduct training of MHN personnel
- Provide assistance and counsel to SBI concerns and procurement team members regarding MHN procurement procedures with respect to such matters as bid preparation, quality requirements, schedule requirements, availability of progress payments and assistance with understanding and complying with contractual requirements
- Establish, monitor, and control reporting for MHN management, procurement personnel, corporate personnel, and Government agencies. Insure timeliness and accuracy of all reports
- Compile and maintain a database of potential Small Business concerns to assist technical and procurement personnel in locating and contracting with such concerns
- Represent MHN with cognizant Government agencies including components of the DoD and the SBA, as well as state and local agencies, local Chambers of Commerce, national and regional purchasing councils, and other organizations
- Cooperate with and assist local SBA representatives with respect to periodic reviews and/or opportunity referrals
- Assure that SBI concerns are given consideration in make-or-buy decisions
- Participate in and/or sponsor programs that provide training and business related information to SBI concerns
- Attend trade association conferences and trade shows to further promote the business opportunities MHN can provide to SBI concerns
- Promote further outreach if goals are not being met
- Assist with recognizing technical and procurement personnel who have excelled in identifying and developing new SBI business opportunities and implementing the Small Business Subcontracting Plan

2.8 Equitable Opportunity

As an inter-company partner with MHN, the HNFS Vice President, Government Contracts, has issued several policies and procedures establishing directives to ensure the advocacy of the Small Business Program as it applies to both HNFS and MHN.

These include policies and procedures designed as directives to subcontract managers, purchasing agents, and buyers requiring compliance with corporate policy. MHN'S goal is to support SBI participation to the maximum extent practicable.

These directives prescribe requirements, including, but not limited to Procurement File Documentation, Supplier Business Questionnaires, and Sourcing and Selection Procurement Summaries.

In addition, and to ensure maximum SBI participation, (b) (4)

2.9 Subcontractor Flowdown Provisions

MHN includes the FAR clauses at 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns and 52.219-9, Small Business Subcontracting Plan in all subcontracts issued in support of MFLC and other federal agency contracts, except where not required by the terms of the affected clauses. With the inclusion of these flow down provisions, MHN will ensure that all subcontractors (except small business concerns) that receive subcontracts in excess of $650,000 ($1,500,000 for construction) to adopt a plan that complies with the requirements of the clause at 52.219-9.

2.10 Special Studies and Reports

MHN will cooperate in any study or survey as may be required.

- MHN will submit to the Contracting Officer semiannually and at contract completion the required periodic reports utilizing the Electronic Subcontracting Reporting System (eSRS). The reports will include:
 - Individual Subcontract Reports (ISR) (formerly Standard Form 294)
 - Summary Subcontract Report (SSR) (formerly Standard Form 295), including a breakout of subcontract awards, in whole dollars, to small disadvantaged business SBI concerns by North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Industry Subsector at the close of each fiscal year
- MHN will ensure that our subcontractors agree to submit these reports, when appropriate.
- MHN will provide our prime contract number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, prime contractor's DUNS number, and the email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting reports, to all first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans so that it can be entered into the eSRS system. MHN will continue to furnish this information to any new first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans in the future.
- MHN will ensure; by written correspondence (to include certification), that our subcontractors' with subcontracting plans provide the prime contract number, our own DUNS number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, and email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting the reports, to our subcontractors with subcontracting plans.

2.11 Records to be Maintained

MHN will maintain records to demonstrate that our Small Business Subcontracting Program policies and procedures have been implemented. Additionally, records will be maintained, to track actual subcontracted dollars as compared to planned subcontracted dollars with the goal of assuring compliance with the requirements of this plan.

Examples of other records that are maintained are:

- SBI source lists, guides and other data, which enable procurement personnel to identify, develop and provide bid opportunities to such concerns
- Records of efforts to locate, obtain, and utilize SBI sources through contacts with government agencies and industry organizations
- Records of all awards of $100,000 or more, indicating on each solicitation (1) whether SBI concerns were solicited and, if not, why not, and (2) if applicable, the reason why the award was not made to a SBI concern
- Records of outreach efforts to contact trade associations, business development organizations, participation in conferences and trade fairs, and Veteran service organizations to locate SBI concerns
- Records of internal guidance and encouragement provided to procurement staff through workshops, seminars, training, etc., and monitoring performance to evaluate compliance with the program's requirement
- Records supporting award data submitted by the offeror to the government, including name, address, and business size of each subcontractor

2.12 MHN Functions Consistent With Efficient Contract Performance

Consistent with efficient contract performance, the following functions are accomplished through our day-to-day administration of the plan:

- Assist and encourage the participation of all potential subcontractors and SBI concerns by arranging solicitation requirements to ensure the requirements are not needlessly restrictive. The time to respond to solicitations, the quantity of product required, the technical specifications, and the delivery requirements will be designed to accommodate the needs of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. All SBI concerns will be given an opportunity to compete over a period of time, as subcontracting opportunities become available. Guidance and counsel are given to SBI concerns if they are not the selected offeror, whether it is based on non-competitiveness, or for any other reason
- Provide adequate and timely consideration for SBI concerns during the “make-or-buy” decision process. The capabilities of the SBI concerns will be considered prior to finalizing the “make or buy” decision
- Provide timely payment of amounts due pursuant to the terms of their subcontract. Payment procedures are set forth in accordance with our standard “Payments” clause, which is incorporated into every subcontract
- Counsel and discuss potential subcontracting opportunities with representatives of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. This guidance is provided on a daily basis by the Company’s procurement staff
- Confirm by using the CCR database or by contacting the SBA any subcontractor representing themselves as a HUBZone small business concern
- Provide notice to subcontractors concerning penalties and remedies they may incur as a result of misrepresenting their business classification/size for the purpose of obtaining a subcontract that is to be included as part or all of a goal contained in the MHN contracting plan
- Prior to contract award, inform in writing any unsuccessful small business concern the name and location of the successful offeror

2.13 Description of Good Faith Effort

MHN’s ability to meet the Small Business goals contained in this Plan is fully achievable as supported by the information above. However, we will nevertheless continue our efforts to expand small business participation in all areas that offer such potential. As opportunities arise that were not identified at the time of submission of our proposal, MHN will continue to reach out to our small business partners to satisfy those requirements whenever reasonable and supportable. Further, MHN will continue to expand our MFLC network with qualified independent subcontractor counselors who are SDVOSB and VOSB. We will continue to urge our small business counselors, where applicable, to seek out SBA certification of their HUBZone business classification.

In addition, we continue to explore other possible AbilityOne organizations with which MHN may later subcontract should opportunities arise that were not envisioned during the preparation of this proposal. We will continue to work with Pride Industries (an AbilityOne organization) with which we have an ongoing relationship to identify possible subcontracting opportunities, perhaps in the areas of records retention, reproduction services, materials support, etc. should such requirements materialize under the resulting Contract. MHN is committed to further developing and expanding our small business/AbilityOne partners.

VOLUME II: SUBCONTRACTING PLAN (FACTOR 4)

1.0 Subfactor I: Subcontract Management (L.18, M.4)

This Volume II, Subcontracting Plan, was prepared in full compliance with all requirements of Sections L and M of RFP No. D11PS18854 and the Contract for the MFLC Program. Included herein please find full details on MHN subcontract management approach for the Contract, plus our proposed Small Business Subcontracting Plan that includes revised dollar and percentage goals we propose subcontracting across the various small business categories. Changes to our plan take into account the Government’s request for longer duration of assignments and the need for more local counselors.

Volume IIB was constructed to comply with the Solicitation’s requirements supporting the Child & Youth Behavioral (CYB) Mission Execution Task (MET), as detailed below:

- Section 1.0: Addresses Subcontract Management compliance
- Section 2.0: Addresses the Small Business Subcontracting Plan specifics

In continuation of the ongoing practices under our existing Contract, MHN will utilize certain functions of our corporate affiliate, HNFS, to support Contract. Specifically, within the context of this Subcontracting Plan, MHN will continue to utilize HNFS’ Government Contracts Department to provide the requisite subcontract management, subcontract purchasing and subcontract oversight functions. This department, headed by the Vice President of Government Contracts, provides full contract and subcontract management services to both MHN and HNFS under our Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA) – approved Contractor Purchasing System. Reporting directly to the Vice President of Government Contracts is the Director of Government Contracts. The Director of Government Contracts (characterized as “Contract Administrator” for purposes of Key Personnel assigned to the Contract) has direct contract administration responsibility for MHN’s Contract.

MHN’s solution to subcontracting counselor services is comprised of two (2) separate approaches. First, in order to comply with recent and evolving Government requirements (including longer duration assignments and the need for more local counselors); we will recruit our pool of employed MFLC counselors from our robust provider network of independent behavioral health providers. In addition, secondly, we will rely upon a major subcontractor, (b) (4) to provide counselors. This solution will ensure comprehensive, timely, and effective provision of important and necessary non-medical problem solving counseling services to our military Service Members and their families under the MFLC Program. In addition to subcontracting counseling services, MHN will also be subcontracting with an AbilityOne company, (b) (4), to provide administrative personnel in support of MHN’s Program Management function. (b) (4) will be our vendor for counselor contact cards and nametags to be purchased for the program by MHN. Finally, we will be subcontracting to (b) (4) for continued information technology support services for our Information Warehouse. With the exception of (b) (4) a large business that operates under a corporate enterprise-wide service level agreement for the provision of certain information technology support services, MHN will be applying all our available subcontracting dollars to small business concerns.

MHN will continue to afford our small business network counselor partners with participation under the MFLC Program. Our long legacy of collaboration with our network of small business counselors provides MHN with excellent experience in managing, coordinating, and controlling the subcontracting activity inherent in placing counselors throughout the United States and around the world. The ability to subcontract timely, professional, face-to-face counseling in places such as the Horn of Africa, Europe, the Asian Pacific Rim, and U.S. territories is not easily mastered, nor maintained. Ensuring that counselors are in-place, when/where required, and addressing all possible logistical challenges requires a dedicated, knowledgeable, experienced group of professionals. These logistical challenges include, but are not necessarily limited to, for example:

- Accommodating legal considerations (international immigration and employment, labor, tax and business practices and regulations)
- Determining applicable visa requirements and processes
- Ensuring counselors' Theater-specific training
- Arranging travel and lodging
- Providing requisite technology for on-line activity reporting
- Coordinating often-changing conditions "on the ground"
- Replacing counselors as needed due to urgent personal or family issues

MHN's MFLC Program management team has experienced all of these challenges and has developed efficient processes, procedures, systems, and technology responses that will allow us to continue to ensure that the counseling needs of our dedicated Service Members and their families are addressed in the best possible way under the MFLC Program. Our service-delivery model under the MFLC Program could not be accomplished without our network of small business partners, we are proud of the level of expertise, commitment, and MFLC-specific experience these counselors, and small companies bring our team.

The specifics of how we select, integrate, manage, and communicate with our small business subcontractors, a description of their important work efforts, and how their work effort will contribute to MHN's ability to meet the government's goals for the various small business categories, are fully addressed in the following sections. We will subcontract (b) (4) of the effort for the Base and all Option Periods of the CYB MET of the MFLC Program. In so doing, we will also meet or exceed the government's established small business goals in multiple small business categories. We will accomplish this through the continued use of our extensive MFLC network of independent small business counselor subcontractors, under a First-Tier subcontract with (b) (4) (an (b) (4) and Small Disadvantaged Business), and through the use of an AbilityOne company, (b) (4). Effective utilization of our small business partners will be accomplished while ensuring their use is consistent with, quality of performance, and full compliance with all contract performance requirements.

The MFLC Team

MHN's truly exceptional team will ensure the provision of comprehensive, timely, and professional counseling services, while concurrently addressing the desire to afford our small business partners opportunities for maximum participation in the Program.

- First, and foremost, MHN will continue to leverage our in-place contracted behavioral health provider network of over MFLC small business subcontractor counselors that have been providing, and continue to provide, excellent counseling services under our existing Contract. Nearly every counselor with whom MHN has subcontracted under our current Contract has self-certified as a small business concern as defined pursuant to 12CFR121, and over 50% are certified Woman-Owned Small Businesses. Additionally, many have further self-certified as Veteran-Owned Small Business, Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business, or Small Disadvantaged Business Concerns. We discuss this more at length, later in this volume.

- (b) (4), an (b) (4) as (b) (4) is considered by MHN to be a major and critical First-Tier subcontractor. They will be providing fulltime MFLC. (b) (4) meets the requirements of an (b) (4), and a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) concern), as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN’s small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals.

By leveraging our existing MFLC network of independent counselor small business subcontractors (as discussed in more detail below), and through our established subcontract with (b) (4), MHN can offer and substantiate a subcontracting approach that will meet and/or exceed many of the small business goals established by the MFLC Program Solicitation. In addition, through our use of an AbilityOne company for the provision of administrative support personnel, and provision of certain of our other direct costs, we will be able to meet/exceed the AbilityOne goal established by the Solicitation.

We believe the strength of our approach is to effectively manage our cross section of counselor subcontractors under the MFLC Program, which offers the government substantive and verifiable benefits, which we highlight in Exhibit 1-1.

Exhibit 1-1. Subcontract Management Approach Strengths and Benefits

1.1 Subcontracting Plan Conforming to FAR Subpart 19.7 (L.18, M.4)

Please note that to respond to the specific Sections L and M compliance requirements, in a manner consistent with the order in which the same were required by the Solicitation, our responses to the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) 19.7 requirements will be found in several areas throughout this Volume II, as opposed to a stand-alone Small Business Subcontracting Plan. However, our Plan is nevertheless in full accord with the requirements of FAR 19.7 and DFARS 215.304. Our Small Business Subcontracting Plan in Section 2 provides a comprehensive compliance cross reference for ease in evaluating our Plan for compliance with each of the stipulated requirements detailed in FAR 19.704.

MHN's Approved Purchasing System and Subcontracting Program

MHN enjoys the benefits of a Contractor Purchasing System, inclusive of its Small Business Subcontracting Program, that has been approved by the DCMA. Our long-established Small Business Subcontracting Program is embraced by the highest levels of our organization and is in complete compliance with both the regulatory requirements detailed in the FAR and in the spirit of the Small Business Act. Requisite policies, procedures, and processes support our Program. The approved Small Business Program has, achieved multiple “Outstanding” Ratings and a “Highly Successful” Rating, from the DCMA for its Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) and Woman-owned Small Business (WOSB) concerns.

MHN understands the necessity for, and has always been a strong proponent of, affording small businesses the maximum practicable opportunity to compete for subcontracting actions consistent with efficient contract performance. We commit to providing advice, assistance, and business counsel to these companies to help facilitate their success. Our efforts are extended to all categories of small businesses, including those identified as Small Business (SB), SDB, WOSB, Veteran-owned Small Business (VOSB), Service-disabled Veteran-owned Small Business (SDVOSB), and Historically Underutilized Business Zone (HUBZone).

We also fully understand Department of Defense's (DoD) Subcontracting Program and the associated regulatory foundation for the same, such as shown below:

- Section 8(d) Small Business Act – 15 USC 637(d)
- Section 15(g) Small Business Act – 15 USC 644(g)
- FAR 19.7/DFARS 219.7 Small Business Subcontracting Program
- FAR 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns
- FAR 52.219-9, Subcontracting Plan

1.1.1 Subcontract Management Processes (L.18, M.4)

Many of the counseling services under the MFLC Program will be accommodated through two (2) separate, and well established, subcontracting approaches. (b) (4) has been issued an individual subcontract that specifically identifies the type, quantity, and location of CYB counselors, structured under separate, fixed priced Contract Line Item Numbers (CLINs) which will accommodate the Contract's CLIN structure. (b) (4) and MHN will operate within parallel lines of communication: the operational supervisors from both (b) (4) and MHN will be subject to subcontract oversight or report up to MHN's current Manager, respectively, and therefore, any performance issues will be resolved through the existing, proven chain of command.

MHN will also subcontract with counselors from our MFLC network of provider independent counselor subcontractors using its well-established approach of issuing individual Counselor Task Orders (CTO) under executed Provider Services Task Order Agreements (PSTOA). Every counselor subcontractor must execute a PSTOA as a condition of joining the MFLC network. The PSTOA establishes an umbrella subcontract arrangement with overarching terms and conditions and under which individual CTOs can be quickly issued to address Rotational, On-Demand, and Surge requirements as they materialize under the Contract. This approach has works extremely well under the Contract and has allowed for clear cost and performance accountability for each CTO and its associated assignment.

MHN is uniquely qualified in managing the challenges peculiar to provision of subcontracted counselors around the world, under the MFLC Program. We have managed the existing MFLC Program since its pilot phase in 2004 and through its unprecedented growth under the current Contract. As the prime contractor, MHN takes full responsibility to manage all program activities, including all subcontractors, delivering seamless, high quality services to the Government. MHN establishes and manages program expectations and standards of performance for all MFLC Program Management structure members through detailed procedures and agreements tailored to the needs of the MFLC Program and agreed upon by all involved principals before initiation of any program work. These procedures and agreements establish objective subcontract performance standards in all areas relevant to service delivery. MHN's MFLC Program Director and Contract Administrator will implement (develop/approve where necessary) all procedures and agreements specific to support of the MFLC Program. Although the Contract Administrator will provide overarching management of all subcontracting activities, MHN is supplementing the management team by including our Subcontracts Manager as one of our key personnel. The Subcontracts Manager, who reports to the Contract Administrator, will prepare and implement the First Tier subcontract with (b) (4). The Subcontracts Manager will then provide direct, day-to-day professional contract administration of the subcontract and provide backup contract/subcontract administration support to the Contract Administrator for the MFLC Program. The Subcontracts Manager will work with (b) (4) Program Manager to ensure compliance with the terms and conditions of the (b) (4) subcontract including, without limitation, timely submission of invoices and subcontract deliverables and addressing any performance issues that may arise.

MHN will also draft and install a Purchase Order with (b) (4), our proposed AbilityOne company, for the provision of administrative support services personnel, as well as the provision of certain other direct costs (counselor contact cards and nametags) as those needs arise under the Contract. An agreement has also been issued to (b) (4) for information technology services in support of our Information Warehouse. Our established, documented, and consistently maintained DCMA-approved Contractor Purchasing System will ensure adequate controls through which MHN will acquire quality products and services necessary for contract performance. Our system further ensures that all transactions, except where otherwise justified, are secured on a fully competitive basis and all prices are determined fair and reasonable. Additionally, our processes ensure the appropriateness of all contracted services, through evaluation of the types and quantities of labor, skill level, labor category mix, and direct labor hours proposed to be expended. All transactions are fully supported by user requirements documents. Our First-Tier subcontractor, and all counselors subcontracted through the MFLC network, will report any operational issues having an impact to their on-the-ground performance through the MHN Program Director's Field Operations organization. (b) (4) Program Manager will all be fully integrated into the MFLC Program management team. Exhibit 1-2 outlines the key functions associated with our approach to managing our major First-Tier subcontractor. The Purchasing Department, under the Contract Administrator's leadership, will also provide the MHN Program Director's Business Operations organization with contract administration support for (b) (4) and (b) (4).

Our subcontractors' performance will be overseen by our Program Director's organization that will be supported by our Subcontracts Manager. Collectively, our management team will manage, monitor, and review all subcontractor work. Our Business Operations organization will oversee the operations and administrative support services provided by (b) (4) and (b) (4) information technology support services for our Information Warehouse. | MHN Closely Manages Subcontractor Program Manager | MHN requires that First-Tier subcontractor (b) (4) assign a Program Manager to the MFLC Program to manage their own performance and for issue escalation and resolution. The MHN Program Director will maintain frequent and open lines of communication with the subcontractor Program Manager, including weekly conference calls and scheduled meetings as circumstances dictate. |
| MHN Communicates and Reports | In addition to frequent communication between MHN and (b) (4) staff, the First-Tier Subcontractor will submit monthly progress reports, with data on the financial and technical status of our tasks. The Subcontractor Program Manager is required to attend scheduled management status and performance monthly reviews/conference calls. |

The Program Management team will work closely with all assigned network counselors to ensure the provision of required services continues to meet their operational requirements and quality standards. We will conduct weekly status calls with all CYB-MFLCs, address any subcontract performance issues/challenges, and brief CYB-MFLCs on program updates as necessary. Any service-delivery or operational issues which may arise with our Network counselors that require MFLC Program Management involvement will be vetted by the Field Operations team and technical/operational direction provided to the CYB-MFLCs as needed.

Our Program Director will ensure that all MHN subcontractors are meeting their performance metrics and deliverables. MHN will involve our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4) in its status and performance management reviews.

Communication with our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4), is an important element of MHN’s integrated management approach. This approach includes a set of meetings and reviews to ensure regular communication and joint review of program status, resolution of issues, and a common understanding of work to be performed. In addition, our subcontractors have access to information on our MFLC Fulfillment System (MFS) that will facilitate their performance of services.

MHN will establish clear lines of communication with (b) (4), as shown in Exhibit 1-3, the Program Director, will have ultimate responsibility for compliant, successful, and integrated service delivery. Supported in this effort by the Field Operations Managers and Counseling Supervisors for the network of independent subcontractor counselors. The Contract Administrator, and his direct report, the Subcontractor Manager will work with our First-Tier subcontractor's individual Program Manager to ensure timely and compliant administration of the subcontract. The Subcontracts Manager will draft, negotiate and install the required First-Tier subcontract using the agreed upon work share, deliverables, and compliance. The subcontracts will be effectuated in full accord with MHN's subcontract policies and procedures as required under our government-approved purchasing system.

The Quality Assurance (QA) Manager, will audit all requisite processes in compliance with ISO standards, Quality Control Plan (QCP) and Quality Assurance Surveillance Plan (QASP) requirements, lead and facilitate Quality Improvement Project teams, and make recommendations to improve services, including tracking and verifying formal Corrective Action Plans (CAPs). All aspects of subcontracted program operations will report up to the MFLC Field Operations Manager and to the Program Director through integrated transition meetings, status meetings, management reports, and formal in-progress reviews (IPRs).

While MHN has the capacity, capability, and scale to support all mission tasks as a sole contractor, we believe it is in our and the Government's best interest to broaden our skill mix, expertise, and capacity for the new contract. Our general selection criteria for a strategic partner included:

- High standards of business ethics and excellent past performance in behavioral health care staffing for military customers
- Successful experience supporting programs of similar size, scope, and complexity that we intend to subcontract
- Expertise supporting performance-based contracts and the demonstrated ability to perform to relevant metrics identified in the QASP
- Ability to meet the capacity requirements as outlined in the Performance Work Statement (PWS)
- Ability to manage staff and work fluctuations as a result of CYB-MFLC peak counselor deployment periods, surges, Contracting Officer's Technical Representative (COTR) invocation of the Augmentation CLINs, or Contracting Officer (CO) invocation of the Optional CLINs, under tight deadlines
- Verified expertise in understanding and complying with FAR flow-down requirements
- Requisite qualifications for meeting one or more of the small business concerns categories requirements

(b) (4) will further augment MHN's corporate capabilities, past performance, and capacity to perform under the new Contract with scale, flexibility, diversity of talent and efficiencies. (b) (4) has more than 18 years of demonstrated expertise in rapid clinical staffing for government agencies and long-term retention of full time staff. (b) (4) brings the benefit of direct and relevant experience in the management of programs for the U.S. Army Medical Command (MEDCOM), Navy, Air Force, and Department of Veterans Affairs providing behavioral healthcare professionals to staff CONUS and OCONUS Military Treatment Facilities (MTFs). In addition, they have provided behavioral health professionals for other government agencies including National Institutes of Health (NIH) and the Library of Congress. With expertise in rapid full-time hiring and staffing, (b) (4) will be responsible for providing full-time MFLCs to support the MFLC Program. An (b) (4), (b) (4) is a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., SDB concern), as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4), is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN's small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals.

In addition to our First-Tier subcontractor, MHN has an established, robust, MFLC provider network of licensed counselors to fulfill short term and backfilled assignments. These professional counselors are independent subcontractors, many with their own established practices, or are members of small independent subcontractor provider groups. MHN will use only counselors/companies that have self-certified as a small business concern. As mentioned earlier, each of these counselors are required to execute an agreement as part of the process of being added to the MFLC network. The agreement predisposes quick engagement of these counselors when selected for a given CYB-MFLC assignment as all non-assignment specific terms and conditions have already been agreed to. Thus, when a given assignment is accepted by a counselor, only the details of that particular Assignment need be included in the CTO. As assignment requirements are identified under the MFLC Program, MHN will receive a Counselor Request Form (CRF) from MFLC Business Operations, detailing the particulars of the given Assignment, e.g., location, assignment duration and location, specialized qualification requirements (e.g., prior experience with being the first CYB counselor at a new location). An interested counselor possessing any stipulated specialized attributes/experience and, whenever possible, who is locally located to the assignment location, will be selected, and offered a CTO. Assignment opportunities will be rotated throughout the Network to afford all qualified counselors an opportunity of participating in the MFLC Program.

MHN has a rigorous program for directing, coordinating, and integrating the efforts of all personnel on the MFLC Program. Our First-Tier subcontractor's role on the program is to provide full-time CYB-MFLC counselors. The subcontract to be held by these (b) (4) will be contractually administered by MHN's Subcontractor Manager who will ensure full and timely compliance with all applicable subcontract terms and conditions. Operationally, the fulltime counselors provided by our (b) (4) will be directed, coordinated, and integrated using the same methods and means as MHN employs with our MFLC network independent subcontractor counselors. MHN's combined MFLC network of independent subcontractor counselors and First-Tier subcontractor will be managed as follows:

- Field Operations Management. Actual counseling service performance of (b) (4) fulltime counselors and MHN's independent subcontractor counselors will be managed through MHN's Field Operations organization, which ensures that services are timely and successfully delivered according to assignment requirements. Counseling Supervisors provide direction, coordination, and integration of efforts for counselors on the ground through weekly telephone conferences, review of daily Activity Form completion, and availability 24x7x365 to address issues or support Duty to Warn (DTW) resolution per established procedures.

- MFLC Fulfillment System (MFS). MHN will provide an MFLC (b) (4)

- Reporting. (b) (4)s Program Manager will be responsible for documenting and reporting recruiting and hiring actions for all open counselor positions through the portal technology on a weekly basis. Using standard reporting conventions agreed to by both MHN and (b) (4), MHN's program management team will have a near-real-time view into recruiting and retention performance. Statistics from this shared management report, in turn, will feed the MHN Team Performance Management Report, the Executive Dashboard, Monthly Utilization Reports, and Monthly Contract & Financial Status Report deliverables.

- Reviews. MHN has established a set of program management reviews, which will include all subcontractor program performance information. These reviews include the Performance Management Review (PMR) (monitor metrics across key performance indicators, including subcontractor performance), Subcontractor Performance Review (presentation by subcontractor of preceding months performance including trends and open issues, and discussion of any corrective action plans (CAPs) invoking subcontractor performance), and the Subcontractor Management Review (a quarterly meeting with upper management to assess overall subcontractor performance)
- Quality. MHN has selected a First-Tier subcontractor whose approach to quality mirrors our own. The subcontract incorporates specific quality standards of service delivery against which we can monitor performance. We have accomplished this by using the MHN Quality Specification that guides (b) (4) in the development of their QCPs. They are be required to submit written Subcontractor QCPs that fully meet all requirements of our quality specifications and which will require approval and acceptance before the start of service delivery. In addition, the MHN Team QASP integrates prime and subcontractor performance for comprehensive and consistent government quality surveillance activities.
- Security. MHN is extremely qualified and experienced in effectively addressing the unique requirements inherent in higher-profile and challenging assignments, such as those associated with work in classified environments, or those in locations such as the Horn of Africa. Through our Security department, MHN has secured a Facilities Clearance (FCL) granted by the U.S. Defense Security Service (DSS).

MFLC-CYB Provider Network

MHN's team is comprised of the MHN CYB-MFLC network of licensed and credentialed independent subcontractor counselors which MHN has developed under the current Contract, and which will continue to expand under the MFLC Program. Unlike generic commercial networks, 100% of our counselors are immediately ready, willing, credentialed, qualified, and MFLC-trained to accept assignments with the MFLC Program. Not only have we fully vetted these counselor's credentials through our URAC-approved credentialing process to ensure they meet all program criteria, we have also completed their criminal history background checks (CHBCs), and interviewed them to determine their suitability for successfully assisting military families. All of our network counselors have already completed pre-assignment orientation and training regimen that combines Internet-based learning with hands-on applications. Our training plan maintains a 100% course completion rate prior to assignment, which requires a passing exam score, reinforced by field-tested aggressive communication, and a follow-up plan to ensure learning retention. MHN has also developed an OSD-approved new training program that was released after contract award. The course covers General Orientation, Military Culture Sensitization, DTW, and Activity Forms. Once final approval of the course is received from OSD, the successful completion of this 3-hour training course is mandatory for counselors prior to assignment. All network counselors will use our MHN MFLC Portal to access required training and complete Activity Forms to record data on the field-based work.

Each network counselor is assigned to a Counseling Supervisor responsible for overseeing CYB-MFLC counseling services for the location to which they are assigned. Counseling Supervisors will perform consultant subcontract performance reviews within two (2) days of assignment completion. These assess performance against subcontract requirements such as the counselor’s ability to give presentations, build relationships with points of contact (POCs) and the military Command, work well with other counselors, understand, and relate to issues facing Service Members, and work within and adapt to military culture and installation routines. These become a permanent part of each counselor’s performance record and will be used in determining if a counselor is suitable to a specific assignment.

MHN monitors the credentialed, licensed, and trained MFLC network to ensure high quality, empathetic and appropriate support of military families. We conduct 100% verification of all credentials during the initial application and re-credentialing phases. Further, prior to any counselor assignment, MHN verifies that licensure is in good standing and will remain current for the entire period of the assignment, prior to approving a counselor for an assignment. MHN’s credentialing program is routinely audited and approved to URAC and state regulatory requirements.

1.1.1.4 Decision Making (L.18, M.4)

As the prime contractor for the MFLC Program, MHN assumes full managerial responsibility and accountability for our performance and that of our subcontractors. The ultimate decision making authority will reside with the MHN MFLC Program Director. Within this construct, our First Tier Subcontractor is required to manage the work, with their own managers and staff, within their area(s) of responsibility as defined in their teaming agreement and according to the overall MFLC Program management, staffing, and quality control plans.

1.1.1.5 Information Sharing (L.18)

MHN recognizes the importance of sharing information necessary to the successful delivery of services across all team members and counselors. To this end, we are committed to open and frequent communication among all subcontractors participating on the MFLC Program. We have established processes for information sharing including regularly scheduled management meetings, weekly supervisor calls, and the MHN MFLC Portal. (b) (4) will have named a Program Manager who will be dedicated to the MFLC Program as a key person. This manager will be a vital member of our management team, will participate in all management meetings, and will be responsible for ensuring that important program information is shared with their consultants in a timely manner. Exhibit 1-4 provides an overview of key formal activities we will use to share information with our First-Tier and network subcontractor counselors.

1.1.1.6 Problem Resolution (L.18, M.4)

Our PMR and Subcontractor Management Reviews, discussed in Section 1.1.1.3, will provide effective forums for early identification and resolution of issues. We will use these reviews to identify issues and develop mentoring and coaching strategies to provide subcontractors with the resources, processes, or tools needed to resolve issues and overcome problems before they affect performance. Should conflicts or problems with subcontractors occur, MHN will use the following steps to ensure the problem or conflict is resolved in a timely manner:

- For network counselors, the CYB-MFLC's Counseling Liaison will contact the consultant to advise them of the subcontract performance concern and provide details to help them resolve the issue. If after reasonable effort, the problem cannot be resolved, professional relations will be notified and the subcontract will be terminated or amended, as appropriate. For serious performance issues or violation of crucial Military protocols, the provider subcontract will be terminated and the counselor will be removed from our provider network. For issues with (b) (4), the problem or conflict will be escalated to the MFLC Program Director to identify the best resolution approach and marshal any additional resources needed to resolve the problem or conflict. If the problem or conflict cannot be resolved at this level, it will be escalated to the Program Executive for mediation. If they cannot be resolved at this level, the Program Executive will charge the Subcontracts Manager with preparing a formal letter to the subcontract manager describing the issues and remediation actions that need to be taken. We anticipate that most problems and conflicts will be resolved long before these formal notifications would need to be implemented. In the unlikely event that all informal and formal remediation approaches fail, MHN will remove the offending subcontractor from the program. The government will be informed of the problem and resolution efforts well before MHN takes this action.

MHN will manage our First Tier subcontract with (b) (4), using a subcontract that includes a specific scope of work, and applicable regulations, procedures and policies to which (b) (4) and our subcontractor personnel must adhere. MHN has established standards of service, based on contract and company requirements, for all independent subcontractor counselors and our First Tier subcontractor.

(b) (4) is integral to MHN’s successful performance on the Contract. (b) (4) and MHN will operate within parallel lines of communication: the operational supervisors from both (b) (4) and MHN will be accountable to MHN’s Manager and therefore, any performance issues will be resolved through the existing, proven chain of command. The Manager will continue to provide leadership and delivery of oversight services with the management staff as a whole (for both (b) (4) and MHN) across the applicable footprint. In this fashion, all counselors remain a continuously dedicated and cohesive. We have in place processes and procedures to continually monitor their efforts against established performance standards. Exhibit 1-5 shows MHN’s approach to monitoring (b) (4) subcontract performance. Our Integrated monthly and quarterly Performance Management Reviews provides oversight of key performance indicators of subcontractor and prime program operations. We will use our CAP process to monitor and resolve any performance issues and validate performance improvement.

Exhibit 1-5. MHN First-Tier Subcontractor Performance Management

MHN’s QA Manager will use the processes and procedures outlined in the Quality Control Plan (QCP) to monitor the quality of subcontractor, as well as MHN, efforts. This QCP is built to ensure we meet the requirements of the Government’s QASP, and, therefore, perform successfully on the contract.

1.1.1.8 Prior Relationship with Proposed Subcontractors (L.18)

Our CYB-MFLC network, is composed independently contracted counselors many of whom MHN has had a long-established relationship. Many of these professional relationships extend back to the original MFLC Pilot Program. Through an ongoing evaluation of the MFLC network participants and each counselor’s respective assignments, only the finest professionals will be allowed to continue to provide services under this important program. Counselors are licensed, trained, and uniquely experienced to satisfy the needs of military Service Members and their families. The type of issues faced by military members and their families are often unique and require help from counselors who have experience with such unique needs. Unlike other companies, whose lack of experience may lead them to perceive that the MFLC Program is just a matter of placing any given counselor on the ground, MHN fully appreciates the extreme challenges to placing the right counselor on the right assignment. Our substantial experience and relationship with our Network of subcontractor counselors allows MHN to readily identify particular attributes that must be possessed by a given counselor for a given assignment. Knowing which counselor has had direct experience, for example, with handling a terrible loss of life incident in a recent In-theater deployment is critical. Alternatively, having a counselor who has acted in an “embedded” capacity with a given brigade, and has established a hard-earned level of trust from its members, cannot be accomplished without a legacy relationship between the contractor and the counselor. MHN and our network will bring this unique experience to the MFLC Program.

1.1.2 Ability to Meet Subcontracting Goals on Previous Government Contracts (L.18)

MHN has an exceptional performance record under the existing Contract of not only meeting, but also far exceeding the established goals for subcontracting to SB, WOSB, and VOSB concerns. Our revised Contract goal for total small business participation of (b) (4) has been far surpassed; we have placed greater than (b) (4) of all subcontracted dollars with small business concerns. Exhibit 1-6 shows the dollar and percentage goals and actual cumulative subcontractor performance values under the Contract. The percentages are taken from our subcontracting report ended March 2015. In accordance with our established government-approved Contractor Purchasing System procedures, each and every subcontract and/or purchase order issued by MHN is conditioned upon receipt of a Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) that is completed by the respective counselor/subcontractor, or vendor. No subcontract or purchase order can be effectuated without MHN’s receipt of a subcontractor /vendor’s self-certification of its business size. The SBQ is used for this purpose. Entry of the subcontract/vendor transaction in our purchase order system requires a valid vendor number, and by policy, procedure, and process, a vendor number cannot be assigned without MHN first obtaining the requisite SBQ completed by the subcontractor or vendor. Thus, MHN’s reported performance against our small business goals, which is routinely reported to the government, is strictly based on documented purchasing transactions for which MHN has received the required certifications from our vendors and subcontractors as to their business size. Only companies representing their small business status as HUBZone small business concerns are required to obtain Small Business Administration (SBA) certification of such status. Companies of all other small business size categories (e.g., SB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and SDB) are allowed, per statute and regulation, to “self-certify” as to their status. Thus, as allowed by Federal regulation, MHN relies upon a subcontractor /vendor’s self-certification as to its business size.

The majority MFLC Network independent subcontractor counselors with whom MHN has subcontracted, since the original MFLC Pilot program in 2004, to date under our existing Contract, has self-certified. Based on a recent review of our purchase transactions, greater than 99% have self-certified as a Small Business concern and/or other small business subcategory such as WOSB, VOSB, etc. During March 2012, MHN asked all subcontracted CYB network counselors to provide recertification of their small business size status by completion of our Small Business Questionnaire. Less than 1% self-certified as Large Business or Non-Profit. The balance of greater than 99% independent subcontractor counselors self-certified as Small Business. Of those companies self-certifying as a small business, the preponderance also certified under the following small business subcategories:

|---|-------|
| Small Disadvantaged Business Concern | 19.7% |
| Woman-Owned Small Business Concern | 72.5% |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business Concern | 7.8% |
| Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business Concern | 2.8% |

Note: Because companies may certify for multiple small business subcategories (e.g., SDB, WOSB and VOSB), or may not further certify for any small business subcategories, the total of all small business subcategories may not sum to 100%.

Although MHN has had great success in meeting many of the DoD small business goals under our existing Contract, (as depicted under Exhibit 1-6 below), we have been challenged in some small business categories. One challenge with the HUBZone goal is founded in the nature of the population of our independently subcontracted counselors. Our MFLC network is populated with counselors who are nearly all independent small business contractors (sole proprietorships, and a few small provider groups). Typically, this counselor population has historically provided their services to the commercial market place and, except for the MFLC contract, do not generally support federal government contracts/programs. As such, few, if any, of these independent practitioners find value in obtaining the required formal SBA certification of their status as a HUBZone Small Business concern. Such SBA certification as a HUBZone concern brings these providers no perceived benefit in their relationship with the commercial market place. To address this single issue of insufficient HUBZone subcontractor counselors, MHN intends to offer assistance to the network to help them in identifying whether they meet the requirements for HUBZone eligibility. For those that do meet eligibility, MHN will offer to assist those counselors in preparing and processing their applications through the SBA in order to secure their SBA certification. We will educate these particular providers that securing an SBA HUBZone certification is advantageous under a federal government program such as MFLC, as it will allow MHN to specifically target an increased level of work to them once we are aware of their status. In so doing, we believe we will be successful in facilitating these small businesses in obtaining their SBA certification as a HUBZone small business. MHN will then be able to increase our HUBZone small business participation under the MFLC Program.

MHN has identified (b) (4), which is a fully qualified minority and economically disadvantaged business enterprise (i.e., SDB concern) as expressly provided for under 43 U.S.C 1626 (and as invoked by FAR 19.703(c)(1)(i)). Therefore, per 43 U.S.C. 1626, (b) (4), as an (b) (4) is credited towards the satisfaction of MHN’s small and small disadvantaged business subcontracting goals. In light of the critical support they will be bringing by provision of substantive numbers of counselors, MHN will be able to substantially improve our performance under the SDB goal.

Exhibit 1-6. Subcontractor Performance Values Under Current Contract

1.1.3 Description of Work Small Businesses are Proposed to Perform (L.18)

MHN is committed to providing meaningful work to our small business partners. The vast majority of subcontracting opportunities under the resulting Contract will be in providing non-medical problem-solving counseling services. The counseling services must be furnished by formally educated, credentialed, experienced, licensed, and trained counselors. Our identified First-Tier subcontractor and MFLC network provider subcontractors will fill vital roles in our successful execution of the MFLC Program performing very valuable, challenging, and rewarding work.

Our First-Tier subcontractor, (b) (4) will be responsible for providing full-time counselors MHN will staff all other positions not allocated to (b) (4). All other CYB-MFLC subcontracted counseling services will be accomplished through the use of our established MFLC network. Through this network, MHN will draw from a large and well-established, trained and vetted group of professional counselors and small provider groups to fill all other subcontracted counseling efforts. This includes independent subcontractors with either their own established practice or are members of small provider groups.

In addition to subcontracting counseling services, MHN will also be subcontracting with an AbilityOne company, (b) (4) to provide administrative personnel in support of MHN’s Program Management function. Additionally, (b) (4) will be our vendor for counselor contact cards and nametags to be purchased for the program by MHN. (b) (4) support is not considered by MHN to meet the definition of a “critical” or “major” subcontractor and MHN, therefore, has not entered into a formal Teaming Agreement (as envisioned by FAR Subpart 9.6) with them. However, they will be an important contributor to the program, accomplishing very meaningful work.

1.1.4 Subcontractors Performing Major/Critical Aspects of Requirements (L.18, M.4)

Providing face-to-face counseling services represents the most significant aspects of the Contract. We recognize the importance of this work and have established formal relationship with (b) (4) and our network of qualified counselors to fulfill these critical roles. MHN has teamed with (b) (4) to augment our corporate capabilities, past performance, and capacity to perform under the new Contract with even greater scale, flexibility, diversity of talent and efficiencies than today. (b) (4) is a fully qualified Small Disadvantaged Business concern and will be responsible for providing full-time CYB-MFLCs MHN has an established, robust, MFLC provider network that possess the requisite additional experience and qualifications to perform CYB MFLC counseling. These counselors are independent subcontractors with either their own established practice or are members of small provider groups. Greater than 99% are self-certified business concerns and will be providing non-medical problem-solving counseling services.

2.0 Subfactor II: Small Business Goals (L.18, M.4)

MHN takes its commitment to small business participation seriously as evidenced by the percentage and type of work we have committed to small business concerns for the Contract. We recognize that the government has established challenging goals for participation by various small business concern categories and a goal for participation by an AbilityOne organization(s). As will be supported below, MHN has constructed a team, which will allow us to meet and/or exceed all established DoD goals for each of these categories.

2.1 Small Business Participation/Subcontracting Plan (L.18, M.4)

MHN operates under a Contractor Purchasing System, inclusive of its Small Business Subcontracting Program, that has been approved by DCMA. Our long-established Small Business Subcontracting Program is embraced by the highest levels of our organization and is in complete compliance with both the regulatory requirements detailed in the FAR and DFARS, and in the spirit of the Small Business Act. Our Program is supported by requisite policies, procedures, and processes.

MHN understands the necessity for, and is a strong proponent of, affording small businesses the maximum practicable opportunity to compete for subcontracting actions consistent with efficient contract performance. We commit to provide advice, assistance, and business counsel to these companies to help facilitate their success. Our efforts are extended to all categories of small businesses, including those identified as AbilityOne, SB, SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and HUBZone.

This Individual Contract Plan has been developed in accordance with the following FAR requirements listed in Exhibit 2-1.

2.2 Commitment/Understanding of CYB-MFLC Small Business Goals (L.18, M.4, J.6)

2.2.1 Method for Developing Subcontracting Goals (FAR 19.704 (a) (1) and (2))

We developed our subcontracting goals for this effort after careful consideration of the scope and volume of counseling work described in the solicitation. We also considered our Program Management approach to supporting such work and identified associated subcontracting opportunities in the area of administrative support personnel services. Opportunities were also found in our proposed Other Direct Costs. The solicitation provides for the following broad areas of contract performance for the CYB-MFLC Mission Execution Task area: MFLC Rotational, On-Demand, School and Summer Programs, and Surge counselors. Our proposed Subcontracting Plan allows us to address the PWS components, and to additionally subcontract some components of our Program Management support staff and Other Direct Costs, as shown below in Exhibit 2-2.

Exhibit 2-2. Products and Services to be Subcontracted

MHN determined that all counseling services provide an opportunity for subcontracting across the full spectrum of small business categories (i.e., SB, SDB, WOSB, VOSB, SDVOSB, and HUBZone), all of which are represented within our long-standing professional MFLC network of independent counselor subcontractors. Additionally, MHN has also constructed a First Tier Subcontract with (b) (4) an SDB. The combination of our MFLC network and First Tier Subcontractor will not only ensure successful performance of the MFLC Program counseling services, it will also allow MHN to distribute counseling work to our small business partners. Further, we have identified and allocated a number of administrative support personnel services to (b) (4) our AbilityOne partner. In addition, they will be our vendor for the provision of counselor contact cards and nametags. Although not considered a critical or major subcontractor, (b) (4) support services represent an important and valuable component of the work effort.

The available DoD Small Business Subcontracting categories depicted in Attachment J-6 to the Contract are: AbilityOne, VOSB, SDVOSB, SB (the cumulative total of all small business subcategories), HUBZone, and SDB.

MHN's small business percentage goals shown above were calculated as a percentage of the proposed Total Available Subcontracted Dollars amount of (b) (4) inclusive of the Base and all Option Years is in excess of 25% of the proposed effort. Travel-related costs (airfare, lodging, per diem, tolls, car rental, gasoline, etc.) and insurance (Defense Base Act Workers Compensation) are not considered "subcontracted" costs and are not, therefore, included in the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars amount below).

We developed our small business percentage and dollar goals for the CYB-MFLC Mission Execution Task by analyzing each of the major components of the Total Available Subcontracted Dollars, i.e., Subcontracted Counseling Services, Administrative Personnel Support Services, Information Technology Support of Information Warehouse, and Other Direct Costs. With the exception of the Subcontracted Counseling Services component, all remaining estimated subcontracted dollar values are included directly into our calculation of our proposed small business category goals. The remaining component of subcontracted costs, the "Subcontracted Counseling Services" expenses, includes our MFLC Network counselors, and a portion of the counselors that are to be provided by our First-Tier Subcontractor, (b) (4). (b) (4) is included in our later calculation of dollars to be subcontracted to SDB concerns, as (b) (4) fully so qualifies.

Our established goals for VOSB, WOSB, SDB, and HUBZone concerns are all fully supported by the percentages within our Network. The other SB goal shown is simply the balance of subcontracted dollars that have been allocated under this analysis. In fact, the total value of (b) (4) represents the full MFLC-CYB small business goal. Having calculated the above small business category dollar amounts from our proposed MFLC network subcontracted amount, we then used those amounts to calculate our total small business subcontracting goals as shown below:

|----------------------|---------|--------|
| SDVOSB | | |
| Woman Owned | | |
| HUBZone | | |
| SDB | | |
| AbilityOne | | |
| Total Small Business | | |
| Large Business | | |
| Total | | |

Exhibit 2-4. Calculated Small Business Subcontract Dollars & Percentages

The reasonableness and achievability of each of the goals reflected in Exhibit 2-4 above for the various small business categories is supported below:

- AbilityOne. (b) (4) is an AbilityOne organization, the dollar amount estimated to be subcontracted to (b) (4) is based upon two (2) separate components, i.e., administrative labor and other direct costs. The first component is the estimated value of the administrative support services personnel that (b) (4) will be providing in support of MHN. The second component includes certain other direct costs included in MHN’s Price Proposal, which MHN intends to purchase through (b) (4), as the need for the same arises under the Contract. These other direct costs include counselor contact cards and nametags required to support the MFLC Program. These estimated other direct costs were included in MHN’s (as opposed to (b) (4)) proposed price, but will be purchased through (b) (4) as the requirements are definitized under the resulting Contract.

- Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB). (b) (4) an (b) (4) and a qualified SDB; we have executed an Agreement with (b) (4) for providing fulltime MFLC counselors in support of the MFLC Programs. Through the combination of a First Tier subcontract with (b) (4) and through effective distribution of counseling assignments to the SDBs within our network, MHN will meet or exceed the SDB goal of (b) (4)
- Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB). The (b) (4) goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC goals analysis. We will reach or exceed this goal by targeting additional assignments to SDVOSB concerns, thereby raising the dollar amount and resulting percentage subcontracted to the category.
- Veteran Owned Small Business (VOSB). The (b) (4) goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC Network goals analysis. It is supported by the results of our recent Small Business Questionnaire (SBQ) recertification by all network counselors.
- Women Owned Small Business (WOSB). The (b) (4) goal established by MHN for this small business category is based upon the dollar amount calculated from the MFLC goals analysis.

2.2.2 Goals Expressed in Percentages

|---|-----------------|
| AbilityOne Program | (b) (4) |
| Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) | (b) (4) |
| Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) | (b) (4) |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business (VOSB) | (b) (4) |
| Woman-Owned Small Business (WOSB) | (b) (4) |
| Historically Underutilized Business Zone (HUBZone) | (b) (4) |

Exhibit 2-5. MHN Meets or Exceeds the Government’s Small Business Subcontracting Goals in All Categories

The dollar values supporting the calculation of the above percentage goals are depicted in Exhibit 2-6. Please note that the percentage goals established for these individual small business categories (SDVOSB, VOSB Woman-Owned, etc.) will not sum to the “Small Business (cumulative total of all small business)” percentage reflected in the plan. This is due to the fact that a single small business concern may be counted toward multiple, individual goals. For example, a given company could qualify and self-certify as an SDB, Woman-Owned, and VOSB concern, and the subcontracted dollars/percentages associated with that concern will be counted in each of these example small business subcategories, in addition to being counted in the Small Business category. This approach to accounting for the various small business categories is in strict compliance with instructions provided by the Standard Form 294 (Subcontracting Report for Individual Contracts) and the Standard Form 295 (Summary Subcontract Report).

2.2.3 Total Dollars Planned to Be Subcontracted & Associated goals

| Business Category | Dollar Amount | Percentage Goal |
|---|---------------|-----------------|
| AbilityOne | $ | (b) (4) |
| Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| Woman-Owned Small Business | $ | |
| HUB Zone Small Business | $ | |
| Small Disadvantaged Business | $ | |

2.3 How SB Participation Will Contribute to Overall Subcontracting Goals (L.18)

MHN will leverage its long-established collaboration with our MFLC network, and our First Tier Team Member Subcontractors, (b) (4) to fully address the important counseling services required under the MFLC Program. These relationships all involve Small Business concerns that will completely contribute to MHN’s Subcontracting Goals. Our AbilityOne vendor, (b) (4) will bring important administrative personnel to support our program management staff. MHN will also use (b) (4) to supply certain other direct cost items.

2.4 Specific Efforts to Ensure Contract Meets or Exceeds Proposed Goals (L.18)

MHN’s ability to meet the various small business goals is fully addressed in Section 2.2.1 above. Each of the individual goals is supported by our First-Tier subcontractor, through our demonstrated performance experience using our CYB-MFLC network, and through our identified AbilityOne company. To ensure that we meet our individual small business categories MHN has issued the respective subcontract to (b) (4) for the provision of a component of counselors. Further, we will utilize our MFLC network in the provision of counseling services, thereby ensuring the use of our independent subcontractor counselors. To reach our AbilityOne goal, we will issue a purchase order to (b) (4) as previously discussed, and additional purchase orders for certain other direct costs required to support the MFLC Program. On at least a quarterly basis, MHN will review its small business performance against its established goals and identify any areas requiring improvement. If necessary, MHN will take aggressive action to ensure subcontracted work is brought up to the levels necessary to successfully meet our established goals.

2.5 Identification and Development of Potential Sources

MHN, leveraging HNFS' established Subcontracts Program, maintains database Identification and Development of Potential Sources MHN, leveraging Health Net Federal Service's established Subcontracts Program, maintains database and source directories to identify small business concerns. We use listings from the following sources in the standard course of our business to the maximum practicable extent to ensure that small business concerns are identified:

MHN also conducts outreach efforts, our representatives regularly attend and actively participate in federal procurement conferences, trade fairs, corporate meetings, industry council conferences, professional seminars, and association meetings to seek new small businesses qualified to furnish subcontracted services and materials. This effort includes assistance in every reasonable manner to develop new, qualified small business concerns.

2.6 Indirect Costs

The subcontracting goals identified in this section are derived from the direct costs MHN proposes to incur. Indirect costs are not included.

2.7 Administration of the Plan

As part of its inter-company arrangement with MHN, HNFS Government Contracts management oversees the Small Business Program in order to be responsible for the overall management of the Small Business Program. The MHN Small Business Liaison Officer(s) reports to our Subcontractor Manager, who also reports directly to the Director of Government Contracts. The Director of Government Contracts will work hand-in-hand with the Small Business Liaison Officer(s) in the administration of this Subcontracting Plan.

It is the MHN Small Business Liaison Officer's responsibility to ensure overall implementation of the program and maintain program performance data for periodic review by company senior management and Government representatives. In addition, to provide procedural guidance to ensure effective consideration of and participation by Small Business Interest (SBI) concerns in the award of subcontracts.

The Small Business Liaison Officer responsibilities include:

- Develop subcontract plans including percentages and dollar goals for participation of SBI concerns as requested by contracting officers for DoD and other federal agency contracts, proposals, and modifications with a value of $650,000 or more where the proposed effort offers subcontracting opportunities
- Issue policy memorandums and internal operating procedures relative to implementation requirements of Public Law 95-507, 99-661, 100-180, 106-554, and 105-135 and any and all other relevant public laws and applicable implementing regulations
- Conduct training of MHN personnel
- Provide assistance and counsel to SBI concerns and procurement team members regarding MHN procurement procedures with respect to such matters as bid preparation, quality requirements, schedule requirements, availability of progress payments and assistance with understanding and complying with contractual requirements

- Compile and maintain a database of potential Small Business concerns to assist technical and procurement personnel in locating and contracting with such concerns
- Represent MHN with cognizant Government agencies including components of the DoD and the SBA, as well as state and local agencies, local Chambers of Commerce, national and regional purchasing councils, and other organizations
- Cooperate with and assist local SBA representatives with respect to periodic reviews and/or opportunity referrals
- Assure that SBI concerns are given consideration in make-or-buy decisions
- Participate in and/or sponsor programs that provide training and business related information to SBI concerns
- Attend trade association conferences and trade shows to further promote the business opportunities MHN can provide to SBI concerns
- Promote further outreach if goals are not being met
- Assist with recognizing technical and procurement personnel who have excelled in identifying and developing new SBI business opportunities and implementing the Small Business Subcontracting Plan

2.8 Subcontractor Flowdown Provisions

MHN includes the FAR clauses at 52.219-8, Utilization of Small Business Concerns and 52.219-9, Small Business Subcontracting Plan in all subcontracts issued in support of MFLC and other federal agency contracts, except where not required by the terms of the affected clauses. With the inclusion of these flow down provisions, MHN will ensure that all subcontractors (except small business concerns) that receive subcontracts in excess of $650,000 ($1,500,000 for construction) to adopt a plan that complies with the requirements of the clause at 52.219-9.

2.9 Special Studies and Reports

MHN will cooperate in any study or survey as may be required.

- MHN will submit to the Contracting Officer semiannually and at contract completion the required periodic reports utilizing the Electronic Subcontracting Reporting System (eSRS). The reports will include:
 - Individual Subcontract Reports (ISR) (formerly Standard Form 294)

- Summary Subcontract Report (SSR) (formerly Standard Form 295), including a breakout of subcontract awards, in whole dollars, to small disadvantaged business SBI concerns by North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Industry Subsector at the close of each fiscal year
- MHN will ensure that our subcontractors agree to submit these reports, when appropriate
- MHN will provide our prime contract number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, prime contractor's DUNS number, and the email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting reports, to all first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans so that it can be entered into the eSRS system. MHN will continue to furnish this information to any new first-tier subcontractors with subcontracting plans in the future
- MHN will ensure; by written correspondence (to include certification), that our subcontractors' with subcontracting plans provide the prime contract number, our own DUNS number, subcontract number between the prime and subcontractor, and email address of the Government and/or Contractor official responsible for acknowledging or rejecting the reports, to our subcontractors with subcontracting plans

2.10 Records to be Maintained

MHN will maintain records to demonstrate that our Small Business Subcontracting Program policies and procedures have been implemented. Additionally, records will be maintained, to track actual subcontracted dollars as compared to planned subcontracted dollars with the goal of assuring compliance with the requirements of this plan.

Examples of other records that are maintained are:

- SBI source lists, guides and other data, which enable procurement personnel to identify, develop and provide bid opportunities to such concerns
- Records of efforts to locate, obtain, and utilize SBI sources through contacts with government agencies and industry organizations
- Records of all awards of $100,000 or more, indicating on each solicitation (1) whether SBI concerns were solicited and, if not, why not, and (2) if applicable, the reason why the award was not made to a SBI concern
- Records of outreach efforts to contact trade associations, business development organizations, participation in conferences and trade fairs, and Veteran service organizations to locate SBI concerns
- Records of internal guidance and encouragement provided to procurement staff through workshops, seminars, training, etc., and monitoring performance to evaluate compliance with the program's requirement
- Records supporting award data submitted by the offeror to the government, including name, address, and business size of each subcontractor

2.11 MHN Functions Consistent With Efficient Contract Performance

Consistent with efficient contract performance, the following functions are accomplished through our day-to-day administration of the plan:

- Assist and encourage the participation of all potential subcontractors and SBI concerns by arranging solicitation requirements to ensure the requirements are not needlessly restrictive. The time to respond to solicitations, the quantity of product required, the technical specifications, and the delivery requirements will be designed to accommodate the needs of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. All SBI concerns will be given an opportunity to compete over a period of time, as subcontracting opportunities become available. Guidance and counsel are given to SBI concerns if they are not the selected offeror, whether it is based on non-competitiveness, or for any other reason

- Provide adequate and timely consideration for SBI concerns during the “make-or-buy” decision process. The capabilities of the SBI concerns will be considered prior to finalizing the “make or buy” decision
- Provide timely payment of amounts due pursuant to the terms of their subcontract. Payment procedures are set forth in accordance with our standard “Payments” clause, which is incorporated into every subcontract
- Counsel and discuss potential subcontracting opportunities with representatives of qualified Subcontractors and SBI concerns. This guidance is provided on a daily basis by the Company’s procurement staff
- Confirm by using the CCR database or by contacting the SBA any subcontractor representing themselves as a HUBZone small business concern
- Provide notice to subcontractors concerning penalties and remedies they may incur as a result of misrepresenting their business classification/size for the purpose of obtaining a subcontract that is to be included as part or all of a goal contained in the MHN contracting plan
- Prior to contract award, inform in writing any unsuccessful small business concern the name and location of the successful offeror

2.12 Equitable Opportunity

As an inter-company partner with MHN, the HNFS Vice President, Government Contracts, has issued several policies and procedures establishing directives to ensure the advocacy of the Small Business Program as it applies to both HNFS and MHN.

These include policies and procedures designed as directives to subcontract managers, purchasing agents, and buyers requiring compliance with corporate policy. MHN’S goal is to support SBI participation to the maximum extent practicable.

These directives prescribe requirements, including, but not limited to Procurement File Documentation, Supplier Business Questionnaires, and Sourcing and Selection Procurement Summaries.

In addition, and to ensure maximum SBI participation, “for each acquisition that has an anticipated dollar value exceeding $2,500, MHN will make a good faith effort to include at least one SBI concern in the solicitation for proposal or request for quote.”

2.13 Description of Good Faith Effort

MHN’s ability to meet the Small Business goals contained in this Plan is fully achievable as supported by the information above. However, we will nevertheless continue our efforts to expand small business participation in all areas that offer such potential. As opportunities arise that were not identified at the time of submission of our proposal MHN will continue to reach out to our small business partners to satisfy those requirements whenever reasonable and supportable. Further, MHN will continue to expand our MFLC network with qualified independent subcontractor counselors who are SDVOSB and VOSB. We will continue to urge our small business counselors, where applicable, to seek out SBA certification of their HUBZone business classification.

In addition, we continue to explore other possible AbilityOne organizations with which MHN may later subcontract should opportunities arise that were not envisioned during the preparation of this proposal. We will continue to work with Pride Industries (an AbilityOne organization) with which we have an ongoing relationship to identify possible subcontracting opportunities, perhaps in the areas of records retention, reproduction services, materials support, etc. should such requirements materialize under the resulting Contract. MHN is committed to further developing and expanding our small business/AbilityOne partners.
