Tim: Thank you for the additional legal analysis and counsel. It is greatly appreciated.

Debbie and Tim N.: Please put all staffers (excluding the Security Detail) on the early morning contract flight. Please put the secretary and the Security Detail on the non-contract flight departing at 1:15pm and arriving at 11:59 pm as the Monday WH meeting requires additional morning preparation and review to ensure full value creation.

Thank you all,

Dan

Hi Dan and all,

We have looked at the options and think that the early morning contract carrier flight is generally preferable to the others as it most closely comports with the travel regulations. We have also considered whether it is permissible for him to travel on the non-contract carrier flight. Here are the exceptions to the contract carrier rule:

"...your agency may authorize use of a fare other-than a contract city-pair fare when

- (a) Space on a scheduled contract flight is not available in time to accomplish the purpose of your travel, or use of contract service would require you to incur unnecessary overnight lodging costs which would increase the total cost of the trip;
- (b) The contractor's flight schedule is inconsistent with explicit policies of your Federal department or agency with regard to scheduling travel during normal working hours;
- (c) A non-contract carrier offers a lower fare to the general public that, if used, will result in a lower total trip cost to the Government (the combined costs of transportation, lodging, meals, and related expenses considered);"

We think the only possible exception is (b). Although the Department does not have a written policy to not force employees to travel outside normal duty hours, we have talked with the travel program and confirmed that the Department does not mandate that people to travel outside normal duties hours and that it uses compensatory time for any 'off-duty' time spent traveling. We recognize that this is not an ideal expression of policy (and that a new policy may be forthcoming), but think that it is enough to conclude that the Department's policy is that the Secretary will not be required to travel outside duty, especially when all of the flights require a start or end time that is either significantly (3 or more hours) earlier or later than a 'normal' work day.

Recognizing that all the available flights involve some amount of off duty travel, we think that the Department may determine the optimal flight for the Secretary given his schedule and work commitments and also that it may choose the non-contract fare as an available option.

As always, our conclusion is dependent on the specific circumstances here, including that this involves a last minute change in schedule that is being made to accommodate a senior administration meeting on Monday.

Let us know if you have questions.

Thanks,
Tim

MEMORANDUM

TO: Authorizing Official
FROM: Office of Scheduling and Advance
SUBJECT: Personal Time Deviation from a Temporary Duty Station
DATE: March 16, 2017

On March 17, 2017, Secretary Ryan Zinke will be in Yellowstone National Park in southwest Montana for a number of official engagements. After the conclusion of his final official engagement, Secretary Zinke is scheduled to be on personal travel in southwest Montana from the evening of March 17 until the morning of March 19. On the morning of March 19, Secretary Zinke will resume and complete his official travel with a commercial flight from Bozeman, Montana, to Washington, D.C.

Secretary Zinke is currently scheduled to take the following flight from Bozeman to Washington:

- ❖ Sunday, March 19, 2017
 - Delta Air Lines #1966
 - 8:00am MDT Depart Bozeman, MT
 - 1:50pm EDT Arrive Atlanta, GA
 - Connection in Atlanta, GA
 - Delta Air Lines #2238
 - 3:20pm EDT Depart Atlanta, GA
 - 5:08pm EDT Arrive Washington, DC (DCA)

The government contract fare for this flight is $473.80 (documentation attached).

If Secretary Zinke was not scheduled to do personal travel in southwest Montana from March 17 to March 19, he would return to his permanent duty station in Washington, D.C., on March 18. He would return on March 18 because his final official engagement at Yellowstone National Park is not scheduled to conclude until 3:30pm, and the latest contract carrier flight that is not an overnight flight from Bozeman to Washington on March 17 departs at 2:35pm. Therefore, Secretary Zinke would take the following contract carrier flight to return to Washington on March 18:

- ❖ Saturday, March 18, 2017
 - Delta Air Lines #1188
 - 2:13pm MDT Depart Bozeman, MT
 - 7:57pm EDT Arrive Atlanta, GA
 - Connection in Atlanta, GA
 - Delta Air Lines #374
 - 9:05pm EDT Depart Atlanta, GA
 - 10:51pm EDT Arrive Washington, DC (DCA)

The government contract fare for this flight is $473.80 (documentation attached).

Secretary Zinke has no official business scheduled in southwest Montana from the evening of March 17 through the morning of March 19. Therefore, it can be determined that Secretary Zinke's travel in southwest Montana from the evening of March 17 through the morning of March 19 is a personal time deviation from a temporary duty station.

The Department of the Interior Division of General Law has advised that a personal time deviation from a temporary duty station is permitted during official travel if the Department incurs no additional cost as a result of the deviation. The above cost comparison indicates that Secretary Zinke's personal time deviation in southwest Montana will result in no increased cost to the Department. No additional expenses (lodging, M&IE, etc.) will be incurred by the government during Secretary Zinke's personal time deviation.

Please provide approval for Secretary Zinke to make a personal time deviation from his temporary duty station in southwest Montana from March 17, 2017, through March 19, 2017. Please also provide approval for the government to pay for Secretary Zinke's travel from Bozeman, Montana, to Washington, D.C., on March 19, 2017, on Delta Air Lines #1966 and Delta Air Lines #2238
