

Promote and Protect Your Authentic Indian Art and Craftwork

Sunday, September 17
10:00am to 4:30pm
Museum of the Plains Indian
Junction of U.S. Highways 2 & 89
Browning, Montana

The Indian Arts and Crafts Board will present a series of free panels and presentations on State and federal Indian arts and crafts laws, Trademarks, Patents, Copyright, general marketing advice, and internet marketing tools. This event is open to the public, and no registration is required.

The Museum of the Plains Indian will be open this day for seminar attendees only.

Paul McDaniels, Jr., 2004

For additional information, please contact the Indian Arts and Crafts Board toll-free at:
1-888 ART-FAKE

Participants

Indian Arts and Crafts Board, USDI
Ken Van Wey, Program Specialist

U.S. Patent and Trademark Office
*Susan Anthony, Attorney, Global Intellectual Property
Academy, Office of Policy and International Affairs*

Montana Department of Justice
Melissa Schlichting, Deputy Attorney General

Made in Montana/Native American Made in Montana
Lonie Stimac, Industry Services & Outreach